He started with offering the prayer before delivering the sermon, with neither call for prayer “Adhan” nor call for prayer establishment “Iqamah.” Then, when he finished from the prayer he got up, leaning on Bilal. He praised Allah Almighty and lauded Him. He admonished the people, reminded them (of Allah's Mercy and Punishment) and exhorted them to obey Allah. Then, he made his way to the women, and Bilal was with him, and ordered them to fear Allah Almighty, instructed them and reminded them (of good deeds). He praised Allah and lauded Him (as it is fitting for Him). He further exhorted them to obey Allah Almighty. He said to them: “Give in charity, for the majority of you would be the fuel of the Hell.” One from among the women, with brown cheeks, stood up and said: “Why is that, O Messenger of Allah?” he replied: “Because your complaints are so much, and you are ungrateful to your husbands.” Then, they started taking off and throwing their earrings and rings in the clothing of Bilal, by way of giving in charity from their ornaments.

If he wished to send an army for an expedition, he would do so; or if he wanted to give an order, he would do so, and he used to say: “Give in charity! Give in charity! Give in charity!” However, women were the most ready among the people to give in charity.

Whenever he mentioned the Hour (of Judgement), the upper part of his cheeks would become red, his voice would rise, and he would grow so much angry, really as if he were a warner of an enemy, saying: "The enemy is going to attack you in the morning and in the evening." He also said: "Whoever left wealth (to be inherited) then it would go to his family, and whoever left debts (to be fulfilled) or (helpless) children, then, I'm responsible to fulfill (his debts) and take care (of his children), for indeed, I have more claim over the faithful believers than their own selves."

[23] The Imam Exhorts In His Sermon People To Give In Charity

1576- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that he said: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to set out on the days of both Ids, and lead the people in a two-rak'ah prayer after which he would deliver his sermon, in which he used to order the people to give in charity. However, women were the most ready among the people to give in charity. If he wanted to give an order, he would do so, and if he wished to send a military expedition, he would do so; otherwise, he would turn away.

1577- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Hasan that he said: Ibn Abbas delivered a sermon towards the end of Ramadan over the pulpit of the mosque of Basra, in which he said to the people: "Give out the alms of your fasting." The people looked at each other (as if they did not know how to do so), thereupon Ibn Abbas asked: "Who among you is from the inhabitants of Medina? Stand and go to your brothers (from the inhabitants of Basra) and instruct them (how to give the alms of breaking their fast). No doubt, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" enjoined it to be given by every Muslim, be he free or slave, male or female, young or old, in the form of half a Sa' of wheat, a Sa' of dates, or parley."

1578- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Bara' Ibn Azib that he said: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" delivered the speech after offering the prayer on the Day of Sacrifice and said: "Whoever offers the prayer like us and slaughters like us then he has behaved according to the our right way (of sunnah). Whoever slaughters his sacrifice before the Feast prayer, (has not offered a sacrifice, but) it is just a mutton of a sheep." Abu Burdah Ibn Niyar said: "O Allah's Apostle! By Allah, I had slaughtered my sheep before I came out to offer the Id prayer and I thought today as a day of

The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The sheep which you have slaughtered is just mutton (not a sacrifice)." He (Abu Burdah) said: "O Allah's Apostle! I have a young she-goat, which is dearer to me than two sheep. Will that be sufficient as a sacrifice on my behalf?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Yes, it will be sufficient for you (only this time) but it will not be sufficient (as a sacrifice) for anyone else after you."

1580- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Samurah that he said: I more often saw Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" delivering his sermon while standing, after which he would sit (and take a short interval between both sermons) in which he would not speak, and then he would stand once again and deliver the other sermon. Then, do not trust him, who relates to you that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to deliver the sermon while sitting.

Then he said: "Allah has told the truth (when He said): Verily, your property and children are a (source of)

for I forbade her to speak anything (about the dispute) between the two factions, but she refused (my advice) and went on (taking part in that dispute)." I took an oath that he should guide me to her. We went to A'ishah and (we were admitted and) she asked him: "Who is that person with you?" He said: "He is Sa'd Ibn Hisham." She asked: "Which Hisham (do you mean)?" He said: "Hisham Ibn Amir." She invoked mercy (from Allah) upon him (Amir) and spoke well of him. I said: "O Mother of the Believers! Tell me about the character of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". She asked: "Do you not read The Qur'an?" I said: "Yes (I read it)." She said: "The character of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was (taken from) The Qur'an." I intended to get up (and not to ask anything more than that), but it seemed to me (to ask her about) the standing of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (for the supererogatory Night prayer). I then said: "O Mother of Believers! Tell me about the standing of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (for the supererogatory Night prayer)!" She asked: "Did you not recite (Allah's saying): "O you wrapped up"?" I answered in the affirmative. She said: "Allah "Exalted and Glorified be He" enjoined the Night Prayer at the beginning of this Surah. So the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and his Companions offered this (Night Prayer) for one year until their feet got swollen. Allah held back the conclusion of this Surah for twelve months in the heaven, after which He revealed the concluding Verses of this Surah which lightened (the burden of that Prayer). The result was that the Night Prayer became supererogatory after being obligatory." I intended to get up (and not to ask anything more than that), but it seemed to me (to ask her about) the Witr of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". I said: "O Mother of Believers! Tell me about the Witr of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". She said: "We used to bring the teeth cleanser for him, water for his ablution, and Allah would awaken him whenever He wished during the night. He would use the teeth cleanser, perform ablution, and offer eight rak'ahs, and would not sit except in the eighth of them. He would celebrate Allah, praise and supplicate Him. Then he would utter the end salutation, so loud that we would hear it. Then he would pray two rak'ahs in a sitting position after uttering the salutation, followed by a further rak'ah. The total then was eleven rak'ahs O my son! when the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" grew old and put on flesh, he offered seven (rak'ahs instead of nine) for the Witr, followed by further two rak'ahs in a sitting posture, after uttering the end salutation. In this way, the total became nine O my son! Whenever the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered the Prayer, he liked to be regular on offering it. Whenever he was overpowered by sleep or pain and he failed to offer the supererogatory Prayer at night, he would offer twelve rak'ahs by day. I never knew that Allah's Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" recited the whole Qur'an in a single night, or kept praying through the night till morning, or observed fast for a complete month except (the month of) Ramadan." Then, I went to Ibn Abbas to whom I narrated that Hadith. He said: "She has told the truth. Had I gone to her and got into her presence, I would have listened to it orally from her."

[3] The Reward Of Such As Stands (For Night Prayer) During Ramadan Out Of Faith And Expecting (The Reward From Allah)

1599- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who stands (for supererogatory night prayer) during (the month of) Ramadan, out of sincere faith, and expecting (the reward thereof from Allah Almighty), his earlier sins will be forgiven for him."

1600- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who stands (for supererogatory night prayer) during (the month of) Ramadan, out of sincere faith, and expecting (the reward thereof from Allah Almighty), his earlier sins will be forgiven for him."

[4] Standing (For Night Prayer) During The Month Of Ramadan

1601- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: On one night Allah's Messenger "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" prayed in the mosque and some men prayed with him. In the second night he prayed and more people prayed behind him. But in the third or fourth night, when they assembled (in the mosque) The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not come to them. In the morning he said to them: "Verily I learnt what you had done, but nothing prevented me from coming to you except that I was afraid that this (Tahajjud supererogatory) prayer might be made obligatory." This was in Ramadan.

1602- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Dharr that he said: We observed the fasts of Ramadan with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and he did not stand with us on any (night) of it until it remained only seven (nights of it), when he stood with us on the seventh night (to its conclusion, i.e. the first of those seven) till about one-third the night elapsed. Then when it was the sixth night (to its conclusion, i.e. the second of the remaining seven) he did not stand (for prayer with us); and when it was the fifth night (to its conclusion) he stood (for prayer) with us until about half the night passed. We said to him: "O Messenger of Allah! Would that you lead us in the supererogatory prayer for the remaining portion of this night of ours!" on that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If one stands (for supererogatory prayer) with the imam until he (finishes and) turns away, it will be equal (in reward) to standing (for prayer) for the whole night." When it was the fourth (night to the conclusion of the month), he did not stand (for prayer) on it; and when it was the third (night), he gathered his wives and family, and the people gathered (in the mosque); and he kept standing with us (for the prayer so much long) that we felt afraid we would miss the Prosperity. It was said (to Abu Dharr): What is the Prosperity? He said: It refers to the Suhur (night meal taken a short time before dawn whenever one intends to observe fast). Then, he did not stand with us (for prayer) on any (night else) of the remaining portion of the month).

1603- It is narrated on the authority of An-Nu'man Ibn Bashir that he said while being on the pulpit of the mosque of Hims: We stood (for supererogatory night prayer) with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on the twenty-third night of the month of Ramadan until the first third of the night, and on the twenty-fifth night, we stood (for supererogatory night prayer) with him until the half of the night; and on the twenty-seventh night we stood (for night supererogatory prayer) with him so long that we thought we would not catch up with the Prosperity, which they used to call Suhur (night meal taken a short time before dawn whenever one intends to observe fast).

[5] Exhortation To Stand (For Prayer) At Night

1604- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: Allah's Apostle" Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Satan puts three knots at the back of the head of any of you if he is asleep, putting over each of which a long night, i.e. "keep asleep!" When one wakes up and remembers Allah, one knot is undone. When one performs ablution, the second knot is undone. When one (stands and) offers prayer all the knots are then undone and one gets up energetic with a good heart in the morning (because of the goodness he has received). If he does not do so, he would get up lazy and with the mischievous heart (since he received no good)."

1605- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah that he said: A mention was made in the presence of Allah's Apostle" Allah's blessing and peace be

1606- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah that a man said to Allah's Apostle" Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "O Messenger of Allah! so and so kept asleep and did not pray during the last night until morning entered upon him." On that Allah's Apostle" Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "This is a man, in whose ears Satan has urinated."

1607- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah's Mercy be upon a man who gets up at night, offers (supererogatory) prayer, and awakens his wife and she offers prayer, and if she refuses, he sprinkles water on her face; Allah's Mercy be upon a woman who gets up at night, offers (supererogatory) prayer, and awakens her husband and he offers prayer, and if he refuses, she sprinkles water on his face."

1608- It is narrated on the authority of Husain Ibn Ali from his father Ali Ibn Abu Talib that he said: One night Allah's Apostle" Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to me and (my wife) Fatimah and asked: "Won't you offer (the night supererogatory) prayer?" I said: "O Allah's Apostle! Our souls are in the hand of Allah and if He wants us to get up He will make us get up." When I said that, Allah's Apostle" Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" left us without saying a word. But I heard him, while turning away, striking his thigh and saying: "But man is, in most things, contentious." (The Cave "Al-Kahf" 54)

1609- It is narrated on the authority of Husain Ibn Ali from his father Ali Ibn Abu Talib that he said: One night Allah's Apostle" Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to me and (my wife) Fatimah and awakened us to offer (the night supererogatory) prayer, and then he went back to his house and prayed for a long portion of the night, during which he heard no voice from us. He returned to us and awakened us and said: "Get up and offer (supererogatory night) prayer." I sat while rubbing my eye and I said: "We, by Allah, never pray but what Allah has doomed us to pray. Our souls are in the hand of Allah and if He wants us to get up He will make us get up." Allah's Apostle" Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" turned away while saying, and striking his thigh with his hand: "We never pray but what Allah has doomed us to pray! But man is, in most things, contentious."

1623- It is narrated on the authority of Humaid Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Awf from one of the companions of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that he said: I was on journey with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when I said (to myself): "By Allah! I'm going to watch the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in his (supererogatory night) prayer, in order to see his conduct." When he offered Isha prayer (which is to be offered) at darkness he lay down for a portion of the night after which he woke up, looked at the horizon and said: "Our Lord! not for naught have you created (all) this! Glory to Thee! Give us salvation from the Penalty of the Fire... for You never break Your promise." (Al Imran 191:194) then, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went to his bed from which he brought out a Siwak, and poured water into a pot that was with him, and then he brushed his teeth (and performed ablution). Then, he got up and offered prayer (for a portion of the night so long) that I said (to myself): "He prayed as long as he slept." Then, he lay down (for a portion of the night so long) that I said (to myself): "He slept as long as he prayed." Then, he woke up and did the same as he had done and said the same as he had said in the first time. the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did the same thrice before Fajr (prayer).

[13] The Night Prayer Of The Messenger Of Allah

1624- It is narrated on the authority of Anas that he said: Whenever we liked to see the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in prayer at night, we would see him; and whenever we liked to see the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" as sleeping, we would see him. (The main point here is that the night supererogatory prayer of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was not restricted to a certain portion of the night apart from the whole night, nor was his sleep: he offered the supererogatory night prayer at all the portions of the night, sometimes at the first portion, sometimes at the middle, and sometimes at the last, and he slept also at all the portions of the night).

1625- It is narrated on the authority of Ya'li Ibn Mamlak that he asked Umm Salamah about the way of prayer of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (at night), thereupon she said: "He used to offer Isha prayer and then glorify (Allah), and then pray as long as Allah willed (him to pray) at night, after which he used to turn away and sleep, as long as was the duration of his prayer, then he used to get up from his sleep and pray as long as was the duration of his sleep; and this prayer of him used to go on until Morning (prayer)."

He used to pray and then sleep as long as was the duration of his prayer, then pray as long as was the duration of his sleep, then sleep as long as was the duration of his prayer, and so on until morning." She described the way of his recitation, and behold! She described the way of his recitation letter by letter.

[18] What One Does When He Inaugurates The Prayer While Standing (At Night)

1643- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to offer (supererogatory) prayer for a very long portion of the night: whenever he prayed as standing, he would bow from his standing posture, and whenever he prayed as sitting, he would bow from his sitting posture.

1644- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to offer (supererogatory) prayer (at night) while standing (sometimes) and sitting (sometimes): whenever he inaugurated the prayer as standing, he would bow from his standing posture, and whenever he inaugurated the prayer as sitting, he would bow from his sitting posture.

He used to do the same in the second rak'ah.

1646- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: I've never seen Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having prayed while sitting until he became old (and put on flesh). He used to pray and recite while sitting, and when thirty or forty Holy verses remained from the recitation he would get up and recite them while standing and then he would bow down.

1647- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (in his last days) used to recite while sitting (in his prayer), and when he intended to bow, he would stand (a short period before bowing) enough for anyone to recite forty Holy verses (after which he would bow).

1648- It is narrated on the authority of Sa'd Ibn Hisham Ibn Amir that he said: I came to Medina and visited A'ishah. She asked: "Who are you?" I said: "I'm Sa'd Ibn Hisham Ibn Amir." She said: "Allah's Mercy be upon your father!" I said: "Tell me about the prayer of Allah's Apostle "Allah's

Then, he used to offer two rak'ahs while sitting, after which he used to lie on his side: sometimes Bilal came and informed him of (the time of Fajr) prayer before he took nap, and sometimes (he came to him) even while he was taking nap, and sometimes I had doubt whether he had or had not taken his nap, and informed him of (the due time of Fajr) prayer. ### [19] Offering The Supererogatory Prayer While Sitting

1649- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" never refrained from (kissing me in my) cheek even though he was fasting, and he did not die until he offered the most part of his prayers while sitting, barring the (obligatory) written prayer, and the dearest deed to him was that which one did regularly, no matter little it might be.

1817- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "None of you should hope for death because of a trouble he might receive, but rather let him say: O Allah, keep me alive as long as life is good for me and bring death to me if death is good for me."

1818- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Behold! None of you should hope for death because of a trouble he might receive, but if it is necessary for him to do, let him rather say: O Allah, keep me alive as long as life is good for me and bring death to me if death is good for me."

1820- It is narrated on the authority of Qais that he said: I entered upon Khabbab and he had been cauterized seven times in his abdomen (for a severe disease from which he was suffering), thereupon he said: "Had it not been for the fact that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade us to invoke death upon ourselves, surely, I would have invoked it upon myself."

1821- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Remember the pleasure destroyer (i.e. death) so much (perchance you might receive admonition)."

She added: When Abu Salamah died, I went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah! what should I say?" He said: "You should say: O Allah! Forgive for us and him, and give me a substitute, better than him." I said so, and Allah Almighty gave me a better substitute, (The Prophet) Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

1825- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Buraidah from his father that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, the believer's death is (recognized) by the sweat of forehead." (This might be because of the severity of death agonies he suffers to have the remaining portion of his sins plotted out from him; or because of his feeling shy of Allah Almighty when he receives the glad tidings of his being admitted to the Garden in spite of his sins; or it might be said that the sweat of forehead is a sign by which the believing dead in particular are characterized, even though its significance is unknown).

1826- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Buraidah from his father that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The faithful believer dies with the sweat of forehead."

They ask him: "What has so and so done? What has so and so done?" others say: "Leave him (now) for (until recently) he has been

[10] Pertaining To Such As Loves To Meet Allah Almighty

1831- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who loves to meet Allah, Allah loves to meet him, and he, who dislikes to meet Allah, Allah dislikes to meet him." Shuraih said: I went to A'ishah and said: "O Mother of Believers! I heard Abu Hurairah having narrated a Hadith from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and if it is so, surely, all of us will be ruined." He said: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who loves to meet Allah, Allah loves to meet him, and he, who dislikes to meet Allah, Allah dislikes to meet him." And of a surety, there is none of us but that he dislikes death." A'ishah said: "It is true that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said so. But it is not the same as you intend: at the moment the sight is fixedly open, his chest is disturbed, and the skin quivers, then, He, who loves to meet Allah, Allah loves to meet him, and he, who dislikes to meet Allah, Allah dislikes to meet him."

1832- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: Allah Almighty says: "He, who loves to meet Me, I love to meet him, and he, who hates to meet Me, I hate to meet him."

1835- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He,

Is the dislike of meeting Allah implied in the dislike of facing death? No doubt, all of us dislike death.” On that he said: “No (it is not applicable to that). At the time of death, if one is given the glad tidings of Allah’s Mercy and Forgiveness, he will love to meet Allah, and then Allah will love to meet him; and if he receives the news of Allah’s Punishment, he will dislike to meet Allah, and then Allah will dislike to meet him.”

1838- It is narrated on the authority of A’ishah that she said: Abu Bakr came riding his horse from his dwelling place in As-Sunh. He got down from it, entered the Mosque and did not speak with anybody till he came to me and went direct to the Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him”, who was covered with a marked blanket. Abu Bakr uncovered his face. He knelt down and kissed him and then started weeping and said: "Let my father and my mother be sacrificed for you, O Allah’s Prophet! Allah will not combine two deaths on you. You have died the death which was written by Allah for you."

[12] Covering The Body Of The Dead

1839- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Abdullah that he said: On The Day of (the holy battle of) Uhud, my father was brought and his body had been mutilated. He was placed in front of Allah’s Apostle “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” covered with a mantle over him. I went intending to uncover (the dead body of) my father but my people forbade me. Allah’s Apostle “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” gave his order and he was shifted away. At that time he heard the voice of a crying woman and asked: "Who is this?" They said: "It is the daughter or the sister of Amr." He said: "Why does she weep? (or let her stop weeping), for the angels had been shading him with their wings till he was shifted away."

Then, he placed his hand over her body, and she died while being between both hands of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Umm Ayman went on weeping, thereupon the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Umm Ayman! Are you weeping even though the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" is with you?" she said: "Why am I not weeping, since the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" himself is weeping?" the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I'm not weeping: this (weeping you see) is (caused by) mercy." Then, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "A faithful believer is good at any case: his soul is taken away from between his sides, even though he praises Allah Almighty."

1841- It is narrated on the authority of Anas that when the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" died, Fatimah wept on him while saying (in lamentation): "O my father! 1842- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir that his father was killed on the day of (the holy battle of) Uhud. His daughter said: "By Allah! Would that you died as a martyr, for you've got ready for that." On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, his reward has become incumbent upon Allah Almighty according to his intention. What do you regard the martyr among you?" they said: "It is him, who is killed in the Cause of Allah." On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Indeed, there are seven types of martyrdom other than the killing in Allah's Cause: whoever dies because of plague is a martyr; whoever dies because of his abdomen is a martyr; whoever dies because of drowning is a martyr; whoever dies because of falling under ruins is a martyr; whoever dies because of pleurisy is a martyr; whoever dies because of burning is a martyr; and a (pregnant) woman who dies with what is in her womb is a martyr."

A man came and said: "O Allah's Apostle! The women of Ja'far are crying." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered him to stop them from crying. The man went and came back and said: "I tried to stop them but they disobeyed." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered him for the second time to forbid them. He went again and came back and said: "I tried to forbid them, but they did not desist." A'ishah added: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Put dust in their mouths." (Then she said): I said (to that man): "May Allah stick your nose in the dust! forgive Abu Abd Ar-Rahman! By no means has he told a lie, but perhaps he forgot or committed a mistake. Once, Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came upon a Jewess (who was dead) over whom they were weeping, thereupon he said: "They are weeping over her, even though she is being punished."

1854- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that A'ishah said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah Almighty increases the infidel (deceased) in punishment because of his family's weeping over him."

1855- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Abu Mulaikah that he said: When Umm Iban (daughter of Uthman) died, I came (to follow her funeral procession) with the people, and I sat between both Ibn Umar and Ibn Abbas. Then, the women went on wailing and Ibn Umar said (to Amr Ibn Uthman): "Do you not forbid (them) from wailing? No doubt, I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "The dead is punished because of the wailing of his family over him."" Ibn Abbas said: "Umar used to say some of that. I set out with Umar from Mecca. When we reached Al-Baida, there was a group of people under the shadow of a tree. He said to me: "Go and tell me who those people are." I (went and) found out that he was Suhaib and his family. I (returned and) said to him: "O Commander of Believers! This is Suhaib in the company of his family." He said: "Invite him to me." When we entered Medina, Umar was fatally wounded. Suhaib (entered upon him and) sat weeping and saying: "Alas for the brother! alas for the brother!" Upon this, Umar said: "O Suhaib! Do not wail over me! No doubt, I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said:" The dead would be punished for his family's wailing over him."" Ibn Abbas said: I mentioned that to A'ishah. She said: "No, by Allah! of course you do not relate this narration from such as lies or is belied (by others)! But, one's hearing might commit mistakes, and in the Qur'an you should have what satisfies you: "No bearer of a burden could bear the burden of another." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah Almighty increases the punishment of the infidel because of his family's weeping over him."

[37] The Order To Make Perfect One's Shroud

1892- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Abdullah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" addressed us one day, and made a mention of one of his companions who died, and was shrouded in a shroud, not long enough (to cover the whole of his body), and further was buried at night. On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" scolded the people to bury their dead at night (in order to give opportunity to much more men to offer funeral prayer for him), unless there is severe necessity; and the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" further said: "When anyone of you undertakes the operation of shrouding his brother, let him make perfect his shroud."

[38] Which Shroud Is The Best?

1893- It is narrated on the authority of Samurah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Wear the white of your clothes, for it is more pleasant and much purer, and also shroud your dead in it."

[39] The Shroud Of The Prophet "Peace Be Upon Him"

1895- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was shrouded in three Yemenite white garments, having neither shirt nor turban.

1896- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was shrouded in three Yemenite white garments, made of cotton, having neither shirt nor turban. A mention was made to A'ishah of the statement that they were of two garments and a Hibrah Burdah, thereupon she said: It is true that a Hibrah Burdah was brought, but they returned it, and did not bury him in it.

[40] The Shirt In The Shroud

1897- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar: When Abdullah Ibn Ubai (the chief of hypocrites) died, his son came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Allah's Apostle! Please give me your shirt to shroud him in it, and further perform the funeral prayer for him and ask for Allah's Forgiveness for him." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave him his shirt, and said to him: "When you finish

(40) - الْقَمِيصُ فِي الْكَفَنِ

from washing his dead body, notify me so that I would offer the funeral prayer for him." When The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" got up to offer the funeral prayer, Umar took hold of his garment and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Would you offer the funeral prayer for him though Allah has forbidden you to offer the funeral prayer for the hypocrites?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I have been given the freedom of choice by Allah whether to ask for their forgiveness or not, because Allah said: "Whether you ask for their forgiveness, or not, (their sin is unpardonable)". So The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered the funeral prayer. On that the revelation came: "Nor do you ever pray for any of them that dies, nor stand at his grave; for they rejected Allah and His Messenger, and died in a state of perverse rebellion." Afterwards, he never offered funeral prayer for those (hypocrites).

1898- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Abdullah: the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to the grave of Abdullah Ibn Ubai after his body was buried. He ordered The body be brought out and put on his knees. Then the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" put his saliva over the body and clothed it in his shirt, and Allah knows better.

1899- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Abdullah that he said: (The reason why the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave Abdullah Ibn Ubai his shirt to be shrouded in it was that) when Al-Abbas Ibn Abd Al-Muttalib was in Medina, and (he was in need of a shirt) the Ansar looked for a shirt to dress him in it, and found no shirt more fitting for his body than that of Abdullah Ibn Ubai, who dressed him in it.

1900- It is narrated on the authority of Khabbab Ibn Al-Aratt that he said: We emigrated with The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in Allah's cause, and so our reward was then surely incumbent on Allah. Some of us died and they did not take anything from their rewards in this world, amongst whom was Mus'ab Ibn Umair ; and others got their rewards. Mus'ab Ibn Umair was martyred on the day of Uhud battle, and we could get nothing except his short garment to shroud him in. When we covered his head his feet became bare and vice versa. So The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered us to cover his head only and to put Idhkhair (a kind of shrub) over his feet. On the other hand, there is one amongst us for whom the fruit (of reward) has become ripe which he plucks.

[41] How Should Such As In The State Of Ihram Be Shrouded?

1901- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Wash the dead body of such as (dies while being) in the state of Ihram in both his garments, in which he assumed Ihram, and wash him with water and infusion of lote leaves, and then shroud his dead body in them, and apply no perfume to his body, and do not cover his head, for he will be resurrected on the Day of Judgement as being in such a state of Ihram."

But they brought out her coffin at night, and they disliked to awaken the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" at night. When it was morning, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was told about the news of her death, thereupon the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Have I not ordered you to notify me of her death?" they said: "O Messenger of Allah! we disliked to awaken you at night." the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came out until (he reached the graveyard and) made the people align and he led (the funeral prayer for her which consisted of) four Takbirs.

[50] Praising The Dead

1929- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that he said: A funeral procession came across The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and the people praised the deceased. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It (Paradise) has been affirmed to him." Then another funeral procession passed and the people condemned the deceased. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It (Hell) has been affirmed to him." Umar (Ibn Al-Khattab) said: "O Messenger of Allah! Let my father and mother be sacrificed for you! A funeral procession passed by, with the people praising the deceased; and you said: "It (Paradise) has been affirmed to him." Another funeral procession passed, with the people criticizing the deceased; and you said: "It (Hell) has been affirmed to him." Upon this, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whomever you praised, Paradise has been affirmed to him; and whomever you criticized, Hell has been affirmed to him. You people are Allah's witnesses on earth."

1930- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: They came with a funeral procession across The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and the people praised the deceased. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It (Paradise) has been affirmed to him." Then they passed by with another funeral procession and the people condemned the deceased. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It (Hell) has been affirmed to him." They said: "O Messenger of Allah! what is the significance of your statement "It has been affirmed to him" in the former and the latter funeral processions?" Upon this, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "As well as the angels are Allah's Witnesses in the heaven, you people are Allah's witnesses on earth."

1931- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Al-Aswad Ad-Dili that he said: I came to Medina. While I was sitting with Umar Ibn Al-Khattab a funeral procession passed by; and the people praised the deceased. Umar said: "It has been affirmed to him." Another funeral procession passed by and the people praised the deceased. Umar said: "It has been affirmed to him." A third passed by and the people spoke badly of the deceased. He said: "It has been affirmed to him." I asked: "O Commander of Believers! What has been affirmed?" He replied: "I said the same as The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had said: "If four persons testify the piety of a Muslim, Allah will admit him to Paradise." We asked: "If three

[61] Offering Funeral Prayer On The Martyrs

1950- It is narrated on the authority of Shaddad Ibn Al-Had that an Arab desert came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and believed in him, and followed his religion (of Islam), and said to him: "Let me live with you as an Emigrant." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entrusted him to some of his companions. When it was a holy battle, in which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" took captives as booty, he distributed it, and fixed a share to him, and gave it to his companions (to whom he entrusted him), and at that time he was looking after their riding mounts. When he returned they gave it (his share) to him. He asked: "What is that?" they said: "This is a share fixed to you by The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." He took it and brought it to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "What is that?" he said: "This is what I've fixed to you." He said: "I have not followed your religion on that condition: I've followed your religion so that I might be thrown here (and he pointed to his throat) with an arrow (in Allah's Cause) and thus , I die and enter the Garden." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If you are really true (to your word) with Allah, Allah will be true to you (in His Promise)." A short time later, they went forth to fight the enemy, and he was brought to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", having been carried, and an arrow had fatally wounded him in the very location to which he had pointed. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked: "Is it he?" they answered in the affirmative. On that he said: "No doubt, he has proved true (to his word) with Allah, and He Almighty has proved true to him (in His Promise)." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" shrouded him in the cloak of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and then he placed him and offered funeral prayer on him. From amongst the words which he recited in his prayer: "O Allah! this is Your Servant: he has set out as an Emigrant in Your Cause, and he was killed as a martyr; and I'm a witness to that."

(67) - الصَّلَاةُ عَلَى مَنْ عَلَيْهِ دَيْنٌ

1959- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir that he said: It was the habit of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" not to offer funeral prayer on a debtor: once, a dead man in debt was brought to him, and he asked: "Does he owe any debt (to be fulfilled)?" they said: "Yes, he has owed two Dinars." On that he said: "Offer the funeral prayer you're your companion." Abu Qatadah said: "They are due upon me (to fulfill on his behalf) O Messenger of Allah." he then offered the funeral prayer for him. When Allah made His Messenger "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" wealthy through conquests, he said: "I have more claim to be the guardian of every faithful believer than his own self, so if a Muslim dies while in debt, I am responsible for the repayment of his debt, and whoever leaves wealth (after his death) it will belong to his heirs. "

1960- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: Whenever a dead man in debt was brought to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" he would ask: "Has he left anything to repay his debt?" If he was informed that he had left something to repay his debts, he would offer the funeral prayer for him, otherwise he would tell the Muslims to offer the funeral prayer for their companion. When Allah made The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" wealthy through conquests, he said: "I have more claim to be the guardian of the believers than their own selves, so if a Muslim dies while in debt, I am responsible for the repayment of his debt, and whoever leaves wealth (after his death) it will belong to his heirs. "

[68] No Funeral Prayer Is Offered On Such As Commits Suicide

1961- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Samurah that a man killed himself with the help of many blades, thereupon The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "As for me, I will not offer funeral prayer on him."

1960 - أَخْبَرَنَا يُونُسُ بْنُ عَبْدِ الْأَعْلَى قَالَ: أَنْبَأَنَا أَبُو وَهْبٍ قَالَ: أَخْبَرَنِي يُونُسُ وَأَبْنُ أَبِي ذئبٍ عَنْ أَبِي شِهَابٍ عَنْ أَبِي سَلَمَةَ عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ: أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ كَانَ إِذَا تُوفِّيَ الْمُؤْمِنُ وَعَلَيْهِ دَيْنٌ سَأَلَ: «هَلْ تَرَكَ لِدِينِهِ مِنْ قِضَاءٍ؟» فَإِنْ قَالُوا نَعَمْ، صَلَّى عَلَيْهِ وَإِنْ قَالُوا لَا. قَالَ: «صَلُّوا عَلَى صَاحِبِكُمْ». فَلَمَّا فَتَحَ اللَّهُ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ عَلَى رَسُولِهِ ﷺ قَالَ: «أَنَا أَوْلَى بِالْمُؤْمِنِينَ مِنْ أَنْفُسِهِمْ فَمَنْ تُوفِّيَ وَعَلَيْهِ دَيْنٌ فَعَلَيَّْ قِضَاؤُهُ وَمَنْ تَرَكَ مَالًا فَهُوَ لِوَرَثَتِهِ».

(68) - تَرَكَ الصَّلَاةَ عَلَى مَنْ قَتَلَ نَفْسَهُ

1961 - أَخْبَرَنَا إِسْحَاقُ بْنُ مَنْصُورٍ قَالَ: أَنْبَأَنَا أَبُو الْوَلِيدِ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو خَيْثَمَةَ زُهَيْرٌ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا سِمَاكٌ عَنْ أَبِي سَمُرَةَ: أَنَّ رَجُلًا قَتَلَ نَفْسَهُ بِمَشَاقِصَ فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «أَمَّا أَنَا فَلَا أُصَلِّي عَلَيْهِ».

1962 - أَخْبَرَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عَبْدِ الْأَعْلَى قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا خَالِدٌ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا شُعْبَةُ عَنْ سُلَيْمَانَ، سَمِعْتُ ذَكْوَانَ يُحَدِّثُ عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ قَالَ: «مَنْ تَرَدَّى مِنْ جَبَلٍ فَقَتَلَ نَفْسَهُ فَهُوَ فِي نَارِ جَهَنَّمَ يَتَرَدَّى خَالِدًا مُخَلَّدًا فِيهَا أَبَدًا وَمَنْ تَحَسَّى سُمًّا فَقَتَلَ نَفْسَهُ فَسُمُّهُ فِي يَدِهِ يَتَحَسَّاهُ فِي نَارِ جَهَنَّمَ خَالِدًا مُخَلَّدًا فِيهَا أَبَدًا وَمَنْ قَتَلَ نَفْسَهُ بِحَدِيدَةٍ ثُمَّ انْقَطَعَ عَلَيَّ شَيْءٌ خَالِدٌ يَقُولُ: «كَانَتْ حَدِيدَتُهُ فِي يَدِهِ يَجَأُ بِهَا فِي بَطْنِهِ فِي نَارِ جَهَنَّمَ خَالِدًا مُخَلَّدًا فِيهَا أَبَدًا».

[69] Offering Funeral Prayer On The Hypocrites

1963- It is narrated on the authority of Umar Ibn Al-Khattab himself: When Abdullah Ibn Ubai Ibn Salul died, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was called in order to offer the funeral prayer for him. When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" got up (to do so) I jumped towards him and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Would you offer the prayer for Ibn Ubai although he said so-and-so on such-and-such-a day?" I went on mentioning his sayings. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" smiled and said: "Keep away from me, O Umar!" But when I spoke too much to him, he said: "I have been given the freedom of choice, and I have chosen. However, if I know that when I ask forgiveness for him more than seventy times, he will be forgiven, I would ask for forgiveness for more times than that." So The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered the funeral prayer for him, and then turned away. It was not after a short while that Allah Almighty revealed: "Nor do you ever pray for any of them that dies, nor stand at his grave; for they rejected Allah and His Messenger, and died in a state of perverse rebellion." (At-Tawbah 84) Later I was astonished at my daring to speak like that to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and Allah and His Apostle know best.

She died, and they brought her to Medina when it was darkness (at night), and found The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sleeping, and they disliked to awaken him. They offered the funeral prayer on her, and buried her dead body in (the graveyard of) Baqi' Gharqad. When it was morning they came and The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked them

She died at night, and they buried her without informing the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" When it was morning they came and The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked them about her, and they said: "(She was buried and we disliked to awaken you O Messenger of Allah.." He went to her grave and led the funeral prayer on her, in which he said four Takbirs.

Malik Ibn Awf said: "While I was in this situation of mine, I hoped to have been in the place of this (dead) man, because of the supplication of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" for that dead."

last statement that he was on the religion of Abd Al-Muttalib. Then Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I will keep asking for Allah's forgiveness for you unless I am forbidden (by Allah) to do so." So Allah revealed (the verse) concerning him: "It is not fitting for The Prophet and those who believe that they should invoke (Allah) for forgiveness for pagans even though they be of kin, after it has become clear to them that they are companions of the fire." (The Repentance "At-Tawbah" 113) the following Holy Verse was also revealed: " It is true you wilt not be able to guide every one whom you lovest; but Allah guides those whom He will and He knows best those who receive guidance." (Al-Qasas 56)

2033- It is narrated on the authority of Ali that he said: I heard a man asking for Allah's forgiveness for his parents, and they were pagans, thereupon I said to him: "Are you asking for Allah's forgiveness for your parents, even though they are pagans?" he said: "Had not (the Prophet) Abraham asked for Allah's forgiveness for his father (and he was a pagan):?" I went to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and made a mention of that to him, thereupon the following Holy statement was revealed: " And Abraham prayed for his father's forgiveness only because of a promise he had made to him. But when it became clear to him that he was an enemy to Allah, he dissociated himself from him: for Abraham was most tender-hearted, forbearing." (At-Tawbah 114)

[103] The Command To Ask For Forgiveness For The Believers

2034- It is narrated on the authority of Mohammad Ibn Qais Ibn Makhramah Ibn Al-Muttalib from A'ishah that she said: Would I not narrate to you about myself and about The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"? We said: Yes. She said: When it was my turn for The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to spend the night with me, he turned his side, put off his mantle and took off his shoes which he put near his feet, and spread the corner of his shawl on his bed and then lay down. He kept lying until he thought that I slept. He took his garment slowly, put on the shoes slowly, opened the door slowly, went out and then closed it lightly. I covered my head, put on my veil, tightened my waist sheet, and then followed him until he reached Baqi, where he stood for a long time. He then raised his hands thrice. Then, he returned and I also returned. He hastened his steps and I also hastened mine. He ran and so did I. He came (to the house) and so did I. I preceded him and entered (the house). As soon as I had lain down, he entered (the house) and said: "What is the reason O A'ishah, that you are out of breath?" I said: "There is nothing." He said: "Either you should tell me or (Allah) the Clever, the Well-Aware would tell

I answered in the affirmative. He pushed me in my chest, which pained me. Then he said: "Did you think that Allah and His Messenger would wrong you?" She said: "Whatever people conceal, Allah will know it." He said: "Gabriel came to me when you saw me. He did not enter upon me since you put off your garment, and rather he called me and he hid it from you. I answered him, and I hid it from you. I thought that you had slept, and I disliked to awaken you, for fear that you may be frightened. He ordered me to go to the inhabitants of (the graves of) Baqi and ask for (Allah's) forgiveness for them". I said: "O Messenger of Allah! how could I invoke (Allah) for them?" He said: "Say: 'Peace be upon the inhabitants of these abodes from among the Believers and the Muslims. May Allah bestow mercy upon those who preceded us, and those who would come later. Allah willing, we will join you.'"

2035- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: One night The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stood up and put on his dress and then came out. Barirah preceded him and told me, and I made no mention of that to him until it was morning, and I made a mention of that to him, thereupon he said: "I was sent (by Allah Almighty) to the inhabitants of (the graveyard of) Baqi to ask for Allah's prayer and blessing upon them."

2036- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that whenever it was her turn for The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to spend the night with her, he would go out towards the end of the night to Al-Baqi' and say: "Peace be upon you, (O the inhabitants of the) abode of believing people. Both you and us would be on promise or on trust (of intercession and witness) in the near future. Allah willing, we shall join you. O Allah! Forgive for the dwellers of Baqi Al-Gharqad."

We, Allah willing, would join you later. You are our predecessors and we are to follow you later. I ask Allah to grant us and you peace."

(107) - كَرَاهِيَةُ الْمَشْيِ بَيْنَ الْقُبُورِ فِي النَّعَالِ السِّنِّيَّةِ

2045 - أَخْبَرَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ الْمُبَارَكِ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا وَكِيعٌ عَنْ الْأَسْوَدِ بْنِ شَيْبَانَ وَكَانَ ثِقَةً عَنْ خَالِدِ بْنِ سَمِيرٍ عَنْ بَشِيرِ بْنِ نَهْلِكَ أَنَّ بَشِيرَ ابْنَ الْخَصَّاصِيَّةِ قَالَ: كُنْتُ أَمْشِي مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ فَمَرَّ عَلَى قُبُورِ الْمُسْلِمِينَ فَقَالَ: «لَقَدْ سَبَقَ هَؤُلَاءِ شَرًّا كَثِيرًا». ثُمَّ مَرَّ عَلَى قُبُورِ الْمُشْرِكِينَ فَقَالَ: «لَقَدْ سَبَقَ هَؤُلَاءِ خَيْرًا كَثِيرًا». فَحَانَتْ مِنْهُ الثِّفَاتُ فَرَأَى رَجُلًا walking between the graves while he was wearing his sandals. On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "O man of leather hairless sandals! Put them off!"

[108] The Concession To Do So In Case Of Wearing Other Sandals

2046- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When a servant (of Allah) is placed in the grave, and his companions turn away from him, he hears even the creeping of their sandals."

[109] The Question Of The Believer In The Grave

2047- It is narrated on the authority of Anas that he said: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When a human being is laid in his grave and his companions return and he even hears their foot steps, two angels come to him and make him sit and ask him: "What did you use to say about this man, (i.e. Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him")?" if he is a faithful believer, he will say: "I testify that he is Allah's slave and His Apostle." Then it will be said to him: "Look at your place in the Hell-Fire, which was replaced by Allah with one in Paradise.'" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" further said: "Then, he will see both together."

[110] The Question Of The Infidel In The Grave

2048- It is narrated on the authority of Anas that he said: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When a human being is laid in his grave and his companions return and he even hears their foot steps, two angels come to him and make him sit and ask him: "What did you use to say about this man, (i.e. Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him")?" if he is a faithful believer, he will say: "I testify that he is Allah's slave and His Apostle." Then it will be said to him: "Look at your place in the Hell-Fire, which was replaced by Allah with one in Paradise.'" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" further said: "Then, he will see both together." But as for the non-believer or hypocrite, it will be said to him: "What did you use to say about that man?" he will say: "I do not know, but I used to say what the people used to say!" It will be said to him: "Neither did you know nor did you take the guidance (by reciting the Qur'an)." Then he will be given a strike with an iron hammer between his two ears, and he will cry and that cry will be heard by whatever approaches him except human beings and Jinns."

One of them said to the other: "Has not The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who is killed because of (a severe disease in) his abdomen, will not be punished in his grave"?" the other answered in the affirmative.

[112] The Martyr

2050- It is narrated on the authority of Rashid Ibn Sa'd from a man amongst the companions of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that a man asked The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "O Messenger of Allah! what is the matter with the faithful believers that they are put to trial in their graves barring the martyr?" on that the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The glitter of the sword on his head (while he is constantly firm in sacrificing his life in Allah's Cause) suffices him for a trial."

2051- It is narrated on the authority of Safwan Ibn Umayyah that he said: "Such as killed because of plague, (a severe disease in his) abdomen, because of drowning, and because of parturition are considered as martyrs." Abu Uthman (a sub-narrator) relates this narration many times, and once he traced it up to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

Verse) " Allah will establish in strength those who believe, with the Word that stands firm, in this world and in the Hereafter; but Allah will leave, to stray, those who do wrong: Allah does what He wills" (Abraham 27) was revealed in connection with the punishment of the grave. It is said to him: "Who is your Lord?" he says: "My Lord Is Allah and my religion is that of Muhammad "Peace be upon him"." This is the significance of Allah's saying: " Allah will establish in strength those who believe, with the Word that stands firm, in this world and in the Hereafter."

2055- It is narrated on the authority of Anas that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" heard a voice coming from a grave, thereupon he asked: "When did this die?" they said: "He died before Islam." on that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was relieved of anguish and said: "Had it not been for the fact that you would not bury one another, surely would have invoked Allah to cause you to hear (the voice resulting from) the punishment of the grave."

2056- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Ayyub that he said: Once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came out after the sun had set and heard a voice (coming from a grave) thereupon he said: "The (dead among the) Jews are punished in their graves."

[115] Seeking Refuge From The Punishment Of The Grave

2058- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: Afterwards, I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" seeking refuge from the punishment of the grave.

2059- It is narrated on the authority of Asma' that she said: the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stood and addressed the people, and mentioned the trial to which a man is put in his grave, thereupon the voices of Muslims grew noisy, to the extent that I could not hear the speech of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". When their noise was over I said to a man sitting near me: "Might Allah bless you! What has the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said in the end of his speech?" he said: "It has been revealed to me that you are put to trial in your graves, nearly like the trial of Ad-Dajjal."

2060- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Abbas that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" taught them the following supplication in the same way as he taught them a Surah from the Qur'an: "O Allah! I seek refuge with You from the punishment of (the fire of) Hell; I seek refuge with You from the punishment of the grave; I seek refuge with You from the trial of the Imposter-Messiah (Al-Masih Ad-Dajjal); and I seek refuge with You from the trial of both life and death."

2061- It is narrated on the authority of Urwah Ibn Az-Zubair that A'ishah had told: Once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered into me, while a woman from the Jews was with me, and she was saying: "You would be put to trial in the graves." upon this, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" trembled and said: "Verily! It is the Jews who would be put to trial (in the graves)." A'ishah resumed: Many nights had elapsed when The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to me: "I have been Divinely revealed that "You (Muslims) would be put to trial in the graves."" A'ishah said: From that time, I used to hear The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" seeking refuge (with Allah) from the grave torture.

2063- It is narrated on the authority of Masruq from A'ishah that a Jewess visited her, and asked her to grant her something, and A'ishah granted it to her, thereupon she said: "Might Allah save you from the punishment of the grave!" A'ishah said: "I had suspicion about that until The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came, and I made a mention of that to him, thereupon he said: "Indeed, they (the inhabitants of the graves) are punished in the graves so much violently that the beasts could hear (their voices resulting from) it."

2064- It is narrated on the authority of Masruq from A'ishah that she said: Once, two old women of the Jews of Medina entered into me and said: "Verily, the inhabitants of the graves are punished in their graves." But, I made lie of, and disliked to believe them. Then, they came out, and The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered into me, to whom I said: "O Messenger of Allah! Two old women of the Jews of Medina entered into me and alleged that the inhabitants of the graves are tortured in their graves." He said: "They have told the truth. Indeed, they are

[116] Placing A Palm-Leaf On The Grave

2065- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: Once The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" passed through one of the graveyards of Medina or Mecca, and he heard the voices of two persons who were being tortured in their graves. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "These two persons are being tortured not for a major sin (to avoid)." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then added: "Yes! (They are being tortured for a major sin). Indeed, one of them never saved himself from being soiled with his urine while the other used to go about with calumny" (to make enmity between friends). The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then asked for a green leaf of a date-palm tree, which he broke into two pieces and put one on each grave. Being asked why he had done so, he replied: "I hope that their torture might be lessened, so long as these never get dried."

2066- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: Once The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" passed by two graves, and he said: "These two persons are being tortured not for a major sin (to avoid): one of them never saved himself from being soiled with his urine while the other used to go about with calumny" (to make enmity between friends). The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then asked for a green leaf of a date-palm tree, which he broke into two pieces and put one on each grave. Being asked why he had done so, he replied: "I hope that their torture might be lessened, so long as these never get dried."

[117] The Souls Of The Faithful Believers

2070- It is narrated on the authority of Ka'b Ibn Malik that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, the soul of a faithful believer is (living in the shape of) a bird on the trees of the Garden, until Allah Almighty brings it back to his body on the Day of Judgement."

2071- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that he said: We were along with Umar on the way between Mecca and Medina when he made a mention of the people of Badr to us and said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" showed us one day before (the actual battle) the place of death of the people (participating) in (the Battle) of Badr and he was saying: "This would be the place of death of so and so tomorrow, if Allah wills." Umar said: By Him Who sent him with the truth, they did not miss the places (of their death) which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had pointed for them. Then they were all thrown in a well one after another. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then went to them and said: "O, so and so, the son of so and so; O so and so, the son of so and so, have you found true what your Lord had promised you? I have, however, found true what Allah had promised me." Umar said to him: "O Messenger of Allah! How are you talking to bodies having no souls?" He said: "You cannot hear what I'm saying, better than they could, but with this exception that they have not power to give any reply."

2072- It is narrated on the authority of Anas that he said: One night, the Muslims hear The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" standing near the will of Badr and calling: "O Abu Jahl Ibn Hisham! O Shaibah Ibn Rabie'ah! O Utbah Ibn Rabie'ah! O Umayyah Ibn Khalaf! have you found true what your Lord had promised you? I have, however, found true what my Lord had promised me." They said to him: "O Messenger of Allah! How are you calling people who have become bones decomposed?" He said: "You cannot hear what I'm saying, better than they could, but with this exception that they have not power to give any reply."

2073- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" looked at the people of the Qalib Well (the well in which the bodies of the pagans killed in the Battle of Badr were thrown) and said: "Have you found true what your Lord promised you?" He further said: "You do not hear better than they do, but they cannot reply." When a mention of that was made to A'ishah, she said: Ibn Umar has misunderstood (what the Prophet said). The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "They now realize that what I used to tell them was the truth." She then recited Allah's saying: "Truly you canst not cause the Dead to listen, nor canst you cause the Deaf to hear the call, (especially) when they turn back in retreat." (The Ants "An-Naml" 80).

2074- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The earth eats up everything of the human body except the coccyx bone (of the tail) from which he was created, and in which the whole body will be reconstructed."

2075- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah said: The son of Adam tells a lie against Me, though he should not do so. He abuses me though he should not do so. As for his telling a lie against Me, it is his saying that I will not recreate him as I created him for the first time. Indeed, the first creation was not easier for Me than the new creation. As for his abusing Me, it is his saying that Allah has begotten children, while I am the One and Only, the Eternal, Absolute, who begetteth not, nor is begotten, And there is none like unto me.""

2076- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "There was a servant who transgressed the limits in committing sins, and when he was about to die, he said to his family: 'When I die, burn my dead body and then crush the ashes and throw that in the wind and the ocean. By Allah, if my Lord takes hold of me, He would torment me as He has not tormented anyone else.' They did as he had asked them to do. Allah Almighty said to everything that took from his dead body: 'Return what you have taken.' And (when he was restored to his original form) behold! he was standing. Allah Almighty said to him: 'What prompted you to do this?' He said: 'O my Lord! It was for fear of You or in awe of You.' On that Allah pardoned him because of this."

2077- It is narrated on the authority of Hudhaifah that he said: the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There Allah Almighty ordered the angels to receive his soul, and He asked him: 'What has led you to do that which you've done?' he said: 'O my Lord! I've done so only for fear of You.' On that Allah forgave for him."

[118] The Resurrection

2078- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" addressing the people on the pulpit: "You would meet Allah Almighty on the Day of Resurrection as barefooted, naked and uncircumcised."

2079- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The people will be mustered on the Day of Resurrection as barefooted, naked and uncircumcised; and the first to be dressed will be (the Prophet) Abraham "Peace be upon him"." Then he recited (Allah's statement): " even as We produced the first Creation, so shall We produce a new one: a promise We have undertaken: truly shall We fulfill it." (Al-Anbiya 104)

2080- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The people will be resurrected on the Day of Resurrection as barefooted, naked and uncircumcised." A'ishah asked: "Then, what about the private parts (of the people)?" he said: " Each one of them, that Day, will have enough concern (of his own) to make him indifferent to the others."

2081- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You will be assembled (on the Day of Resurrection) as barefooted and naked." I asked: "Would men and women be gathered together in such a way as they would look at each other?" he said: "The matter (of resurrection) will be more serious than to make them care for (looking at each other)."

they would be at midday, where they would spend the night, and where they would spend the morning and where they would spend the evening."

2083- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Dharr that he said: The true and truly inspired one, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" told me: "On the Day of Judgement, the people will be mustered in three groups: a group as riding, having food and dresses; a group being withdrawn prone on their faces by the angels , and gathered by the fire; and a group as walking and running, for Allah would cause the riding mounts to die to the extent that there would remain none, that a man would have a garden, which he would be ready to give only for a riding mount, even though he would not be able to do it."

[119] The First To Be Dressed (On The Day Of Judgement)

2084- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" admonished us saying: "O people! You will be gathered (on the Day of Judgment), bare-footed, naked and uncircumcised." He then recited: "As we began the first creation, we, shall repeat it: A Promise We have undertaken: Truly we shall do it." (Prophets 104) He added: "The first to be dressed on the Day of Judgement, will be Abraham. Some of my companions will be taken towards the left side (the Hell Fire), and I will say: "O my Lord! My companions!" It will be said: "You do not know what they've become after you (i.e. they've renegaded from Islam)." Then I will say as the Pious slave of Allah (Jesus) said: "I was a witness over them while I dwelt amongst them. When you took me up you were the Watcher over them, and you are a witness to all things. If you punish them, they are your slaves and if you forgive them, Verily you, only you are the All-Mighty, the All-Wise." (The Repast 117:118) it will be said: "Those have retreated on their heels since you left them."

[120] Bidding Condolences

2085- It is narrated on the authority of Mu'awiyah Ibn Qurrah from his father that he said: Whenever The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sat in a gathering, some of his companions would sit with him, including a man having a young child, who used to come to him from behind his back, and he would make him sit in front of him. This child died, and the man desisted from coming to the gathering, because of his mentioning his son, for whom he grew very sad. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" missed him and said: "Why do I not see so and so?" they said: "O Messenger of Allah! his son whom you saw with him died." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" met him and asked him about his

On that the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You will get that (which you hope)."

[121] Another Condolences

2086- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The Angel of Death was sent to Moses. But when he came to Moses, Moses slapped him and gouged out his eye. The angel returned to his Lord and said: "You have sent me to a Slave who does not want to die." Allah Almighty restored his eye to him and said: "Return to him and tell him to put his hand on the back of an ox; and for every hair that will come under it, he will be granted one year of life." Moses said: "O Lord! What will happen after that?" Allah replied: "Then death." Moses said: "Let it come now." Moses then requested Allah to let him die close to the Sacred Land so much that he would be at a distance of a stone's throw from it." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If I were there, I would show you his grave on the side of the road below the red sandhill."

(22) THE BOOK OF FASTING

[1] The Obligation Of Fasting

2087- It is narrated on the authority of Malik Ibn Anas from Abu Suhail from his father that he heard Talhah Ibn Ubaidullah saying: an Arab desert with unkempt hair came to The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” and said: “O Messenger of Allah! Tell me: what prayers has Allah enjoined upon me?” The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said: “Five prayers during the day and the night except if you want to pray voluntarily.” He further said: “Tell me: What fasts has Allah enjoined upon me?” The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said: “(You should observe) the fasts of (the month of) Ramadan except if you want to observe more fasts voluntarily.” He said: “Tell me about the obligatory charity enjoined by Allah Almighty upon me.” The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” told him about the principles of Islam. The man said: “By Him, Who has honoured you with the truth: I would neither add more to that voluntarily, nor would I decrease anything from what has been enjoined upon me by Allah Almighty.” The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” commented: “He will be successful, (or he will enter the Garden) if he is true (to what he said).”

2088- It is narrated on the authority of Thabit that Anas said: We were forbidden by The Holy Qur’an, to ask The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” about anything (particularly when there was no crucial need). So, we used to be pleased whenever an intelligent person from the Bedouins (i.e. dwellers of the desert) came and asked him (The Prophet), and we were to listen to that. A man from the desert dwellers came (to The Prophet) and said: “O Muhammad! Your representative came to us and informed us that you have been sent by Allah (as a Messenger).” He (The Prophet) commented: “He told the truth.” He (the Bedouin) said: “Who did create the heaven?” He (The Prophet) said: “Allah.” He (the Bedouin) asked: “Who did create the earth?” He (The Prophet) said: “Allah.” He (the Bedouin) asked: “Who did set up these mountains?” he (the Prophet) said: “Allah.” He (the man) asked: “Who has create in it whatever was created for the benefit of mankind?” He (The Prophet) said: “Allah.” He (the Bedouin) said: “By Him Who created the heaven and created the earth and set up mountains, and created in (the earth) what is of great benefit (to mankind): has Allah (really) sent you?” He (The Prophet) said: “Yes.” He (the Bedouin) said: “Your representative informed us that five prayers (had

[2] Giving Out Of Bounty And Generosity In Ramadan

2092- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was the most generous from amongst all the people, and he used to reach the peak in generosity in the month of Ramadan whenever Gabriel met him. Gabriel used to meet him every night of Ramadan to teach him the Qur'an. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to be the most generous person, even more generous, in doing (as fast as he could) the charitable deeds, than the strong unmanageable wind, whenever Gabriel "Peace be upon him" met him.

2093- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" hardly sent a curse (upon anyone); and whenever it was a short while after Gabriel had come to review the Qur'an with him, he used to be more generous, in doing (as fast as he could) the charitable deeds, even than the strong unmanageable wind."

2104- It is narrated on the authority of Arfajah that he said: We visited Utbah Ibn Farqad (to enquire about his health), and we discussed the month of Ramadan, thereupon he asked us: "What are you discussing?" we said: "The month of Ramadan." On that he said: "I heard Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "In it, the gates of the Garden are opened, the gates of the (fire of) Hell are closed, and the devils are fettered with chains; and every night, a caller makes the following call: "O good-seeker! He related from Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that he said: "In Ramadan, the gates of the Garden are opened, the gates of the (fire of) Hell are closed, and every transgressing devil is fettered with chains; and every night, a caller makes the following call: "O good-seeker! ### [6] The Concession To Call It “Ramadan” Without The Month

2106- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Bakrah that he said: The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said: “Let none of you say ‘I’ve observed the all fasts of Ramadan, and further I’ve stood (for supererogatory prayer) all of its (nights).’ I do not know whether he (the Prophet by saying so) disliked that anyone should give prestige to himself, or that he said: ‘One should be overtaken (at least) by slumber or sleep once.’”

2107- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said to a woman from amongst the Ansar: “When it is Ramadan, perform Umrah in it, for indeed, performing Umrah in it is equal (in reward, and not to cancel out the obligation) to offering Hajj.”

[7] The People Of Different Regions Differ In Seeing The New Moon

2108- It is narrated on the authority of Kuraib that he said that Umm Al-Fadl Bint Al-Harith sent him to Mu'awiyah in Sham. He said: I arrived in Sham and fulfilled her need. Then, while I was still in Sham, the new moon of (the month of) Ramadan appeared. I saw the new moon on Friday. I returned to Medina at the end of the month. Abdullah Ibn Abbas asked me about the new moon (of Ramadan) and said: “When did you see the new moon?” I said: “We saw it on the night of Friday.” He said: “Did you see it yourself?” I said: “Yes, and so did the people who observed fast. Mu'awiyah also observed fast.” He (Ibn Abbas) said: “But we saw it (in Medina) on Saturday night. So we would keep observing fast till we complete thirty (days) or see it (the new moon of Shawwal).” I said: “Is not Mu'awiyah’s seeing the new moon enough for you?” He said: “No, for this is what The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” ordered us.”

[8] Accepting The Witness Of A Man To Seeing The New Moon

2109- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: A desert Arab came to The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” and said: “I’ve seen the new moon (of the month of Ramadan).” He asked him: “Do you bear testimony to the fact that there is no god (to be worshipped) but Allah and that Muhammad is His servant and Messenger?” he answered in the affirmative, thereupon The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” called (the people to) “Observe fast”.

2110- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: A desert Arab came to The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” and said: “I’ve seen the new moon (of the month of Ramadan)

[14] How Many Days Of Which Does The Lunar Month Consist?

2128- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" took oath to keep aloof from his wives for a (lunar) month, and he spent twenty-nine (nights away from them, after which he visited them, and started with me) thereupon I said: "Have you not taken oath to keep aloof from your wives for a (lunar) month? Indeed, I've counted only twenty-nine days (which you spent away from us)." On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "However, the (lunar) month (sometimes) consists of twenty-nine (days)."

2129- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Abbas that he said: I had been keen on asking Umar about the two ladies from among the wives of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" regarding whom Allah said (in The Holy Qur'an): "If you two turn in repentance to Allah your hearts are indeed so inclined (to oppose what The Prophet likes)" (Prohibition "At-Tahrim" 4)...I said: "O Commander of The Believers! Who were the two ladies from among the wives of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to whom Allah said: "If you two return in repentance" (Prohibition "At-Tahrim" 4)?" He said: "I am astonished at your question, O Ibn Abbas. They were A'ishah and Hafsa."... The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" kept aloof from his wives for twenty-nine days, because of the secret which Hafsa had disclosed to A'ishah. A'ishah told that he said that he would not go to his wives for one month as he was angry with them when Allah Almighty revealed to him what they had disclosed (and admonished him for his oath that he would not approach Maria). After twenty-nine days had passed, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went to A'ishah first, who said to him: "You took an oath, O Messenger of Allah, that you would not come to us for one month, and today only twenty-nine days have passed, as we have been counting them day by day." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The (lunar) month (sometimes) consists of twenty-nine nights."

(Al-Baqarah 187) It was revealed in connection with Abu Qais Ibn Amr: he went to his family after sunset while he was fasting and said to his wife: "Do you have anything to eat?" his wife said: "We have got nothing, but let me come out and seek supper for you." She came out, and he lay his head and fell asleep. When she returned to him she found him sleeping, and she tried to awaken him, but he could not (get up and thus he did not) eat anything. In the morning, he became fasting. When it was midday, he fell unconscious. This was before this holy Verse had been revealed. In connection with him, Allah revealed it.

[34] The Different Citation-Forms Transmitted By Muhammad Ibn Ibrahim Pertaining To That Narration

2174- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Salamah Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman that he asked A’ishah about the fasts of The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him”, thereupon she said: The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” sometimes observed fasts (for consecutive days) that we said: "He would not leave fasting"; and he sometimes left fasting (for consecutive days) that we said: "He would not observe fasting"; and The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” used to observe fasts during (the month of) Sha’ban or during the most portion of Sha’ban.

2175- It is narrated on the authority of A’ishah that she said: Whenever anyone of us (the wives of the Prophet) broke fasting during the month of Ramadan (because of menses), she could not fulfill the missed fasts until the coming of Sha’ban (in order to get ready at any time whenever the Prophet had a desire from her); and The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” never observed more (voluntary) fasts than those he offered during (the month of) Sha’ban which he used to fast entirely but a little even though (a very few days, that he seemed to have) fasted it entirely.

[35] The Difference Of Wording Of The Narration Of A’ishah

2176- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Salamah Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman that he said: I asked A’ishah: Tell me about the fasts of The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him”. She said: The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” sometimes observed fasts (for consecutive days) that we said: "He would keep fasting"; and he sometimes left fasting (for consecutive days) that we said: "He would keep leaving fasting"; and The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” never observed more (voluntary) fasts than those he offered during (the month of) Sha’ban which he used to fast entirely but a little even though (a very few days, that he seemed to have) fasted Sha’ban entirely.

2177- It is narrated on the authority of A’ishah that she said: The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” never observed more (voluntary) fasts in any month of the year than those he offered during (the month of) Sha’ban: he used to fast almost the whole of Sha’ban.

2213- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: I heard Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "(Allah said) "All the deeds of the son of Adam are for him, except fasting which is for Me, for which I will give the reward." Fasting is a shield (or protection from the fire and from committing sins). If there comes a day on which anyone of you is fasting, he should avoid using obscene language and raising his voice. If somebody insults or quarrels with him, he should say: "I am fasting." By Him, in Whose Hands the soul of Muhammad is, the unpleasant smell coming out from the mouth of a fasting person is sweeter, in the sight of Allah on the Day of Judgement, than the odor of musk. There are two pleasures for the fasting person:

2235- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever gives a pair (of things or property) in charity for Allah's Cause, will be called from (the gates of) Paradise and will be addressed: "O slave of Allah! That (gate) is better (for you, so come and enter through it)." So, whoever was amongst the people who used to offer their prayers, will be called from the gate of the prayer; whoever was amongst the people who used to participate in Jihad, will be called from the gate of Jihad; whoever was amongst those who used to give in charity, will be called from the gate of charity; and whoever was amongst those who used to observe fasts, will be called from the gate of Ar-Rayyan." Abu Bakr As-Siddiq said: "O Messenger of Allah! No distress or need will befall him who will be called from those gates. Will there be any one who will be called from all these gates?" I advise you to fulfill your sexual desire through marriage, for it is more convenient to help you hold back your sights from looking at such of women as unlawful for you, and guard your privates from committing adultery; and he, who could not afford for that, let him observe fasts, for fasting diminishes one's sexual power."

2271- It is narrated on the authority of Anas that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah Almighty has exempted the traveler from half the prayer (and He further exempted him along with) both the pregnant and suckling woman from fasting (provided that they should fulfill the obligatory missed fasts)."

2272- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Qilabah from an old man that he told: My paternal uncle told me that he went in search for some of his lost camels until he reached The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and he was taking his meal. He said to him: "Come close to share food with me!" I said: "I'm fasting." On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah Almighty has exempted the traveler from half the prayer (and He further exempted him along with) both the pregnant and suckling woman from fasting (provided that they should fulfill the obligatory missed fasts)."

2273- It is narrated on the authority of Ayyub that he said: Abu Qilabah related this (previous) narration to me, and said: Do you like to meet the narrator of that Hadith? He guided me to him, and when I met him he said: One of my relatives called Anas Ibn Malik told me: I went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in pursuit of some of my camels which had been taken (by force) from me, and he was taking his meal. He invited me to share food with him, and I said: "I'm fasting." On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Come close so that I would tell you about that: Allah Almighty has exempted the traveler from fasting, as well as from half the prayer (since the prayer on journey is of two instead of four rak'ah for every obligatory prayer)."

2274- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Qilabah from a man that he said: I went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" for a certain need, and he was having his meal. He said: "Come to share the meal with me!" I said: "I'm fasting." On that he said: "Come close, so that I would tell you: Allah Almighty has exempted the traveler from half the prayer and fasting and He gave concession to both the pregnant and suckling woman (to leave fasting if they fear for themselves or their babes, provided that they should fulfill the obligatory missed fasts)."

2275- The same is narrated on the authority of Abu Al-Ala' Ibn Ash-Shakhir from a man, through another chain of transmission.

[52] The Superiority Of Leaving Fast To Observing Fast On Journey

2280- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that he said: We were in the company of The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” on journey, and some of us observed Fast and others left it. Then, we dismounted at a place on a very hot day. We had the cloth for shelter (against the rays of the sun ). Those who observed Fast fell down (because of their weakness resulting from their fast on journey), and Those who did not observe fast got up, and watered the mounts. Upon this The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said: “Today those who did not observe fast have gone with the reward.”

[53] Such As Observes Fast On Journey (Has No Reward) Like Such As Leaves Fast On Residence

2281- It is narrated on the authority of Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Awf that he said: It is said: "Observing fast on journey is (undesirable and of no reward if it leads to trouble and difficulty) like leaving (voluntary) fast on residence."

2282- It is narrated on the authority of Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Awf that he said: "Such as observes fast on journey (receives no reward if it leads to trouble and difficulty) like such as leaves (voluntary) fast on residence."

2283- It is narrated on the authority of Humaid Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Awf from his father that he said: "Such as observes fast on journey (receives no reward if it leads to trouble and difficulty) like such as leaves (voluntary) fast on residence."

[54] Fasting On Journey

2284- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that the Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” set out during the month of Ramadan and kept fasting until he reached Qudaïd, when a cup of milk was brought to him, and he drank and left fasting, and so did his companions.

2285- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” kept fasting (on his journey) from Medina until he reached Qudaïd, where he broke fasting, and kept as such until he arrived in Mecca.

2286- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that the Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” kept fasting on journey (from Medina to Mecca) until he reached Qudaïd, where he asked for a cup of milk, and he drank and left fasting, and so did his companions.

us liked to leave fasting, and offer a ransom, he could do until the Holy Verse next to it was revealed, which abrogated it.

2314- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said concerning Allah's saying: " For those who can do it (with hardship), is a ransom, the feeding of one that is indigent" (Al-Baqarah: 184) It points out such of people as could hardly endure fasting: in case they leave fasting, they should feed a single indigent per a fast, and if one does more, i.e. feed more than one indigent, it is much better for him. However, this statement is not abrogated, even though to observe fast is better for you. But this concession is not applicable except to him for whom fasting is beyond his capacity, or to him, who is severely ill, and no cure is expected for his disease.

[64] The Menstruating Woman Should Leave Fasting

2315- It is narrated on the authority of Mu'adhah Al-Adawiyyah that once a woman asked A'ishah: "Is it obligatory for the woman to offer the prayers she missed during her menses once she gets clean?" A'ishah asked her: "Are you from (the village of) Harura? We would get our menses during the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and when we became clean, he would order us to observe the missed fasts, even though he would not order us to offer the missed prayers."

2316- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: It happened that missed fasts (because of menses) from Ramadan became binding upon me, even though I could not be able to fulfill them before the coming of Sha'ban. (The reason is that all the wives of the Messenger of Allah were eager to get ready at all the time for the Prophet to visit anyone of them, whenever he had a desire for her; and since the Messenger of Allah observed no fasts in any month more than those he used to offer in the month of Sha'ban, it was more fitting for them to fulfill their missed fasts during that month).

On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Then, complete the rest of your day (with no more food until sunset and let such as has not got food or drink become fasting), and send to the inhabitants of the precincts (of Medina) to complete the remaining portion of their day

[66] When One Has No Intention At Night To Fast: Should He Then Fast (The Next Day) In Case Fasting Is Voluntary?

2318- It is narrated on the authority of Salamah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to a man on the day of Ashura': "Make an announcement to the people, that such as has got food, should complete his day (and stop from food until sunset), and such as has got no food (or drink) should fast (even though he had no intention to observe fast on the previous night)."

[67] The Intent Of Fasting

2319- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: One day, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" visited me and said: "Do you have anything to eat?" I answered in the negative, thereupon he said: "Then, I'm going to fast." Later on, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" visited me once again, and a meal made from dates and ghee was presented to us, and I kept some of it for him, for he used to like it. I said: "O Messenger of Allah! Food made of dates and ghee was presented to us, and I kept some of it for you." On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Bring it to me: however, I've intended to fast, (and now I've broken my fast)." He then ate of it and said: "Indeed, the example of such as observes a voluntary fast is like the example of a man who (intends to) assign something of his property as charity: he could carry on it if he so likes, or withhold it if he so likes."

2320- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: One day, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" visited me and said: "Do you have anything to eat?" I answered in the negative, thereupon he said: "Then, I'm going to fast." Later on, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" visited me once again, and a meal made from dates and ghee was presented to us, which I brought to him, and he ate of it. I wonder at that and said: "O Messenger of Allah! You visited me (in the first time) and you were fasting, and now you have eaten this meal of dates and ghee!" on that he said: "Well O A'ishah! ### [74] Observing Fasts For Many Consecutive Days

2381- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that Hamzah Ibn Amr Al-Aslami said to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "O Messenger of Allah! I'm a man who is accustomed to observe fasts almost consecutively: should I observe fasts on journey?" On that he said: "Fast if you so like, and leave fasting if you so like."

[75] Fasting Two-Thirds The Time

2382- It is narrated on the authority of Amr Ibn Shurahbil from a man from amongst the companions of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", that a mention was made to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" of a man who used to observe fasts uninterruptedly, thereupon he said: "Would that he has no food day and night (until he dies out of hunger)!" they said: "Then, (what about such as fasts) two-thirds the time (i.e. fasts four days and leaves fasting for two)?" he said: "He has exceeded the due limits." It was said: "Then, (what about such as fasts) half the time (i.e. fasts on alternate days)?" he said: "He has exceeded the due bounds." Then he said: "Should I not tell you about what removes the evil suggestions (or suspicion) of the heart? It is to observe three fasts monthly."

2383- It is narrated on the authority of Amr Ibn Shurahbil that a man came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "Tell me of a man who observes fasts uninterruptedly." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Would that he has no food all the time (until he dies out of hunger)!" they said: "Then, (what about such as fasts) two-thirds the time (i.e. fasts four days and leaves fasting for two)?" he said: "He has exceeded the due limits." It was said: "Then, (what about such as fasts) half the time (i.e. fasts on alternate days)?" he said: "He has exceeded the due bounds." Then he said: "Should I not tell you about what removes the evil suggestions (or suspicion) of the heart?" they said: "Yes." He said: "It is to observe three fasts monthly."

2384- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Qatadah that he said: Umar said: "O Messenger of Allah! What about him, who observes perpetual fasts?" He said: "He (is like the one who) neither fasted nor did he break fast (or said he did not fast and he did not break fast)." He (Umar) asked: "What about him, who fasts for two days and then breaks fast for one day?" He (The Prophet) said: "Could anyone endure that?" He asked: "What about the one who fasts a day and breaks fast on another?" He said: "This is the fast of (The Prophet) David "Peace be upon him". He asked: "What about him,

[76] Observing Fasts On Alternate Days

2385- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Amr Ibn Al-As that he said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The most beloved fasts to Allah are those of (the Prophet) David: He used to fast on alternate days (by fasting a day and breaking fast on another)."

2386- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Amr that he said: My father married me to a woman of a high family status, and he used to visit her and ask about the state of her husband, and she said: "How good this man is, who has neither come to sleep with me, nor has he approached me since I came to his house (as his wife)." My father made a mention of that to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who said: "Bring him to me." I went to him in the company of my father and he asked me: "How do you fast?" I said: "I fast everyday." He said: "Observe three fasts weekly." I said: "But I have more power to do more than that." He said: "Then, fast two days and leave fasting for a day." I said: "I have more power to do more than that." He said: "Then, observe the best fasting, i.e. the fasting of (the Prophet) David "Peace be upon him": to fast on alternate days (i.e. to fast a day, and leave fast on the other day)."

2387- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Amr that he said: My father married me to a woman, and he visited her and ask her: ""How do you see the state of your husband?" she said: "How good this man is, who never sleeps at night, nor leave fasting during the day." He spoke with me harshly and said: "I've married you to a woman from amongst the Muslims, even though you've put her to critical situation." I proved heedless of her statement, in view of the power and activity of service I had in myself. The news of that reached Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who said: "But as for me, I stand (to offer the night supererogatory prayer for a portion of the night) and sleep (for a portion of the night), and observe fasts (for some days), and leave fasting (for some days). So, you too should stand (to offer the night supererogatory prayer for a portion of the night) and sleep (for a portion of the night), and observe fasts (for some days), and leave fasting (for some days). Observe three fasts monthly." I said: "But, I have power to do more than that." He said: "Then, observe the fasting of (the Prophet) David "Peace be upon him": fast a day, and leave fasting on the other day." I said: "But, I have power to do more than that."

He further said: "Recite the Qur'an (to its conclusion) once per month." (When I asked him to permit me to do more) he told me to recite it once per fifteen days, and I was saying: "I have power to do more."

2388- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Amr that he said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered upon me in my chamber and said to me: "Have I not been informed that you fast during the day and offer prayers all the night?" Abdullah replied: "Yes, O Allah's Apostle!" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Don't do that; fast for few days and then give it up for few days, offer prayers and also sleep at night, as your eyes have a right on you, your body has a right on you, your wife has a right on you, your guest has a right on you, and your friend has a right on you; and perchance, you will have a long life (during you will become too old and weak to endure that). It is sufficient for you to fast three days in a month, as the reward of a good deed is multiplied ten times, so it will be equal to fasting throughout the year." I said: "I have more power." I insisted (on fasting) and so I was given a hard instruction. He said to me: "Then, observe three fasts weekly." I said: "I have power to endure more than that." I insisted (on fasting) and so I was given a hard instruction. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Fast like the fasting of The Prophet David "Peace be upon him". I said: "How was the fasting of The Prophet of Allah, David?" He said: "Half of the year." (He used to fast alternately: to fast a day and leave fasting for another).

2389- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Amr Ibn Al-As that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was informed that I said: "I would stand up for (supererogatory Prayers) throughout the night and observe Fast every day so long as I live." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked: "Is it you who said this?" I said to him: "O Messenger of Allah! It is I who said that." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You have no enough power to do so. Observe Fast (for some days) and break it (for some days); sleep (for some time) and stand for the Prayer (for some time), and observe Fast for three days monthly. No doubt, every good deed would be multiplied ten times; and this is like fasting for the whole year." I said: "O Messenger of Allah! I have strength to do more than this." He said: "Then, fast one day and leave fasting for two days." I said: "O Messenger of Allah! I have strength to do more than this." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Then, fast one day and leave fasting on the other day (i.e. observe fasts on alternate days). That

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There is nothing better than that." 2390- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Salamah that he said: I visited Abdullah Ibn Amr and said to him: "O uncle! Tell me about what The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had said to you." I said: "O son of my brother! I decided to strive to the utmost of my power (in service): I said: "I'm going to observe fasts uninterruptedly, and recite the Qur'an once per a day and a night." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" heard of that thereupon he visited me in my house and said: "I was informed that you said: "I'm going to observe fasts uninterruptedly, and recite the Qur'an once per a day and a night." I said: "Yes, I said so O Messenger of Allah." He said: "Do not do so; and rather observe three fasts monthly." I said: "But, I have power to do more than that." He said: "Then, observe two days weekly, i.e. every Monday and Thursday." I said: "But, I have power to do more than that." He said: "Then, observe the fasting of (the Prophet) David "Peace be upon him": it is the best fasting in the Sight of Allah. He used to fast a day, and leave fasting on the other day. Furthermore, whenever he made a promise, he would never break his promise, and whenever he faced (the enemy), he would never flee away (from the battlefield)."

[77] Increasing And Decreasing Fasts

2391- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Amr Ibn Al-As that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him : "Fast only a day (per ten) and you will have the reward of the remaining (nine days)." He said: "I have power to bear more." He said: "Fast two days (per ten) and you will have the reward of the remaining (eight days)." He said: "I have power to bear more." 2394- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Amr that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to me: "I was informed that you stand (for supererogatory prayer) for the whole night, and observe perpetual fasts during the day." I said: "Yes, (I do so) O Prophet of Allah, and I intended nothing but good." He said: "(Let him have no (reward of) fast, who observes fasts uninterruptedly; but let me guide you to the fast (for which one receives the reward of fasting) all the time: fast three days monthly." I said: "O Prophet of Allah! I have power to bear more than that." he said: "Fast five days monthly." I replied: "O Allah's Apostle! I can fast more." He said: "Then, let it be ten days monthly." I replied: "O Allah's Apostle! I can fast more." He said: "Then, fast like the fasting of (the Prophet) David "Peace be upon him": he used to fast a day, and break fasting on another."

He who fasts all the year (is like the one who) did not fast at all. The fasting of three days every month is equal to the fasting of the whole year." I replied: "I have the power for more than this." The Prophet said: "Then fast like the fasting of (The Prophet) David. He used to fast on alternate days, and he never fled away from the battle field on meeting the enemy."

Do not do so, for your eyes have a share on you, your body has a share on you, and your family (Wife) has a share on you. Fast (for some days) and give up fasting (for others); pray and sleep, and fast one day per ten, and you will receive the reward of (the remaining) nine (on which you leave fasting)." ### (OBLIGATORY CHARITY)

[1] The Obligation Of Obligatory Charity

2433- It is narrated on the authority of Bahz Ibn Hakim from his father from his grandfather that he said: I said: "O Prophet of Allah! I've not come you before I had taken as many oaths as the number (of my fingers) not to come to you, nor to follow your religion. I was a man who knew nothing barring what Allah Almighty and His Messenger taught me. I ask you, by Allah's Revelation: with which has Allah Almighty sent you to us?" he said: "With (the religion of) Islam." I asked: "What is the sign of Islam?" he said: "It is to say: 'I've submitted my face to Allah Almighty (in Islam), and I've given up (the worship of other deities)'; to offer the (five obligatory) prayers, and give regular charity."

2434- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Malik Al-Ash'ari that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Performing ablution perfectly constitutes half of the faith, (the phrase) "Praise be to Allah" fills one's balance of acts, (the phrases) "Glory be to Allah" and "Allah is Greater" fill (what is between) the sky and the earth, the prayer is a light (which guides one to goodness and favour, and prevents him from doing evil), the regular charity is an evidence (of one's good faith), the patience is a luminosity and The Holy Qur'an is a proof, whither for you (in case you keep reciting it and acting upon its principles) or against you (in case you abandon it and ignore its principles)."

2435- It is narrated on the authority of both Abu Hurairah and Abu Sa'id that they said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" addressed us one day saying: "By Him in Whose Hand my soul is!" he

Then, he raised his head, with (the signs of) the glad tidings in his face, which was dearer to us than the red camels (the best and most valuable of property in the sight of the ancient Arabs). Then he said: "There is no one who offers the (obligatory) five prayers, observes the fasts of Ramadan, practices regular charity, and avoids the great destructive sins, but that the gates of the Garden will be opened for him, and it will be said to him: "Enter (the Garden) peacefully!"

2436- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever gives a pair (of things or property) in charity for Allah's Cause, will be called from (the gates of) Paradise and will be addressed: "O slave of Allah! So, whoever was amongst the people who used to offer their prayers, will be called from the gate of the prayer; whoever was amongst the people who used to participate in Jihad, will be called from the gate of Jihad; whoever was amongst those who used to give in charity, will be called from the gate of charity; and whoever was amongst those who used to observe fasts, will be called from the gate of Ar-Rayyan." Abu Bakr As-Siddiq said: "O Messenger of Allah! No distress or need will befall him who will be called from those gates. Will there be any one who will be called from all these gates?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" replied: "Yes, and I hope you will be one of them."

[2] The Severe Warning Of Withholding The Obligatory Charity

2437- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Dharr that he said: I went to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and he was sitting under the shade of the Ka'bah. When he saw me he said: "By the Lord of the Ka'bah! They are the losers." I said (to myself): "What is wrong with me? Perhaps a (piece of) revelation has been inspired in connection with me." I asked: "O Messenger of Allah! Let my father and mother be sacrificed for you! Who are those (losers)?" He said: "They are those, who have a great wealth except so and so and so (i.e. those who spend their wealth on whomever they find) in front of them, on their right and on their left." He further said: "By Him in Whose Hand my soul is! No owner of camels or cattle does not give in charity what is due upon them but that on the Day of Judgement, those (animals) would come, with the greatest

2438- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Mas’ud that the Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said: “There is no owner of property who does not fulfill whatever obligatory charity is due upon it but that it will appear to him on the Day of Judgement in the form of a bald-headed snake to encircle his neck (like a collar), and although he will keep fleeing from it, it will keep pursuing him.” Then, the Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” recited to us the confirmation of that from Allah’s Book: “And let not those who covetously withhold of the gifts which Allah has given them of His Grace, think that it is good for them: nay, it will be the worse for them; soon shall the things which they covetously withheld be tied to their necks like a twisted collar, on the Day of Judgment. To Allah belongs the heritage of the heavens and the earth; and Allah is well-acquainted with all that you do.” (Al Imran 180)

2439- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: I heard the Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” having said: “No owner of camels does not pay what is due upon them, whether at both times of their fatness and leanness.” It was said: “O Messenger of Allah! To which both times of their fatness and leanness refer?” he said: “To both times of prosperity and adversity, but that on The Day of Judgement, they will come, as being in the utmost of their fatness, hugeness and fleshiness, which they had (in the world), and a soft sandy plain would be set for them, as extensive as possible, and they all would trample him with their hoofs and bite him with their mouths. The more the first of them passes over him, the more the last of them would be made to return during a day that would be as long as fifty thousand years, until it is judged among the slaves (of Allah). ### [3] The Withholders Of Obligatory Charity

2440- It is narrated on the authority of Az-Zuhri from Ubaidullah Ibn Abdullah Ibn Utbah Ibn Mas'ud that Abu Hurairah had told him: when The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" died and Abu Bakr was appointed as his successor, and those amongst the Arabs who wanted to renegade became apostates, (Abu Bakr intended to fight them). Umar Ibn Al-Khattab said to Abu Bakr: "How would you fight against the people, since The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stated: "I have been ordered to fight the people until they say: There is no god but Allah; and he who uttered it, his property and life would be protected from being damaged except legally, and his reckoning (concerning his intention) would be with Allah"?" Abu Bakr said: "By Allah, I would decisively fight the one who separated (in treatment) prayer from obligatory charity, for it (the latter) is a right (that should be taken from the people) of wealth. By Allah, I would fight them even if they withheld giving (as obligatory charity) the string (of hobbling the feet of a camel) which they used to give to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." Umar Ibn Al-Khattab commented: "By Allah, it was nothing but that Allah had expanded the heart of Abu Bakr for fighting (those who stopped from giving the obligatory charity) and I came to know that he was right."

[4] The Punishment Of The Withholders Of Obligatory Charity

2441- It is narrated on the authority of Bahz Ibn Hakim that he said: My father told me from my grandfather that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "(The obligatory charity is due) upon every flock of grazing camels: a two-year-old she-camel out of forty, with no separation of (the property of) camels from (those to be given in charity as) their due; and whoever gives it (with good pleasure) expecting the reward (from Allah Almighty) will receive its reward; and whoever withholds it,

[5] The Obligatory Charity Due Upon Camels

2442- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There is no obligatory charity due upon (a property that is) less than five Wasaqs (of dates and a Wasaq consists of sixty Sa's, nor is there obligatory charity due upon (a property that is) less than five camels, nor is there obligatory charity due upon (a property) less than five ounces (equal to two hundred Dirhams)."

2443- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There is no obligatory charity due upon (a property that is) less than five camels, nor is there due upon what is less than five ounces (equal to two hundred Dirhams), nor is there due upon what is less than five Wasaqs (of dates)."

2444- It is narrated on the authority of Hammad that he said: I've taken the following document from Thumamah Ibn Abdullah Ibn Anas Ibn Malik, from Anas, that it had been written to them by Abu Bakr, in which the following was written: "These are the orders for obligatory charity (Zakat) which Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had enjoined upon the Muslims, and which Allah had ordered His Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to observe: Whoever amongst the Muslims is asked to pay Zakat accordingly, he should pay it (to the Zakat collector) and whoever is asked more than (what is specified in this script) he should not pay it. For less than twenty-five camels, a single sheep per five camels is to be paid as Zakat, and if there are between twenty-five to thirty-five camels, a one-year-old she-camel is to be paid; and in case there is no one-year-old she-camel, let it be a two-year-old he-camel; and if they are between thirty-six to forty-five (camels), a two-year-old she-camel is to be paid; and if they are between forty-six to sixty (camels), a three-year-old she-camel, fit for a male camel to copulate, is to be paid; and if the number is between sixty-one to seventy-five (camels), a four-year-old she-camel is to be paid; and if the number is between seventy-six to ninety (camels), two she-camels of two-year-old are to be paid; and if they are from ninety-one to one-hundred-and twenty (camels), two three-year-old she-camels, fit for a male camel to copulate, are to be paid; and if they are over one-hundred and-twenty (camels), for every forty (over one-hundred-and twenty) a two-year-old she-camel is to be paid, and for every fifty camels (over one-hundred-and-twenty) a three-year-old she-camel is to be paid. Pertaining to the camels of different ages, as far as the obligatory charity is concerned, Whoever had to pay a four-year-old she-camel as Zakat from his herd of camels and he had not got one, and he had a three-year-old she-camel, the latter should be accepted from him along with two sheep if they were available or twenty Dirhams. Whoever had to pay a three-year-old she-camel as Zakat and he had but a four-year-old she-camel, the latter should be accepted from him on the condition that the charity collector should repay him two sheep if they were available or twenty Dirhams. Whoever had to pay a three-year-old she-camel as Zakat and he had a two-year-old she-camel, the latter should be accepted from him along with two sheep if they were available or twenty Dirhams. Whoever had to pay a two-year-old she-camel and had but a three-year-old one, the latter should be accepted from him and the Zakat collector should repay him twenty Dirhams or two sheep. Whoever had to pay a two-year-old she-camel and he had but a one-year-old she-camel, the latter should be accepted from him along with twenty Dirhams or two sheep if they were available. Whoever had to pay a one-year-old she-camel, and he had got but a two-year-old she-camel, the latter might be accepted from him and nothing besides should be required. Whoever has got only four camels, has to pay nothing as Zakat, unless the owner of these four camels wants to give. As regards the Zakat for the (flock of) sheep: if they are between forty and one-hundred-and-twenty sheep, one sheep is to be paid; and if they are one sheep over one-hundred-and-twenty to two hundred (sheep), two sheep are to be paid; and if they are a sheep over two-hundred to three-hundred (sheep), three sheep are to be paid; and if they are one sheep over three-hundred, for every extra hundred sheep, one sheep is to be paid as Zakat. Neither an old nor a defected animal, nor a male-goat may be taken as Zakat except if the Zakat collector wishes (to take it). Neither the property of different people may be taken together nor the joint property may be split for fear of (paying more, or receiving less) Zakat. If a property is equally owned by two partners, they should pay the combined Zakat and it will be considered that both of them have paid their Zakat equally. If somebody has got less than forty sheep, no Zakat is required, unless he wants to give. For silver the Zakat is one-fortieth of the lot (2.5% provided that such lot should be no less than two hundred Dirhams), and if its value is no more than one hundred and ninety (Dirhams), Zakat is not required, unless the owner wants to pay.”

[6] The Withholders Of The Obligatory Charity Due Upon Camels

2445- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The camels will come (on the Day of Judgement) upon their owner, in the best state they were (in the world) if he does not give what is due upon them, and trample him with their hoofs; and the sheep will come upon their owner in the best state in which they were (in the world), if he does not give what is due upon them, and trample him with their hoofs, and gore him with their horns; and it is out of what is due upon them that they should be milked on the water (in order to give milk to the poor and indigent). Behold! Let none of you come on the Day of Judgment with a growling camel mounted on his neck, and appeal to me for help saying: "O Muhammad! (Help me)!" for I should say: "I have no authority to help you; I already conveyed (Allah's Message) to you." Let none of you come on the Day of Judgment with a bleating ewe mounted on his neck, and say to me: "O Muhammad! (Help me)!" for I should say: "I have no authority to help you; I conveyed (Allah's Message) to you." On the Day of Judgement, the treasure of anyone of them will appear to him in the form of a bald-headed snake, from which its owner will flee away, and it will pursue him saying: "I'm your treasure!" he will keep pursuing him until he gives him his finger to bite."

[7] The Charity Due Upon Camels Might Be Cancelled If They Are Taken As Means Of Facilitating Life For Their Owners

(This applies only to the herd of camels which is less than forty in number, for if it is more than that, it should be considered as property, upon which obligatory charity is due).

2446- It is narrated on the authority of Bahz Ibn Hakim that he said: My father told me from my grandfather that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "(The obligatory charity is due) upon every flock of grazing camels: a two-year-old she-camel out of forty, with no separation of (the property of) camels from (those to be given in charity as) their due; and whoever gives it (with good pleasure) expecting the reward (from Allah Almighty) will receive its reward; and whoever withholds it, then, taking it in addition to half his property (even by force) is one of the compulsory obligations enjoined by our Lord Almighty, and nothing of it should be assigned to the family of (the Prophet) Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"."

He said: "Lending the male (for mating with the she-camel), lending the bucket (used for drawing water for them), milking

[10] The Obligatory Charity Due Upon Sheep

2452- It is narrated on the authority of Hammad Ibn Salamah from Thumamah Ibn Abdullah Ibn Anas Ibn Malik, from Anas Ibn Malik, that Abu Bakr had written to him the following: "These are the orders for obligatory charity (Zakat) which Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had enjoined upon the Muslims, and which Allah had ordered His Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to observe: Whoever amongst the Muslims is asked to pay Zakat accordingly, he should pay it (to the Zakat collector) and whoever is asked more than (what is specified in this script) he should not pay it. For less than twenty-five camels, a single sheep per five camels is to be paid as Zakat, and if there are between twenty-five to thirty-five camels, a one-year-old she-camel is to be paid; and in case there is no one-year-old she-camel, let it be a two-year-old he-camel; and if they are between thirty-six to forty-five (camels), a two-year-old she-camel is to be paid; and if they are between forty-six to sixty (camels), a three-year-old she-camel, fit for a male camel to copulate, is to be paid; and if the number is between sixty-one to seventy-five (camels), a four-year-old she-camel is to be paid; and if the number is between seventy-six to ninety (camels), two she-camels of two-year-old are to be paid; and if they are from ninety-one to one-hundred-and twenty (camels), two three-year-old she-camels, fit for a male camel to copulate, are to be paid; and if they are over one-hundred-and-twenty (camels), for every forty (over one-hundred-and-twenty) a two-year-old she-camel is to be paid, and for every fifty camels (over one-hundred-and-twenty) a three-year-old she-camel is to be paid. Pertaining to the camels of different ages, as far as the obligatory charity is concerned, Whoever had to pay a four-year-old she-camel as Zakat from his herd of camels and he had not got one, and he had a three-year-old she-camel, the latter should be accepted from him along with two sheep if they were available or twenty Dirhams. Whoever had to pay a three-year-old she-camel as Zakat and he had but a four-year-old she-camel, the latter should be accepted from him on the condition that the charity collector should repay him two sheep or twenty Dirhams. Whoever had to pay a two-year-old she-camel and had but a three-year-old one, the latter should be accepted from him and the Zakat collector should repay him twenty Dirhams or two sheep. Whoever had to pay a two-year-old she-camel and he had but a one-year-old she-camel, the latter should be accepted from him along with twenty Dirhams or two sheep if they were available. Whoever had to pay a one-year-old-she-camel, and he had got but a two-year-old-he-camel, the latter might be accepted from him and nothing besides should be required. Whoever has got only four camels, has to pay nothing as Zakat, unless the owner of these four camels wants to give. As regards the Zakat for the (flock of) sheep: if they are between forty and one-hundred-and-twenty sheep, one sheep is to be paid; and if they are one sheep over one-hundred-and-twenty to two hundred (sheep), two sheep are to be paid; and if they are one sheep over two-hundred to three-hundred (sheep), three sheep are to be paid; and if they are one sheep over three-hundred, for every extra hundred sheep, one sheep is to be paid as Zakat. Neither an old nor a defected animal, nor a male-goat may be taken as Zakat except if the Zakat collector wishes (to take it). Neither the property of different people may be taken together nor the joint property may be split for fear of (paying more, or receiving less) Zakat. If a property is equally owned by two partners, they should pay the combined Zakat and it will be considered that both of them have paid their Zakat equally. If somebody has got less than forty sheep, no Zakat is required, unless he wants to give. For silver the Zakat is one-fortieth of the lot (2.5% provided that such lot should be no less than two hundred Dirhams), and if its value is no more than one hundred and ninety (Dirhams), Zakat is not required, unless the owner wants to pay."

[11] The Withholders Of The Obligatory Charity Due Upon Sheep

2453- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Dharr that he said: the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: " No owner of camels, cattle or goat and sheep does not give in charity what is due upon them but that those (animals) would come on the Day of Judgement, in the best state of hugeness and fatness they have ever been, and they would gore him with their horns and trample him with their hoofs. The more the last would pass away, the more the first would return (to trample him once again) until it is judged among the people."

2454- It is narrated on the authority of Suwaid Ibn Ghafalah that he said: The charity collector sent (to us) by the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to us, and I went and sat with him, and I heard him saying: "According to the covenant made to me (by the Messenger of Allah) no suckling animal should be taken (as obligatory charity), and no separate possessions (of two persons) should be combined (to get the obligatory charity from them altogether), nor should a joint property be separated (to get the obligatory charity from each of them solely for fear of increasing or decreasing the obligatory charity). A man brought to him a huge fat she-camel of big hump (as the obligatory charity due upon him), and asked him to take it, but he refused to take it from him.

2455- It is narrated on the authority of Wa'il Ibn Hujr that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent a courier (to collect the obligatory charity), and a man gave him a lean young camel of small holes in his nose (made to prevent it from being suckled, which would lead to leanness and weakness), thereupon the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "We've sent the charity collector of Allah and His Messenger, and so and so gave him a very young lean camel: O Allah! Let blessing be blighted from him, and from his camels!" when the news of that reached the man, he brought a good she-camel, and said: "I turn in repentance to Allah Almighty and His Messenger the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"!" on that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Allah! Send Blessing upon him, and bless him in his property!"

2459- It is narrated on the authority of Muslim Ibn Shu'bah that he said: Ibn Alqamah appointed my father as the chief of his people in Iraq, and commanded him to collect the obligatory charity from them. My father sent me (to do that job) to a group of them, and I came to an old man belonging to them called Sa'ir and said to him: "My father sent me to take the obligatory charity due upon you." He asked me: "O son of my brother! Which (of my property) should you take (as obligatory charity)?" I said: "We choose the best of them to the extent that we come to know that from the udders of the sheep." He said: "O son of my brother! Let me tell you something. I was in one of those mountain paths during the lifetime of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", grazing some sheep belonging to me when two men riding a camel came to me and said: "We are the couriers of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (and we've come to you) in order that you should give the obligatory charity due upon your sheep." I asked: "What is due upon me pertaining to it?" they said: "A single sheep." I went to a sheep whose place I had known, and it was pregnant and fat, and I brought it out to them, thereupon they said: "This is a pregnant sheep, and the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" has forbidden us to take (as the obligatory charity) a pregnant sheep." I went to a she-kid which has not yet become pregnant though it was ready to be pregnant, and I brought it out to them, thereupon

2461- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent Umar to collect the obligatory charity (Zakat). He was told that Ibn Jamil, Khalid Ibn Al-Walid, and Al-Abbas Ibn Abd Al-Muttalib had refused to give Zakat. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Nothing made Ibn Jamil feel angry except that he was a poor man, and was made wealthy by Allah. But you are unfair in asking Zakat from Khalid as he is keeping his armours and war equipment in Allah's Cause (for Jihad). As for Al-Abbas Ibn Abd Al-Muttalib, the paternal uncle of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", the obligatory charity and the like of it are due upon him."

2462- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered that the obligatory charity should be given...and the rest is the same as the previous one.

On that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Had it not been for the fact that it (the obligatory charity) is given to the poor among the Emigrants, surely, I would not have collected it (and I would rather have let the owners give what is due upon them by themselves)."

2503- It is narrated on the authority of Qais Ibn Sa'd Ibn Ubadah that he said: We used to observe fast on the day of Ashura' (tenth of Muharram), and fulfill the alms of breaking fast (after the conclusion of the month of Ramadan); and when the fasting of Ramadan was enjoined, and the regular charity became obligatory, we neither were ordered to do it (i.e. to fast the day of Ashura' and give the charity of breaking fast), nor were we forbidden to do so; and we rather kept doing it.

2504- It is narrated on the authority of Qais Ibn Sa'd that he said: the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered us to give the alms of breaking fast (after the conclusion of Ramadan) before the regular charity was enjoined; and when the regular charity was enjoined, he neither ordered us (to do it) nor forbade us to do it; and we kept doing it.

[36] Measuring The Alms Of Breaking Fast

2505- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Hasan that he said: Ibn Abbas, who was the governor of Basrah, said towards the end of Ramadan: "Give out the alms of your fasting." The people looked at each other (and it seemed as if the people did not know how to do so), thereupon Ibn Abbas asked: "Who among you is from the inhabitants of Medina? Stand and go to your brothers (from the inhabitants of Basra) and instruct them (how to give the alms of breaking their fast), for they did not know that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" enjoined it to be given by everyone, be he male or female, free or slave, in the form of a Sa' of dates, or a Sa' of barley or half a Sa' of wheat." They stood (and gave it).

[47] When It Is Given To A Wealthy Man Unknowingly

2520- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "A man (from the children of Israel) said: "Tonight, I'm going to give something in charity." He went out with his object of charity and unknowingly gave it to a thief. Next morning the people said that he had given his object of charity to a thief. (On hearing that) he said: "O Allah! All the praises be to you. (I gave in charity unknowingly) to a thief. I'm going to give in charity once again." So he again went out with his (object of) charity and (unknowingly) gave it to an adulteress. Next morning the people said that he had given his charity to an adulteress. The man said: "O Allah! All the praises be to you. (I gave my charity) to an adulteress. I'm going to give in charity once again." So he went out with his charity again and (unknowingly) gave it to a wealthy man. (The people) next morning said that he had given his charity to a wealthy man. He said: "O Allah! All the praises be to you. (I had given charity) to an adulteress, to a thief and to a wealthy man." Then he was invited and it was said to him: "As for your (object of) charity which you gave, it was accepted (by Allah, for which you would receive a reward). The adulteress might abstain from adultery, the thief might abstain from stealing, and the wealthy man might take a lesson from it and spend his wealth which Allah has given him (in Allah's cause).""

[48] Giving In Charity Out Of What Is Gained Illegally

2521- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Al-Malih from his father that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah never accepts prayer without performing ablution, nor does He accept (an object of) charity from (what is gained illegally, i.e. by way of) misappropriation."

2522- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No person gives anything in charity from what is good and lawful, and Allah never accepts but what is good and lawful, except that (Allah) Most Gracious takes it in His right (hand), and even if it is a single date, (the reward of) it will grow in the Hand of (Allah) Most Gracious "Blessed and Exalted be He", until it will become much greater (in size) than a mountain: He (Almighty) brings it up for him in the same way as anyone of you brings up his baby horse."

2523- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Habashi Al-Khath'ami that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was asked about the best deed, thereupon he said: "To have faith (and trust in Allah) in which there is no suspicion, and to strive with one's main and might with no treachery, and to perform Hajj, that is accepted (by Allah Almighty)." It was said: "Then, which prayer is the best?" he said: "To prolong the standing (in prayer by night)." It was said: "Which (object of) charity is the best?" he said: "The giving of such as has but a little property to the utmost of his capacity." It was said: "Which migration is the best?" he said: "It is to forsake what has been forbidden by Allah Almighty." He was said: "Which Jihad is the best?" he said: "It is to strive against the pagans with one's property and soul." It was said: "Then, which killing is the best?" he said: "When one is killed and his horse is hamstrung (in Allah's Cause)."

2524- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "A single Dirham outweighed (in reward) one hundred thousand Dirhams." He was asked: "How was that?" he said: "A man had no more than two Dirhams, of which he gave one in charity; and another went to his wealth (which was so much) and took one hundred thousand Dirhams, which he gave in charity."

[50] The Upper Hand

2528- It is narrated on the authority of Hakim Ibn Hizam that he said: Once I asked Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (for something) and he gave me. Again I asked and he gave me. Again I asked and he gave me. Then he said: "O Hakim! This property is like a sweet fresh fruit; whoever takes it without greediness, he is blessed in it, and whoever takes it with greediness, he is not blessed in it, and he is like a person who eats but is never satisfied. The upper (giving) hand is better than the lower (taking) hand."

[51] Which Is The Upper Hand?

2529- It is narrated on the authority of Tariq Al-Muharibi that he said: We came to Medina, and behold! Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was standing on the pulpit, and addressing the people: "No doubt, the hand of the giver is the upper hand, and start (giving) with your dependents, your mother, father, sister and brother, and then the next of kin."

[52] The Lower Hand

2530- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Umar that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said, while mentioning the charity, and abstention from begging: "No doubt, the upper hand is much better than the lower hand; and the upper hand is of such as spends (out of his property in Allah's Cause), and the lower hand is of such as begs."

[53] Giving In Charity When One Is Rich

2531- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The best (object of) charity is that which is given when one is rich, and the upper hand is much better than the lower hand; and start with your dependents."

[54] The Interpretation Of That

[55] When One Gives In Charity Something Of Which He Is In Need: Should It Be Brought Back To Him?

2533- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id that he said: A man entered the mosque on Friday while The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was delivering the sermon, and he said to him: "Offer a two-rak'ah prayer!" he came on the next Friday while The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was delivering the sermon, and he said to him: "Offer a two-rak'ah prayer!" on the next Friday, he came, thereupon he (the Prophet) said to him: "Offer a two-rak'ah prayer!" he said (to the present people): "Give in charity!" they gave in charity, and he gave him two garments. When he (the Prophet) asked them to give in charity once again, he gave one of his two garments, thereupon The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do you not see this man? He entered the mosque with shabby clothes, and I hoped you might make sense to him, and give him in charity, but you did not do; and when I ordered you to give in charity, you did, and I gave him two garments; and when I asked you to give in charity once again, he gave one of his two garments: take back your garment!" he scolded him.

[56] The Charity Of A Slave

2534- It is narrated on the authority of Umair, the freed slave of the Rejecter of eating meat that he said: My master ordered me to dry some meat, and when an indigent one came, I fed him out of it. When my master learnt of that, he hit me. I went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (and made a mention of that to him). ### [62] Calculating What Is Given In Charity

2546- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Umamah Ibn Sahl Ibn Hunaif that he said: We were sitting in the mosque in the company of many from amongst the Muhajirs and the Ansar, when we sent a man to A'ishah, to seek her permission to admit us, and (when she admitted us) we entered into her and she said: One time, a beggar came in and The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was in the house. I ordered that something be given to him. I ordered that it should be brought to me first, and I caught a glimpse of it, thereupon The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked me: "Do you intend that nothing enters or comes out of your house except with your knowledge?" I answered in the affirmative, thereupon he said: "Be quiet O A'ishah! Do not calculate (what you give), lest Allah Almighty would calculate (His gifts) upon you."

2547- It is narrated on the authority of Asma' Bint Abu Bakr that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to her: "Be quiet O A'ishah! Do not calculate (what you give), lest Allah Almighty would calculate (His gifts) upon you."

(Women 1) "O you who believe! Fear Allah, and let every soul look to what (provision) he has sent forth for the morrow. Yea, fear Allah: for Allah is well acquainted with (all) that you do." One gave a Dinar, one gave a Dirham, one gave clothes, one gave a Sa of wheat, one gave a Sa of dates, and so on until he (The Prophet) said: "(Give) even if it is (as little as) half a date fruit." I asked: "What is the sign of Islam?" he said: "It is to say: 'I've submitted my face to Allah Almighty (in Islam), and I've given up (the worship of other deities)'; to offer the (five obligatory) prayers, and give regular charity. Everything pertaining to a Muslim is inviolable to a Muslim, for they should be two brothers, helping and supporting one another. Allah Almighty never accepts a deed from any Muslim who was a pagan once he embraces Islam, unless he leaves the pagans and joins the Muslims."

[74] When One Is Begged By (The Name Of) Allah Almighty, And Gives Nothing For His Sake

2566- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Should I not tell you of such of the people as has the best position?" we said: "Yes O Messenger of Allah!" he said: "He is a man, who takes hold of the head of his horse (i.e. fights) in Allah's Cause until he dies or is killed." Should I not tell you of such as follows him (in position)?" we said: "Yes O Messenger of Allah." He said: "He is a man who stays in seclusion in a mountain pass, and establishes the obligatory prayers, and gives the regular charity, and keeps himself from the evil of people. Should I not tell you of such of the people as has the worst position?" we said: "Yes O Messenger of Allah." He said: "He is a man who is begged by (the Name of) Allah, even though he gives nothing for His Sake."

[76] Who Is The Indigent Needy?

2568- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The indigent needy is not the one who is dismissed by a date or two or a morsel or two, but the indigent needy is he who abstains from begging (people for anything as well as from showing his poverty at all). Recite, if you wish, Allah's Statement: "They beg not importunately from all and sundry." (Heifer "Al-Baqarah" 273)

2569- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The indigent needy is not that wandering one, who goes round the people, and is dismissed by one or two morsels, or one or two dates." They (the companions) asked: "Then, who is the indigent needy one, O Messenger of Allah?" he replied: "He is the one, who neither finds enough (money) to satisfy himself,, nor does he draw the attention of others so as to give him charity (since he doesn't seem to be too poor to be given), nor does he beg the people for anything."

2570- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The indigent needy is not that one who is dismissed by one or two morsels, or one or two dates." They (the companions) asked: "Then, who is the indigent needy one, O Messenger of Allah?" he replied: "He is the one, who neither finds enough (money) to satisfy himself,, nor do the people know his neediness, so that they would give him charity (since he doesn't seem to be too poor to be given)."

2571- It is narrated on the authority of Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Bujaid from his grandmother Umm Bujaid, and she was of those women who gave the pledge of allegiance to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that she said to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "Sometimes, an indigent needy one stands at my gate, but I find nothing to give him (what should I do?)" on that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to her: "If you find nothing to give him, but a burnt hoof, give it to him."

[79] Such As Whose Hearts Are Made To Adhere To Islam

2575-It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that he said: Ali Ibn Abu Talib sent from Yemen a piece of gold in its ore to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who distributed it among four persons: Al-Aqra Ibn Habis Al-Hanzali, Uyainah Ibn Badr Al-Fazari, Alqamah Ibn Ulathah Al-Amiri who belonged to (the tribe of) Banu Kilab and Zaid at-Ta'i who belonged to (the tribe of) Banu Nabhan. So the people (or the chiefs) of Quraish became angry and said: "He (The Prophet) gives the chiefs of Najd and does not give us." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I give them so as to attract their hearts (to Islam)." Then a man with a thick beard, prominent cheeks, sunken eyes, a raised forehead, and a shaven head, came (in front of The Prophet) and said: "Be afraid of Allah, O Muhammad!" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Then, who would obey Allah if I disobeyed Him? (Is it right that) Allah has entrusted all the people of the earth to me while you do not trust me?" when this man turned back, somebody thought to be Khalid Ibn Al-Walid requested The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to let him kill this man, but he prevented him. Then, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "From the offspring of this man, there will be some who will recite the Qur'an but the Qur'an will not reach beyond their throats (because they will recite it without understanding or acting on it). They will kill the Muslims but will let alive the idolaters. Moreover, they will renegade from Islam as an arrow goes through the game's body. If I live up to their time, I will kill them (entirely) as the people of Ad were killed."

2576- It is narrated on the authority of Qabisah Ibn Mukhariq that he said: I (loaned some money in order to make peace among some people and) became in debt. I came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and begged him for something in that respect. He said: "(You should know that) begging is not lawful except for one of three types of persons: If one brought debt upon himself (in order to do such things as to make peace) among people, it is permissible for him to beg till he fulfills it, after which he must stop begging."

2577- It is narrated on the authority of Qabisah Ibn Mukhariq that he said: I (loaned some money in order to make peace among some people and) became in debt. I came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and begged him for something in that respect. He said: "Wait until the charity is brought to us, so that we would order that something be given to you." Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Qabisah! (You should know that) begging is not lawful except for one of the following three types of persons: If one brought debt upon himself (in order to do such things as to make peace among people), begging would be lawful for him till he finds what sustains his living or provides him with reasonable subsistence (and enables him to fulfill it); if one was befallen by a catastrophe, which destroyed his property, begging would be lawful for him till he gets rid of it, after which he should refrain from begging; and if a person was struck by poverty, as confirmed by three intelligent men of his people saying: "So-and-so was befallen by a great poverty), then, begging would be lawful for him till he gets what sustains him or provides him with fair subsistence. O Qabisah! Except for those three types, begging is forbidden, and the One who practices it eats what is forbidden."

[81] Giving In Charity To The Orphan

2578- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that he said: Once The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sat on the pulpit and we sat around him. Then he said: "The things of which I am afraid most for your sake (concerning what will befall you) after me are the pleasures and splendours of the world and its beauties which will be disclosed to you." Somebody said: "O Allah's Apostle! Can the good bring forth evil?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" remained silent for a while. It was said to that person: "What is wrong with you? You are talking to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" while he is not talking to you." Then we noticed that he was being inspired divinely. Then The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" wiped off his sweat and said: "Where is the questioner? Good never brings forth evil. Indeed it is like what grows on the bank of a spring, which either kills or makes the animals sick, except such of animals as eats the Khadirah (a kind of vegetable): it eats its fill until its flanks get swollen, it faces the sun, and then defecates, urinates and grazes again. No doubt this wealth is sweet and green. Blessed is the wealth of a Muslim from which he gives the orphan, the indigent needy, and the wayfarer. No doubt, whoever takes it illegally will be like the one who eats but is never satisfied, and his wealth will be a witness against him on the Day of Judgement."

(81) - الصَّدَقَةُ عَلَى الْيَتِيمِ

2578 - أَخْبَرَنِي زِيَادُ بْنُ أَيُّوبَ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا إِسْمَاعِيلُ بْنُ عُليَّةَ قَالَ: أَخْبَرَنِي هِشَامٌ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنِي يَحْيَى بْنُ أَبِي كَثِيرٍ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنِي هِلَالٌ عَنْ عَطَاءِ بْنِ يَسَارٍ عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ: جَلَسَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ عَلَى الْمِنْبَرِ وَجَلَسْنَا حَوْلَهُ فَقَالَ: «إِنَّمَا أَخَافُ عَلَيْكُمْ مِنْ بَعْدِي مَا يُفْتَحُ لَكُمْ مِنْ زَهْرَةٍ وَذَكَرَ الدُّنْيَا وَزِينَتَهَا فَقَالَ رَجُلٌ: أَوْ يَأْتِي الْخَيْرُ بِالْشَّرِّ؟ فَسَكَتَ عَنْهُ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ فَقِيلَ لَهُ: مَا شَأْنُكَ تُكَلِّمُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ وَلَا يُكَلِّمُكَ؟ قَالَ:

[82] Giving In Charity To The Kith And Kin

2579- It is narrated on the authority of Salman Ibn Amir that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The alms given to an indigent is (rewardable for being object of) charity; and such as given to one's kith and kin has a double (reward for being) charity and (a cause of) keeping good relation (with one's kinship)."

2580- It is narrated on the authority of Zainab, the wife of Abdullah (Ibn Mas'ud), that she said: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to women: "Give in charity, even from your ornaments." Abdullah was a man of little income, to whom she said: "Would it be sufficient for me to spend my charity on you, as well as on the children of my father, for they are orphans?" Abdullah said: "You might go and ask The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about that." Zainab added: So I went and found at the door of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" an Ansari woman called Zainab, having the same question as that of mine. At the same time, Bilal came out to us to whom we said: "Go and ask The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about that, and do not tell him who we are." So Bilal went in and asked The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" regarding our problem. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked: "Who are those two (women)?" Bilal replied: "(A woman from the Ansar and) Zainab." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Which Zainab?" Bilal said: "Zainab, The wife of Abdullah (Ibn Mas'ud), and Zainab Al-Ansariyyah." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Yes, (it is sufficient for them) and they will receive a double reward (for that): One for helping relatives, and the other for giving in charity."

[83] What About Begging?

2581- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It is better for anyone of you to (cut and) pack a bundle of fire wood on his back, in order to sell it (and get his earnings by its price) than to ask somebody, who might or might not give him."

2582- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Umar that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "A man keeps begging (others to give him) until he will come on the Day of Judgement, having no piece of flesh on his face (out of shyness)."

2583- It is narrated on the authority of A'idh Ibn Amr that he said: A man came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and begged something from him and he gave it to him. When he (turned away and) placed his foot on the threshold of the gate, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If you know whatever (shame and humiliation to which one is put because of) begging, no one would walk to another to beg anything from him."

[84] Begging The Righteous Good Men

2584- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Al-Firasi that Al-Firasi said to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "Should I beg (others) O Messenger of Allah?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No, and if it is necessary for you to beg, you should beg only the righteous good men."

[85] Abstaining From Begging

2585- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that he said: Some people from among the Ansar asked the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (to give them something), and he gave them. They again asked him and he gave them, until what he had was used up. Then, he said: "Whatever good (such as wealth, goods or so) I have, I will not withhold from you. He who abstains from begging, Allah protects him against need; and he who proves to be patient, Allah supports him to be patient. None is endowed with anything better and greater than endurance."

2586- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It is better for anyone of you to take his rope (and cut and) carry a bundle of fire wood on his back, in order to sell it (and get his earnings by its price) than to

[86] The Superiority Of Him, Who Begs None For Anything

2587- It is narrated on the authority of Thawban that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Who could guarantee for me to do only one thing, and the Garden is assured to him? It is to beg none of the people for anything."

2588- It is narrated on the authority of Qabisah Ibn Mukhariq that he said: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "Begging is not lawful except for one of the following three types of persons: if one was befallen by a catastrophe, which destroyed his property, begging would be possible for him till he gets what sustains him or provides him with reasonable subsistence, after which he should stop from begging; If one brought debt upon himself (in order to do such things as to make peace among people), begging would be possible for him till he fulfills it, after which he must stop begging; and if a person (was struck by poverty, as confirmed by) three intelligent men of his people taking oath by Allah "that begging is lawful for so-and-so (since he was befallen by a great poverty)", then, begging would be possible for him till he gets what sustains him or provides him with fair subsistence, after which he should stop from begging. Except for those three types, begging is forbidden."

[87] The Limit Of Richness

2589- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever begs (others to be given something), even though he has what makes him independent, it will come on the Day of Judgement in the form of sores, slashes or scratches in his face." It was said: "O Messenger of Allah! What does make one free of want?" he said: "Fifty Dirhams or gold equal to the same value."

[88] Begging Importunately

2590- It is narrated on the authority of Mu'awiyah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Beg not importunately, and none asks me for anything which I dislike and he will be blessed in what I give him."

[89] Who Is The Importunate Beggar?

2591- It is narrated on the authority of Amr Ibn Shu'aib from his father from his grandfather that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him” said: “He, who begs others and he has (no less than) forty Dirhams, is an importunate beggar.”

2592- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa’id Al-Khudri that he said: My mother sent me to The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” and I came and sat. he received me and said: “He, who seeks independence (from asking others) Allah Almighty helps him become free (from begging others), and he, who refrains from begging, Allah Almighty helps him abstain from begging, and he, who seeks to be self-sufficient, Allah Almighty helps him become self-sufficient, and he, who asks to be given anything and he has (as much money as is equal to) the value of an ounce (forty Dirhams) is (of those who) ask unfittingly and importunately.” I said: “No doubt, my she-camel Al-Yaqutah is better for me than an ounce (of forty Dirhams).” I then returned and did not ask him for anything.

[90] When One Has Got No Property Of (Forty) Dirhams, But Has What Is Equal To It

2593- It is narrated on the authority of Ata’ Ibn Yasar from a man belonging to Banu Asad that he said: I and my family descended at Baqi Gharqad, and my family said to me: “Go to Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” and ask him for something to sustain us.” I went to the Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” and found a man sitting with him, asking him for something, and the Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” was saying to him: “I do not find anything to give to you.” The man turned back from him angrily and said: “By my life, you give whomever you like.” On that the Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said: “He becomes angry with me just because I find nothing to give him. No doubt, whoever among you asks to be given anything and he has (as much money as) an ounce or the like of it (is, indeed, of those who) ask unfittingly and importunately.” The man of Banu Asad said: I said (to myself): “A milch is much better for us than an ounce.” The ounce is forty Dirhams. Then, I returned and did not ask the Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” for anything. When parley and raisins were brought to the Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him”, he allocated to us a portion thereof until Allah Almighty made us free of want.

[91] The Begging Of A Strong Healthy One Who Is Able To Gain His Earnings (From His Labour)

2595- It is narrated on the authority of Ubaidullah Ibn Adi Ibn Al-Khiyar from two men that they went to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and begged him for something form the obligatory charity. He caught a glimpse of them and found that they were too hardy (and strong to work). On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If you like (I could give you), even though there is no portion in it (begging from the obligatory charity) for a wealthy, or for such as too strong and powerful to get his earnings (from his labour)."

[92] When One Begg Such As Endued With The Power Of Authority

2596- It is narrated on the authority of Samurah Ibn Jundub that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Begging is a stain (of shame) therewith one stains his face: one then could keep his face stained (by begging others) if he so likes, and one could leave it if he so likes, unless one begs from a person endued with the power of authority, or he finds it necessary and has no way but to do it."

[93] When One Is Forced By Necessity To Beg

2597- It is narrated on the authority of Samurah Ibn Jundub that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Begging is a stain (of shame) therewith one stains his face, unless one begs from a person endued with the power of authority, or he finds it necessary and has no way but to do it."

2598- It is narrated on the authority of Hakim Ibn Hizam that he said: Once I asked Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (for something) and he gave me. Again I asked and he gave me. Again I asked and he gave me. Then Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Hakim! This property is like a sweet fresh fruit; whoever takes it without greediness, he is blessed in it, and whoever takes it with greediness, he is not blessed in it, and he is like a person who eats but is never satisfied. To be sure, the upper (giving) hand is better than the lower (taking) hand."

2599- It is narrated on the authority of Hakim Ibn Hizam that he said: Once I asked Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (for something) and he gave me. I will never beg anyone after you for anything until I (die and) Leave this world."

[94] When Allah Endows One With Property With No Begging

2601- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn As-Sa'idi Al-Maliki that he said: Umar Ibn Al-Khattab appointed me to collect the (objects of) obligatory charity, and when I finished from collecting it and paying it to him, he gave me the charge assigned to an employee for his job, thereupon I said: "No doubt, I've worked for the sake of Allah, and my reward is incumbent upon Allah." On that he said: "You should accept what I've given to you, for I did a job during the lifetime of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and when he gave me the charge of my labour and I said the same as you said, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to me: "If you are given anything without begging it, accept it, and give in charity (out of it)."

2602- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn As-Sa'idi that he came from Sham to Umar Ibn Al-Khattab, who said to him: "Have I not been reported that you do one of those jobs of Muslims, for which you are given charge, and you refuse to accept it?" he said: "Yes: I have got (property of) horses and slaves, and I'm in a good state, and I like to do my job as charity for the Muslims." Umar said: "I intended to do what you intend to do now; and whenever the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave me money (as charge for my work) I would say to him: "Give it to such as is much poorer than me." Once, he gave me money, thereupon I said to him: "Give it to such as is in need of it more than me." On that he said: "Whatever money is brought to you by Allah Almighty, with neither begging nor greediness, accept it, and then keep it as your property, or give it in charity; and what is not (brought to you on such conditions), do not make yourself be attached to it."

Appoint us in charge of collecting the objects of charity." Meanwhile, there came Ali Ibn Abu Talib while we were in such a state, and said: " the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" never appoints anyone of you (his family) in charge of collecting the objects of charity." Abd Al-Muttalib further said: I and Al-Fadl set out until we came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who said to us: "No doubt, charity is the impurities of people (i.e. by which, they purify their wealth and property); and it is not lawful for Muhammad, nor for the family of Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"."

2608- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "A people's sister's son belongs to them."

[97] A People's Freed Slave Belongs To Them

[98] Accepting Charity Is Unlawful For The Prophet

2610- It is narrated on the authority of Bahz Ibn Hakim from his father form his grandfather that he said: Whenever the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was served with anything, he would ask about its source: whether it was a gift or an object of charity. Whenever it was said that it was an object of charity, he would not eat, and if it was said that it was a gift, he would stretch his hand (and start eating).

[99] When An Object Of Charity Turns To Be A Gift

2611- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she wanted to buy a Barirah in order to emancipate her. Her masters put the condition that the right of inheriting her should be for them. She mentioned that to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who said: "Buy (and then manumit) her, for the right of inheriting the property of a slave is to be for the manumitter." When she was manumitted, she was given the freedom of choice (whether to stay with her husband or leave him). Once, meat was brought to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and it was said: "This is of what was given to Barirah in charity." On that he said: "No doubt, it is an object of charity for her, and (since she presents it to us it becomes) a gift for us." Her husband was reported to have been free.

[100] Buying The Object Of Charity

2612- It is narrated on the authority of Zaid Ibn Aslam from his father that Umar Ibn Al-Khattab said: I gave a horse to be ridden in Allah's Cause. The person to whom it was given, did not look after it. I intended to buy it from him, thinking that he would sell it cheaply. When I asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about that he said: "Don't buy it even if it was given to you for one Dirham, because such as takes back his gift is like a dog which swallows back its vomit."

2613- It is narrated on the authority of Salim Ibn Abdullah from his father (Abdullah Ibn Umar) that Umar presented a horse to be ridden in Allah's Cause, and when he saw it being sold, he intended to buy it. On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "Do not take back your object of charity."

2614- It is narrated on the authority of Salim Ibn Abdullah from his father (Abdullah Ibn Umar) that he told that Umar gave a horse in charity (to be ridden) in Allah's Cause, and when he saw it being sold afterwards, he intended to buy it. On that he went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and consulted him about that. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "Do not take back your object of charity."

2615- It is narrated on the authority of Sa'id Ibn Al-Musayyab that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered Attab Ibn Asid to estimate the amount of the fruits of grapes in order that the obligatory charity due upon it should be given in the form of raisins, just as the obligatory charity due upon the date-palms is given in the form of dates.

[1] The Obligation Of Performing Hajj

2616- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" addressed us saying: "O people! Allah has enjoined Hajj upon you; so perform Hajj." A man asked: "O Messenger of Allah! (Is it to be offered) every year?" He (the Prophet) kept silent, and he (the man) repeated (his question) thrice, after which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If I said "yes", it would become obligatory (for you to offer it every year), and if it is obligatory (for you to offer Hajj every year) you would not be able to do it. Just (stick to my orders and) leave (asking) me so long as I left you (and did not order you to do a certain thing). However, those who were before you were destroyed for their excessive questions, and their disputes with their Prophets. So when I order you to do anything, do it as much as is within your power, and when I forbid you to do anything, then leave it."

2617- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stood and said: "Indeed, Allah Almighty has enjoined Hajj (pilgrimage) upon you." Al-Aqra' Ibn Habis At-Tamimi asked: "Is it (to be performed) every year O Messenger of Allah?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" kept silent (for a while after which) he said: "If I answer in the affirmative, it will then become binding, and you will neither hearken nor obey (i.e. you will not be able to carry out that order). But performing Hajj once is binding (and what is beyond that is voluntary)."

[20] The Place Of Assuming Ihram Assigned To Those Of Yemen

2651- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" made Dhul-Hulaifah as the Miqat (the place from where people could assume Ihram) for the people of Medina, Al-Juhfah for the people of Sham, Qarn Al-Manazil for the people of Najd, and Yalamlam for the people of Yemen. These locations of assuming Ihram are for the people who live in those very places, and besides, for those who come through those places (with the intention to perform Hajj and Umrah). Whoever is living within these boundaries (i.e. between Mecca and those places of assuming Ihram) can assume Ihram from his (dwelling) place (since he is one of their inhabitants, and it is not necessary for him to go to the very place to assume Ihram), and so do the people of Mecca.

2652- It is narrated on the authority of Salim from his father (Abdullah Ibn Umar) that he said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "People of Medina should assume Ihram from Dhul-Hulaifah, the people of Sham from Al-Juhfah, and the people of Najd from Qarn." Abdullah added: I was informed, even though I did not hear it direct from Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", that he said: "The people of Yemen should assume Ihram from Yalamlam."

2709- It is narrated on the authority of Ja'far Ibn Muhammad from his father that he said: We went to Jabir and asked him about the pilgrimage which the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered, thereupon he said: the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Had I known earlier what I have come to know later, I would not have driven the sacrificial animals and would have made it Umrah. So, whoever among you does not have the sacrificial animal with him should put off Ihram and make it Umrah."...Ali Ibn Abu Talib brought sacrificial animals from Yemen, and the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" drove his sacrificial animals from Medina...and behold! Fatimah had put off Ihram. She put on dyed clothes and put kohl (in her eyes). Ali said: Prompted by anger, I went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in order to ask about his religious verdict concerning what she had done, and I said: "O Messenger of Allah! Fatimah put on dyed clothes, and applied kohl in her eyes, and when I asked her about that she said to me: "It is my father the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who has ordered me to do so." He said: "She has told the truth; she has told the truth; she has told the truth! It is I who have ordered her to do so"

On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Wash his body with water and infusion of lote leaves, and shroud him in his two garments, and let his head and face uncovered, for on the Day of Judgement, he will be resurrected while reciting Talbiyah."

When I came to Al-Udhaib, both Salman Ibn Rabie'ah and Zaid Ibn Suhan met me, thereupon one of them said to the other: “This (Man) has no better knowledge than his riding camel.” (I felt it very hard) until I met Umar Ibn Al-Khattab, to whom I said:

As-Subai said: I felt it in myself, until I met Umar Ibn Al-Khattab, to whom I made a mention of that. On that Umar said to me: “No doubt, you’ve been guided to the right way of your Prophet “Peace be upon him”.” Shaiqi said: I and Masruq Ibn Al-Ajda' used to visit As-Subai Ibn Ma'bad, in order to make him recall the narrations; and I and Masruq Ibn Al-Ajda' visited him many times.

I said: "I've assumed Ihram with the same intention with which you had assumed Ihram." He said: "I've driven the sacrificial camels with me and assumed Ihram for both Hajj and Umrah jointly." blessing and peace be upon him” reciting Talbiyah for both Umrah and Hajj jointly. I related that to Ibn Umar who said to me: He recited Talbiyah only for Hajj solely. I met Anas, and told him about the statement of Ibn Umar. On that he said: Do you regard us but as boys? I heard the Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” saying: "I'm responding to Your Call for both Umrah and Hajj jointly! "

[50] Continuing Umrah On To Hajj (Tamattu')

(It is to assume Ihram for both Umrah and Hajj separately, and this necessitates that one offers Umrah during the months of Hajj, after which one puts off Ihram and lives as a non-Muhrim until the days of Hajj come).

2729- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: During the Farewell Hajj, the Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” continued Umrah on to Hajj. He drove his sacrificial animals with him from Dhul-Hulaifah. The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” started with assuming Ihram for Umrah and then he assumed Ihram for Hajj, and the people too continued Umrah on to Hajj with the Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him”: some of them had sacrificial animals and others had not. So, when The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" arrived in Mecca, he said to people: "Whoever among you has driven the Sacrifice, should not finish his Ihram till he completes his Hajj. Whoever among you has not (driven) the Sacrifice with him, should circumambulate Ka'bah and compass round Safa and Marwah, then cut short his hair and finish his Ihram, and should later assume Ihram for Hajj; but he must offer a Sacrifice. If anyone cannot afford for a Sacrifice, he should fast for three days during the Hajj and seven days when he returns home." Then, The Prophet “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” circumambulated Ka’bah on his arrival (in Mecca); he touched the (Black Stone) corner first of all and then walked fast with moving the shoulders during the first three rounds round the Ka’bah, and during the last four rounds he walked (normally). After finishing from the circumambulation of the Ka’bah, he offered a two-rak’ah prayer at Abraham’s Station. Then he went to Safa and Marwah and compassed them round seven times. He did not do any deed forbidden because of Ihram, till he finished all the ceremonies of his Hajj and slaughtered his sacrifice on the day of Sacrifice (tenth of Dhul-Hijjah). He then hastened onwards (to Mecca) where he circumambulated the Ka’bah and then everything that was forbidden because of Ihram became permissible. Those who took and drove the sacrifice with them did the same as the Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” did.

2729 - أَخْبَرَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ الْمُبَارَكِ الْمُحَرَّمِيُّ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا حُجَيْنُ بْنُ الْمُثَنَّى قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا اللَّيْثُ عَنْ عُقَيْلٍ عَنِ ابْنِ شِهَابٍ عَنْ سَالِمِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ أَنَّ عَبْدَ اللَّهِ بْنَ عُمَرَ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمَا قَالَ: تَمَتَّعَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ فِي حَجَّةِ الْوَدَاعِ بِالْعُمْرَةِ إِلَى الْحَجِّ وَأَهْدَى وَسَاقَ مَعَهُ الْهَدْيَ بِذِي الْحُلَيْفَةِ وَبَدَأَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ فَأَهَلَ بِالْعُمْرَةِ، ثُمَّ أَهَلَ بِالْحَجِّ وَتَمَتَّعَ النَّاسُ مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ بِالْعُمْرَةِ إِلَى الْحَجِّ، فَكَانَ مِنَ النَّاسِ مَنْ أَهْدَى فَسَاقَ الْهَدْيَ، وَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ لَمْ يَهْدِ، فَلَمَّا قَدِمَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ مَكَّةَ قَالَ لِلنَّاسِ: «مَنْ كَانَ مِنْكُمْ أَهْدَى فَإِنَّهُ لَا يَحِلُّ مِنْ شَيْءٍ حَرُمَ مِنْهُ حَتَّى يَقْضِيَ حَجَّهُ، وَمَنْ لَمْ يَكُنْ أَهْدَى فَلْيُطِفْ بِالْبَيْتِ، وَبِالصَّفَا وَالْمَرْوَةِ، وَلْيَقْصِرْ وَلْيَحْلِلْ، ثُمَّ لْيَهْلُ بِالْحَجِّ، ثُمَّ لْيَهْدِ وَمَنْ لَمْ يَحِذْ هَدْيًا فَلْيُضْمِ ثَلَاثَةَ أَيَّامٍ فِي الْحَجِّ، وَسَبْعَةً إِذَا رَجَعَ إِلَى أَهْلِهِ». فَطَافَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ حِينَ قَدِمَ مَكَّةَ وَأَسْتَلَمَ الرُّكْنَ أَوَّلَ شَيْءٍ ثُمَّ حَبَّ ثَلَاثَةَ أَطْوَافٍ مِنَ السَّبْعِ وَمَشَى أَرْبَعَةَ أَطْوَافٍ ثُمَّ رَكَعَ حِينَ قَضَى طَوَافَهُ بِالْبَيْتِ فَصَلَّى عِنْدَ الْمَقَامِ رَكَعَتَيْنِ ثُمَّ سَلَّمَ فَأَنْصَرَفَ فَأَتَى الصَّافَا فَطَافَ بِالصَّافَا وَالْمَرْوَةِ سَبْعَةَ أَطْوَافٍ ثُمَّ لَمْ يَحِلَّ مِنْ شَيْءٍ حَرُمَ مِنْهُ حَتَّى قَضَى حَجَّهُ وَنَحَرَ هَدْيَهُ يَوْمَ النَّحْرِ وَأَفَاضَ فَطَافَ بِالْبَيْتِ ثُمَّ حَلَ مِنْ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ حَرُمَ مِنْهُ وَفَعَلَ مِثْلَ مَا فَعَلَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ مَنْ أَهْدَى وَسَاقَ الْهَدْيَ مِنَ النَّاسِ.

2730- It is narrated on the authority of Sa'id Ibn Al-Musayyab that he said: Both Ali and Uthman performed Hajj together, and when we were on the way, Uthman forbade the people to continue Umrah on to Hajj by way of Tamattu' (i.e. to put off Ihram after the ceremonies of Umrah, and then assume Ihram once again for Hajj). Ali said (to his companions): "When you see him having set out, set out (with him and assume Ihram for Umrah, in order that he should know that you've give preference to the sunnah of the Prophet over his forbiddance)." In this way, Ali and his companions recited Talbiyah only for Umrah, and Uthman did not forbid them. Ali said (to Uthman): "Have I not been reported that you forbid completing Umrah unto Hajj?" he answered in the affirmative. Ali further asked: "Did you not hear that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" continued Umrah on to Hajj?" he answered in the affirmative.

2731- It is narrated on the authority of both Sa'd Ibn Abu Waqqas and Ad-Dahhak Ibn Qais, that they discussed the matter of continuing Umrah on to Hajj, (i.e. assuming Ihram for both separately, known as) Hajj At-Tamattu', in the year Mu'awiyah Ibn Abu Sufyan performed Hajj, thereupon Ad-Dahhak said: "None does so barring such as is ignorant of Allah's laws (and commandments)." Sa'd said: "What bad statement it is which you've said O son of my brother!" Ad-Dahhak said: "Umar Ibn Al-Khattab forbade it." Sa'd said: "No doubt, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did it, and we did it with him."

2732- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Musa that he used to give a religious verdict regarding as valid Hajj At-Tamattu' (i.e. to assume Ihram for both separately, in such a way as to continue Umrah on to Hajj). A man said to him: "Stick to restraint in giving some religious verdicts of yours, for you do not know what (Umar Ibn Al-Khattab) the Commander of the Believers has presented in the rituals (of Hajj) after you." Later on, he (Abu Musa) met and asked him (Umar about that). Umar said: "I know that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (and his Companions) did that (Hajj At-Tamattu'), but I dislike that they (men) might have sexual intercourse with their wives under the shade of the trees, and then set out for Hajj with their heads dripping water."

2733- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: I heard Umar (Ibn Al-Khattab) having said: "I forbid you to practice Mut'ah (to assume Ihram for both Umrah and Hajj separately), even though it is in Allah's Book, and the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did it, i.e. to continue Umrah on to Hajj."

2733 - أَخْبَرَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عَلِيٍّ بْنِ الْحَسَنِ بْنِ شَقِيقٍ قَالَ: أَنْبَأَنَا أَبِي قَالَ: أَنْبَأَنَا أَبُو حَمْرَةَ عَنْ مُطَرِّفٍ عَنْ سَلَمَةَ بْنِ كَهَيْلٍ عَنْ طَاوُسٍ عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ عُمَرَ يَقُولُ: وَاللَّهِ إِنِّي لَأَنْهَاكُمُ عَنِ الْمُتَمَتِّعَةِ وَإِنَّهَا لَفِي كِتَابِ اللَّهِ وَلَقَدْ فَعَلَهَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَعْنِي الْعُمْرَةَ فِي الْحَجِّ.

2734- It is narrated on the authority of Tawus that Mu'awiyah said to Ibn Abbas: "Do you know that I cut short the hair of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" near (the mountain of) Al-Marwah (after finishing from the ceremonies of his Umrah)?" Ibn Abbas answered in the negative. Ibn Abbas commented: "Mu'awiyah forbids the people to practice (Hajj) Al-Mut'ah, even though the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" continued Umrah on to Hajj."

2735- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Musa that he said: I came upon Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when he was at Al-Batha. He asked me: "Which intention did you have when you assumed Ihram?" I replied: "I assumed Ihram with the same intention with which Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" assumed Ihram." He asked: "Have you driven sacrificial animals with you?" I answered in the negative. On that the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Circumambulate the House and compass round Safa and Marwah, and then put off Ihram (since you did not bring the sacrificial animals with you)." Then I circumambulated the House, compassed round Safa and Marwah, and went to one of my wives who combed (and cut short) my hair and then washed my head. (Then, I assumed Ihram once again for Hajj). So, I used to give this religious verdict (to the people concerning this matter) during the Caliphate of Abu Bakr and then of Umar. While I was standing (and addressing the people) during the season, a man came to me and said: "(Stick to restraint in giving some religious verdicts of yours, for) you do not know what has been made after you by the Commander of the Believers in the rituals (of Hajj)." I said: "O people! Whomever we gave the religious verdict (concerning putting off Ihram) let him wait, for the Commander of the Believers is going to come to you, and you should follow him." When Umar came I said to him: "O Commander of Believers! What has you changed in the matter of ceremonies (of Hajj)?" He said: "If we follow the Holy Book, then (you should know that) Allah Almighty says: " And complete the Hajj or Umrah in the service of Allah." (Al-Baqarah 196) If we follow the way of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", then (you should know that) Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not put off his Ihram till he slaughtered the sacrifice."

2736- It is narrated on the authority of Mutarrif Ibn Abdullah that he said: Imran Ibn Husain said to me: We continued Umrah on to Hajj with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and we did so with him; and (after his death) a man (i.e. Umar Ibn Al-Khattab) said about (forbidding) it what he willed to say."

[51] On Assuming Ihram, One Might Give No Name (To The Kind Of Hajj He Is Going To Perform)

2737- It is narrated on the authority of Ja'far Ibn Muhammad from his father that he said: We went to Jabir and asked him about the Hajj of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", thereupon he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stayed in Medina for nine years without offering Hajj. Then he announced publicly in the tenth year that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was going to offer Hajj. A great number of people came to Medina, all of whom were eager to follow The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and do the same as his doing. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" set out when only five days out of Dhul-Qa'dah remained, and we all set out with him. Jabir added: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was among us, on whom The Holy Qur'an was being sent down; and he knew well its (truly right) interpretation. Whatever he did, we also did. We set out with the sole intention to perform Hajj.

2738- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: We set out in the company of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" with the sole intention of performing Hajj. When we reached Sarif (a place ten miles from Mecca), I got my menses. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to me while I was weeping. He said: "Have you got menses?" I answered in the affirmative, thereupon he said: "This is a thing, which Allah has ordained for the daughters of Adam. So do what all the Muhrim do with the exception of the Circumambulation round the House."

[52] Performing Hajj With No Intention Of A Specific Kind From The Part Of A Muhrim

2739- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Musa that he said: I came from Yemen to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when he was encamping at Al-Batha, where he was assuming Ihram for Hajj. He asked me: "Have you intended to perform Hajj?" I replied in the affirmative. He asked: "For what have you assumed Ihram?" I replied: "I have assumed Ihram with the same intention as that of the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Go and circumambulate the House and compass round Safa and Marwah, and then put off Ihram (since you did not bring the sacrificial animals with you)." Then I circumambulated the House, compassed round Safa and Marwah, and went to one of my wives who took out lice from my head (and then, I assumed Ihram once again for Hajj). So, I used to give this religious verdict (to the people concerning this matter) till the Caliphate of Umar when a person said to him: "O Abu Musa! Stick to restraint in giving some religious verdicts of yours, for you do not know what has been made after you by the Commander of the Believers in the rituals (of Hajj)." Abu Musa said: "O people! Whomever we gave the religious verdict (concerning putting off Ihram) let him wait, for the Commander of the Believers is going to come to you, and you should follow him." Umar then (came to whom I mentioned that, whereupon he) said: "If we follow the Holy Book, then (you should know that) it orders us to complete (the rituals of Hajj and Umrah). If we follow the tradition of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", then (you should know that) Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not finish his Ihram till the sacrifice had reached its destination (by being slaughtered)."

2740- It is narrated on the authority of Ja'far Ibn Muhammad from his father that he said: We went to Jabir and asked him about the pilgrimage which the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered, thereupon he said: Ali Ibn Abu Talib brought sacrificial animals from Yemen, and the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" drove his sacrificial animals from Medina. He said to Ali: "What did you say when you intended to perform Hajj?" He said: "O Allah! I assume Ihram with the same intention as that of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and I have the sacrificial animals with me." On that he said to him: "Then, do not put off Ihram."

2741- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir that he said: Ali came from his job in Yemen, to whom the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "For which did you assume Ihram O Ali?" He said: "I assumed Ihram for the same for which the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" assumed Ihram." He said: "Then, offer your sacrificial animal, and be in the state of Ihram as you are." Ali offered sacrificial animals on his behalf.

2742- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Bara' Ibn Azib that he said: I was with Ali when the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" appointed him (as governor of) Yemen, and I got many ounces (of gold) with him. When Ali came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (and he said) I found Fatimah having sprinkled water in the house and perfumed it (to clean it). I went to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked me: "What have you done?" I said: "I've assumed Ihram with the same intention with which the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had assumed Ihram." He said: "I've driven the sacrificial camels with me and assumed Ihram for both Hajj and Umrah jointly."

[53] If One Assumes Ihram For Umrah: Could He Join Hajj With It?

2743- It is narrated on the authority of Nafi' that he said: Ibn Umar intended to perform Hajj in the year when Al-Hajjaj attacked Ibn Az-Zubair. It was said to Ibn Umar: "There is a danger of a looming war between them, and we are afraid that you might be detained (from the House)." Ibn Umar said: "Verily, in Allah's Apostle you have a beautiful pattern. (And if it happened as you say) then I would do the same as Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had done. I make you witness that I have decided to perform Umrah." Then he set out and when he reached Al-Baida, he said: "The ceremonies of both Hajj and Umrah are similar. I make you witness that I have made Hajj compulsory for me along with Umrah." He drove (to Mecca) a sacrifice, which he had bought from (a place called) Quda'id. Then, he proceeded on, pronouncing Talbiyah for both until he reached Mecca. He circumambulated the House and compassed Safa and Marwah round, and did not do more than that. He neither slaughtered the sacrifice, nor did he put off Ihram, nor did he shave or cut short his hair. (In other words) he did not do anything from which he was prohibited because of being in the state of Ihram till the day of Sacrifice (tenth of Dhul-Hijjah). He slaughtered his sacrifice and shaved his head. Indeed, he regarded his first circumambulation as sufficient for Hajj and Umrah. Ibn Umar said: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did so."

[54] The Way Of Reciting Talbiyah

2744- It is narrated on the authority of Salim Ibn Abdullah Ibn Umar from his father that he said: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" raising his voice with Talbiyah, saying: "I'm responding to Your call O Allah, I'm responding to Your call! I'm responding to Your call, You have no partner with You, I'm responding to Your call. All the praises and blessings be to You, All the dominion be for You. You have no partner with You." 2748- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud that he said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to recite Talbiyah as follows: "I'm responding to Your call O Allah, I'm responding to Your call! ### [56] The Act During Assuming Ihram

2751- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" started reciting Talbiyah after he had offered (a two-rak'ah) prayer (of assuming Ihram).

2752- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered Zhuhr prayer at (the place of) Baida' (in Dhul-Hulaifah), and then he rode (his mount) and ascended the mountain of Baida', and once he offered Zhuhr prayer, he (assumed Ihram and) started reciting Talbiyah with both Hajj and Umrah.

2753- It is narrated on the authority of Ja'far Ibn Muhammad from his father from Jabir that he said, concerning the Hajj of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": When he came to Dhul-Hulaifah, he offered prayer and he kept silent (from reciting Talbiyah) until he reached Al-Baida'.

2754- It is narrated on the authority of Salim from his father that he heard him saying: This is your Baida', in connection with which you tell lies about Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not (assume Ihram and) started reciting Talbiyah but from the mosque of Dhul-Hulaifah.

2755- It is narrated on the authority of Salim from Abdullah Ibn Umar that he said: I saw Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having ridden his mount in Dhul-Hulaifah, and then started reciting Talbiyah just when it got up right with him.

[57] Such As Confined Because Of Parturition Assumes Ihram

2758- It is narrated on the authority of Ja'far Ibn Muhammad from his father that Jabir said about the Hajj of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stayed in (Medina) for nine years without offering Hajj. Then he announced publicly (in the tenth year) that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was going to offer Hajj. No one having power to come whether riding or on foot remained but that he came, until a great number of people rushed to come to set out with him. When he reached Dhul-Hulaifah, Asma' Bint Umais delivered Muhammad Ibn Abu Bakr, and she sent to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (to consult his religious verdict), thereupon he said to her: "Take bath, and straighten a garment round your waist, and then assume Ihram (for Hajj)." She did accordingly.

2759- It is narrated on the authority of Ja'far Ibn Muhammad from his father that Jabir said: Asma' Bint Umais delivered Muhammad Ibn Abu Bakr (on the way to Mecca to perform Hajj), and she sent to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to consult his religious verdict about what she should do, thereupon he ordered her to take bath, and straighten a garment round her waist, and then assume Ihram (for Hajj).

[58] When Such As Is Assuming Ihram For Umrah Has Got Menses

2760- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir that he said: We set out with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" assuming Ihram with the sole intention to perform Hajj only (Ifrad), and A'ishah set out assuming Ihram for Umrah. When we reached Sarif, she got her menses. We proceeded on till we reached (Mecca) and circumambulated the Ka'bah and compassed round Safa and Marwah. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered that whoever among us had no sacrificial animal with him should put off Ihram. We asked: "What does that (putting off Ihram) imply?" He said: "It implies to get completely free from the state of Ihram." In this way, we (put off Ihram and) approached our wives, applied perfume and put on our clothes. That was at a distance (as long as to be covered in) four night's from Arafat. Then, we assumed Ihram (for Hajj) on the day of Tarwiyah (eighth of Dhul-Hijjah). The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to A'ishah and saw her weeping. He asked: "What is the matter with you?" She said: "The matter is that I've got my menses, and the people put off Ihram (after completing the rituals of Umrah), but I neither did so, nor did I circumambulate the House. The people are now going for Hajj (and I cannot go)." He said: "It is a matter which Allah has ordained for the daughters of Adam. So, now take a bath and assume Ihram for Hajj." She did accordingly, and stayed at the places of staying till the menses was over. She then circumambulated the Ka'bah, and (compassed round) Safa and Marwah. He (the Prophet) said (to her): "Now both your Hajj and Umrah are complete." But, she said: "I feel in my mind that I missed the circumambulation (of Umrah) of the House (which I did not do) till I performed Hajj." He (The Prophet) said: "O Abd Ar-Rahman! Take her to At-Tan'im to (make her) perform Umrah." That was the night of Hasbah.

(57) - إِهْلَالُ النَّفْسَاءِ

2758 - أَخْبَرَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ الْحَكَمِ، عَنْ شُعَيْبٍ، أَنبَأَنَا اللَّيْثُ عَنْ ابْنِ الْهَادِ عَنْ جَعْفَرِ بْنِ مُحَمَّدٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ قَالَ: أَقَامَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ تِسْعَ سِنِينَ لَمْ يَحْجَّ ثُمَّ أَذَّنَ فِي النَّاسِ بِالْحَجِّ فَلَمْ يَبْقَ أَحَدٌ يَقْدِرُ أَنْ يَأْتِيَ رَاكِبًا أَوْ رَاجِلًا إِلَّا قَدِمَ فَتَدَارَكَ النَّاسُ لِيَخْرُجُوا مَعَهُ حَتَّى جَاءَ ذَا الْحُلَيْفَةِ فَوَلَدَتْ أَسْمَاءُ بِنْتُ عُمَيْسٍ مُحَمَّدَ بْنَ أَبِي بَكْرٍ فَأَرْسَلَتْ إِلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ فَقَالَ: «اغْتَسِلِي وَاسْتَنْفِرِي بِثَوْبٍ ثُمَّ أَهْلِي» فَفَعَلَتْ. مُخْتَصَرٌ.

2760 - أَخْبَرَنَا قُتَيْبَةُ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا اللَّيْثُ عَنْ أَبِي الزُّبَيْرِ عَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ قَالَ: أَقْبَلْنَا مُهْلِينَ مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ بِحَجٍّ مُفْرَدٍ وَأَقْبَلَتْ عَائِشَةُ مُهْلَةً بِعُمْرَةٍ حَتَّى إِذَا كُنَّا بِسَرِفٍ عَرَكْتُ حَتَّى إِذَا قَدِمْنَا طُفْنَا بِالْكَعْبَةِ وَبِالْصَّافَا وَالْمَرَوَةِ فَأَمَرَنَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ أَنْ يَحِلَّ مِنَّا مَنْ لَمْ يَكُنْ مَعَهُ هَذِي قَالَ: فَقُلْنَا حِلُّ مَاذَا؟ قَالَ: «الْحِلُّ كُلُّهُ» فَوَاقَعْنَا النَّسَاءَ وَتَطَيَّبْنَا بِالطِّيبِ وَلَبِسْنَا ثِيَابَنَا وَلَيْسَ بَيْنَنَا وَبَيْنَ عَرَفَةَ إِلَّا أَرْبَعُ لَيَالٍ ثُمَّ أَهْلَلْنَا يَوْمَ التَّرْوِيَةِ ثُمَّ دَخَلَ

2761- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: We set out with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in the year of his Farewell Hajj and we assumed Ihram for Umrah. the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then said: "Whoever has the sacrificing animal with him should assume Ihram for Hajj along with Umrah and should not finish the Ihram till he finishes both." I was menstruating when I reached Mecca, and so I neither circumambulated the Ka'bah nor did I compass Safa and Marwah round. I complained of that to the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who replied: "Undo and comb your hair, and assume Ihram for Hajj (only) and leave the Umrah." I did so. When we had performed the Hajj, the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent me with (my brother) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abu Bakr to Tan'im. So I performed the Umrah. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to me: "This Umrah is instead of your missed one." Those who had assumed Ihram for Umrah (along with Hajj separately, i.e. At-Tamattu) circumambulated the Ka'bah and compassed Safa and Marwah round and then finished their Ihram. After returning from Mina, they offered circumambulation once again (and compassed Safa and Marwah round) for their Hajj. Those who had assumed Ihram for both Hajj and Umrah jointly (Al-Qiran) offered only one circumambulation (and compassed only once between Safa and Marwah).

[59] Putting Condition (On Assuming Ihram) For Hajj

2762- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that Duba'ah intended to perform Hajj, and the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered her to put condition (that the place of putting off her

2788- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that when Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was at Dhul-Hulaifah, he pierced his sacrificial camel in the right side of its hump to make a sign there, from which he removed the blood with his finger, and then he garlanded it with a pair of sandals; and then he rode his she-camel, and when it got up right with him on Al-Baida', he started reciting Talbiyah and assumed Ihram for Hajj at the time (he offered the prayer of) Zhuhr.

[71] When One Garlands His Sacrifice: Should He Assume Ihram?

Then, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" garlanded them with his own hand, and sent them with my father (to the House) and the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not leave anything made lawful for him by Allah Almighty (as a non-Muhrim) until the sacrifices were slaughtered.

2791- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: I twisted the garlands of the sacrificial animals of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and he did not abstain from what such as in the state of Ihram should abstain from.

2793- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: I twisted the garlands of the sacrificial animals of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and the sacrificial animals were brought

2800- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: We went out with the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (from Medina) with the sole intention of performing Hajj only. When we reached Mecca we circumambulated the House (of Ka'bah) and then the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered those who had not driven the sacrificial animals along with them to finish their Ihram. So the people who had not driven the sacrificing animals along with them finished their Ihram. The Prophet's wives too had not driven the sacrifices with them, so they too finished their Ihram. A'ishah added: I got my menses and could not circumambulate the House (of Ka'bah). So when it was the night of Hasbah (when we stopped at Al-Muhassab), I said: "O Allah's Apostle! Everyone is returning after performing Hajj and Umrah but I am returning after performing Hajj only." He said: "Didn't you circumambulate the House (of Ka'bah) on the night we reached Mecca?" I replied in the negative. He said: "Go with your brother to Tan'im and assume the Ihram for Umrah. Then come back to such and such a place."

2801- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: We went out with the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (from Medina) with the sole intention of performing Hajj only. Then, he came to know that We said: "When only five days remained to Arafat, he (the Prophet) ordered us to put off Ihram and thus (we would be able to have sexual intercourse with our wives and in this case) we would reach Mina with our male organs dribbling water (of semen in view of the time closeness of sexual relations with our wives)." the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stood among us and said: "I've been informed of what you have said, and I am the most

We asked him: “Is it (Umrah which we offered during the days of Hajj) to be held valid only for us (this time), or is it held valid perpetually?” He said: “It is held valid perpetually.”

2805- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Harith Ibn Bilal from his father that he said: I said: "O Messenger of Allah! Is (the concession of) putting off the Ihram of Hajj (and making the ceremonies we offered only for Umrah) for us in particular or is it for all the people in general?" he said: "It is for us in particular."

2806- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Dharr that he said, in reference to the Mut'ah of Hajj (i.e. to put on Ihram for Umrah and Hajj separately): "It was a concession given to us in particular."

2807- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Dharr that he said, in reference to the Mut'ah of Hajj (i.e. to put on Ihram for Umrah and Hajj separately): "It is not for you, nor do you have anything to do with it, for indeed, it was a concession given to us in particular, the companions of Muhammad “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him”."

2808- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Dharr that he said: The Mut'ah (of Hajj, i.e. to put on Ihram for Umrah and Hajj separately) was a concession given to us in particular.

2809- It is narrated on the authority of Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abu Ash-Sha'tha' that he said: I was in the company of both Ibrahim An-Nakh'i and Ibrahim At-Taimi when I said: "I intended to put on Ihram for Umrah and Hajj separately this year." Ibrahim said: "Had your father been (living) surely, he would not have done so." Ibrahim At-Taimi narrated from his father from Abu Dharr that he said: The Mut'ah (of Hajj, i.e. to put on Ihram for Umrah and Hajj separately) was a concession given to us in particular.

2810- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: The people (of the Pre-Islamic Period) used to think that to perform Umrah during the months of Hajj was one of the major sins on earth. They also used to consider the month of Safar as a forbidden (Sacred) month (instead of Muharram) and they used to say: "When the wounds of the camel's backs heal up (after they return from Hajj), the hair of the riding mounts (removed by virtue of the wind during the journey) grow more, and the month of Safar passes away (or enters upon), by then Umrah is permissible for the one who wishes to perform it." In the morning of the fourth of Dhul-Hijjah, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and his companions reached Mecca, assuming Ihram for Hajj. But he ordered his companions to make it (the intention of Ihram) for Umrah only (instead of Hajj). So, they considered his order as something grievous and were puzzled, and said: "O Allah's Apostle! What kind of putting off Ihram is allowed?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" replied: "Put off Ihram completely (like a non-Muhrim who is allowed everything)."

2811- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" assumed Ihram for Umrah (jointly with Hajj), and his companions assumed Ihram for Hajj only, and he ordered such as had no sacrificial animals to put off Ihram. Talhah Ibn Ubaidullah and another man were of those who had no sacrificial animals, thereupon they put off Ihram.

2812- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "This is Umrah, which we've continued on to Hajj: so, whoever has no sacrificial animal, let him put off Ihram completely, since the (ceremonies of) Umrah have been merged into (those of) Hajj."

Saw an onager, he rode his horse and requested his companions to give him his lash but they refused. Then he asked them to give him his spear but they refused. So he inclined to it and took it by himself, attacked the onager, and killed it. Some of the companions of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ate of it while some others refused to eat. When they caught up with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" they asked him about that. He said: "That was a meal with which Allah fed you."

2814- It is narrated on the authority of Mu'adh Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman At-Taimi from his father that he said: We were in the company of Talhah Ibn Ubaidullah while being in the state of Ihram when (the flesh of) a bird was presented to him and he was sleeping, thereupon some of us ate and others refrained from eating. When he woke up, he regarded as right those who ate and said: "No doubt, we ate a similar one while we were (in the state of Ihram) with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"."

2815- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Bahzi that once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" set out with the intention to go to Mecca, and he was in the state of Ihram; and when he reached Rawha', behold! There was a hamstrung onager. A mention of that was made to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who said: "Leave it, for its owner is about to come." Al-Bahzi, its owner, went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon you"! It is up to you to do as you like with this onager." On that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered Abu Bakr to distribute its (flesh) among the companions. He proceeded on till he was in the way between Uthayah and Arj, behold! There was a deer curving in posture under the shade (of a tree), with an arrow in its body, thereupon The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered somebody to stand near it, so that none of the people would disturb it until it was surpassed.

It is further narrated on the authority of Tawus from Ibn Abbas that once Zaid Ibn Arqam came, and Ibn Abbas said to him by way of recalling: "What have you told me about the (piece of the) flesh of a game which was presented to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" while he was in the state of Ihram?" he said: "Yes, a man presented to him a piece of the flesh of a game, which he rejected and said: "We do not eat (a game's flesh) as long as we are in the state of Ihram."

from the tribe of Banu Ghifar at midnight. I asked him where he had left Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". The man replied that he had left him with the intention to have the midday rest at As-Suqya. So, I followed Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" till I reached him and said: "O Allah's Apostle! I have been sent by my companions who send you their greetings and compliments and ask for Allah's Mercy and Blessings upon you. They were afraid that they would be left behind you; so please wait for them." So he did. Then I said: "O Allah's Apostle! I hunted an onager and I have some of it left over with me." Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" told the people to eat (of it) although all of them were in the state of Ihram."

2822- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Abu Qatadah that his father told him that he took part with Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in the holy battle of Hudaibiyah. He said: They assumed Ihram for Umrah and I did not, and (since I was not in a state of Ihram, I) caught an onager, from which I fed my companions, who were in the state of Ihram. Then, I went to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and told him that we still had something leftover of its flesh, and he ordered his companions to eat of it, even though they were in the state of Ihram.

[81] When Such As In The State Of Ihram Points To A Game, Which A Non-Muhrim Kills

2823- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Abu Qatadah from his father that he told that they were on journey with Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and some of them were in the state of Ihram and some were not. He said: I saw an onager, and (since I was not in a state of Ihram) I rode my horse, and took my spear, and when I sought their aid, they rejected to aid me. So, I deprived one of them of his spear, and I attacked the onager and killed it, and they ate of it. Then, they felt afraid (lest they might have committed something impermissible), and when Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was asked about that, he said: "Have you pointed (to it), or have you helped (him catch it)?" they answered in the negative, thereupon he told them to eat.

2824- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir that he said: I heard Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "The land game is lawful for you to eat (even though you are in the state of Ihram) as long as you do not catch it, or it is not caught for you intentionally."

Ibn Umar then proceeded on for a while and said: "The ceremonies of Umrah and Hajj are similar and I make you witnesses that I have made Umrah and Hajj binding upon me." So, he did not finish the Ihram till the day of Sacrifice came, and he offered his sacrifice.

[123] Supplicating Allah On Seeing The House

2893- It is narrated on the authority of Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Alqamah Ibn Tariq from his mother that she said: Whenever The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to (a high) place of the home of Ya'li (from which he was able to see the House), he would face the Qiblah and supplicate Allah.

[124] The Superiority Of Offering Prayer In The Sacred House

2894- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Umar that he said: I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "A single prayer to be offered in my mosque is superior to one thousand prayers to be offered in any mosque else, barring the Sacred Mosque (i.e. the Ka'bah, a prayer in which is superior to one hundred thousand prayers in any mosque else)."

2895- It is narrated on the authority of Maimunah, the wife of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that she said: I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "A single prayer to be offered in my mosque is superior to one thousand prayers to be offered in any mosque else, barring the Sacred Mosque of Ka'bah (a prayer in which is superior to one hundred thousand prayers in any mosque else)."

2896- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "A single prayer to be offered in my mosque is superior to one thousand prayers to be offered in any mosque else, barring the Ka'bah (a prayer in which is superior to one hundred thousand prayers in any mosque else)."

[125] Building The Ka'bah

2897- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to her: "Do you know that when your people (Quraish) rebuilt the Ka'bah, they decreased it from its original foundations laid by Abraham?" I (A'ishah) said: "O Allah's Apostle! Why Do you not rebuild it on its original foundations laid by Abraham?" He replied: "Had it not been for the fact that your people are still close to the (time of) unbelief (because they have recently embraced Islam) I would have done so." Abdullah (Ibn Umar) said: A'ishah must have heard this from Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" for in my opinion Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" left touching the two corners of the Ka'bah opposite Al-Hijr only because the Ka'bah was not rebuilt on its original foundations laid by Abraham.

(125) - بِنَاءُ الْكَعْبَةِ

2897 - أَخْبَرَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ سَلَمَةَ وَالْحَارِثُ بْنُ مِسْكِينٍ قِرَاءَةً عَلَيْهِ وَأَنَا أَسْمَعُ عَنْ ابْنِ الْقَاسِمِ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنِي مَالِكٌ عَنْ ابْنِ شِهَابٍ عَنْ سَالِمِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ، أَنَّ عَبْدَ اللَّهِ بْنَ مُحَمَّدٍ بْنُ أَبِي بَكْرٍ الصَّدِيقِ أَخْبَرَ عَبْدَ اللَّهِ بْنَ عُمَرَ عَنْ عَائِشَةَ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ قَالَ: «أَلَمْ تَرَيَنَّ أَنَّ

2898- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Had it been for the fact that your people are still close to the (time of) unbelief (because they have recently embraced Islam), surely, I would have demolished the House, and rebuilt it on the foundations laid by Abraham "Peace be upon him", and made a back door for it, for when Quraish reconstructed it, they ran short (of money and consequently, they reduced it)."

2899- It is narrated on the authority of (A'ishah) the Mother of Believers, that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Had it been for the fact that my people (or your people) are still close to the (time of) ignorance (because they have recently embraced Islam), surely, I would have demolished the Ka'bah, and made two gates for it." Later on, when Ibn Az-Zubair became the ruler, he made two gates for it.

2900- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to her: "O A'ishah! Had your nation not been close to the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance, I would have had the House demolished and would have included in it the portion, which had been left. Then I would have made it at a level with the ground and would have made two doors for it, one towards the east and the other towards the west, for indeed, they (your people) ran short of rebuilding it (as it should be). By doing this it would have been built on the foundations laid by Abraham "Peace be upon him"." That was what prompted Ibn Az-Zubair to demolish the House. Yazid said: "I saw Ibn Az-Zubair when he demolished and rebuilt the House and included in it a portion of Al-Hijr (the unroofed portion of Ka'bah which is at present in the form of a compound towards the northwest of Ka'bah). I saw the original foundations of Abraham which were of stratified stones resembling the humps of camels."

2901- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The man of two thin legs belonging to Abyssinia will demolish the Ka'bah (towards the end of the time, a short while before the Day of Judgement)."

[126] Entering The House

2902- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he reached the Ka'bah, by the time The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", Usamah Ibn Zaid and Bilal had entered it, and Uthman Ibn Talhah had closed the door upon them. They spent some time there, after which he opened the door, and The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came out. I ascended the grade and entered and asked them: "Where has The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" prayed?" they said: "Here." But, I forgot to ask them how much he prayed in the House.

2903- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered the House, in the company of Al-Fadl Ibn Abbas, Usamah Ibn Zaid, Uthman Ibn Talhah, and Bilal; and they closed the door upon themselves. He spent there as long as Allah willed him to spend, after which he came out. Ibn Umar said: Bilal was the first to meet, whom I asked: "Where has The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" prayed?" he said: "In (the area) between both pillars."

[127] The Place Of Prayer In The House

2904- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered the Ka'bah, and a short time before his exit, I found something (of which I liked to verify), and I went and returned soon, and saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having come out. I asked Bilal: "Has The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" prayed in the House." He said: "Yes, he prayed two rak'ahs (in the area) between both pillars."

2905- It is narrated on the authority of Mujahid that he said: Somebody came to Ibn Umar in his house and said: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" has entered the Ka'bah." He said: I soon went and found The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having come out, while Bilal was standing near the gate. I asked: "O Bilal! Has The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" prayed in the Ka'bah?" he said: "Yes." I further asked: "Where has he prayed?" he said: "He offered a two-rak'ah prayer in (the area) between those two pillars, and then he came out and offered further two rak'ahs in the front of the Ka'bah (alongside the gate)."

2906- It is narrated on the authority of Usamah Ibn Zaid that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered the Ka'bah, and glorified and magnified Allah in its different sides, but he offered no prayer there. Then, he came out, and offered a two-rak'ah prayer behind the Station of Abraham, and then said: "This is the Qiblah."

[128] The Hijr

2907- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Had the people not been still close to the time of unbelief (since they embraced Islam very recently), and had it not been for the fact that I have no enough spendings to afford for its (the Ka'bah's) reconstruction, surely, I would have included in it five cubits from the Hijr, and made a gate for the people to enter, and another for them to exit."

2908- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: I said: "O Messenger of Allah! Should I not enter the House (to pray there)?" he said: "(It is enough for you to) enter the Hijr, for it is a part of it."

[129] Offering Prayer In The Hijr

2909- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: I liked to enter the House and offer prayer there, thereupon The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" caught hold of my hand and made me enter the Hijr and said: "When you intend to enter the House, offer prayer here (in the Hijr), for indeed, it is a portion of it, but your people reduced it from the House when they rebuilt it."

[130] magnifying Allah in the different sides of the Ka'bah

2910- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not pray in the Ka'bah, but he rather magnified Allah in its different sides.

[131] Celebrating And Supplicating (Allah) In The House

2911- It is narrated on the authority of Usamah Ibn Zaid that he and The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered the House, and he ordered Bilal to close the door upon them, and at that time, the House was based on six pillars. He went until he was between both pillars next to the gate of the Ka'bah, he sat, praised Allah and lauded Him, then begged Him, and asked for His Forgiveness. Then, he stood until he came to such of the back portion of the Ka'bah as he was facing, upon which he placed his face and cheek. Then, he praised Allah and lauded Him, begged Him and asked for His Forgiveness. Then, he turned to every corner of the Ka'bah, and faced it with magnification, bearing testimony of Allah's

[143] What Should Such As Assumes Ihram For Both Hajj And Umrah Jointly, And Has No Sacrificial Animal With Him Do?

2928- It is narrated on the authority of Anas that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" set out and we set out with him; and when he reached Dhul-Hulaifah, he offered Zhuhr prayer and then rode his mount, and when it stood right with him on Baida', he assumed Ihram for both Hajj and Umrah jointly, and so did we with him. When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" arrived in Mecca, and we offered circumambulation, he ordered such of people (as had no sacrificial animals with them) to put off Ihram. The people were scared, thereupon The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to them: "Had I not had the sacrificial animals with me, surely, I would have put off Ihram." In this way the people put off Ihram, and (did everything that was unlawful for them to the extent that) they approached their women. But, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not put off Ihram, nor did he (get his head shaved nor did he) cut short his hair except on the day of Sacrifice.

He proceeded on for a while and when he felt afraid he might be kept off the House he said: "If I'm detained from it, I would do the same as The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did." He added: "By Allah! The way of Hajj is but similar to that of Umrah. Be witness that I made Hajj binding upon me along with Umrah." Then, he proceeded on until he reached (the place of) Qudaid, from which he bought a sacrificial animal. (When he reached Mecca) he offered (a seven-round) circumambulation round the House and between Safa and Marwah for both Ibn Umar said: "Say (your statement) "Tell me what to do) in Yemen (since it is of no significance for touching the Stone is out of the sunnah, which one should seek to do without harming anyone): No doubt, I saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having touched and kissed it."

[163] What Is Said After The Two-Rak'ah Prayer Of Circumambulation

2958- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" circumambulated the House seven times, three of which as running and four as walking. Then he went to stand behind the Station of Abraham, and offered a two-rak'ah prayer, after which he recited: "And take of the Station of Abraham as a place of prayer." He raised his voice with it, in order to make the people hear him. Then, he turned away and came back to the corner (of the Black Stone) and touched it. He went and said: "Let's start with what Allah (ordered me to) start." He started with Safa. He ascended Safa till he saw the House, and said thrice: "There is no god but Allah, The One and Only, with Whom there is no partner. To Him be the Dominion, and to Him be the praise: It is He Who gives life, and it is He Who causes (such as He wills) to die; and He has Power over everything." He magnified and praised Allah, and invoked Him, with what he was doomed to invoke. He then descended and walked (at a normal pace towards Marwah). When his feet came down in the bottom of the valley, he walked fast. When his feet started to ascend he walked normally till he reached Marwah, where he ascended until the House seemed to him, thereupon he said: "There is no god but Allah, The One and Only, with Whom there is no partner. To Him be the Dominion, and to Him be the praise: and He has Power over everything." He said that thrice, then celebrated (the Praises of) Allah, glorified and praised Him, and invoked Him, with what Allah willed him to invoke. He did so (in every round) until he finished from compassing.

2959- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" circumambulated (the House) seven times, three of which as running and four as walking. Then he went to the Station of Abraham, and recited: "And take of the Station of Abraham as a place of prayer." He offered a two-rak'ah prayer, making the Station between him and the Ka'bah. He then returned to the corner (of the Black Stone) and touched it. He went out (of the gate to Safa) and recited: "Safa and Marwah are from amongst the signs appointed by Allah." (He said): "You should start with what Allah (ordered you to) start."

(Al-Baqarah 158) then, I commented: "This means, there is no harm on me if I do not compass them round." On that she said: "What a bad statement is that which you've said! There were some people, belonging to the pre-Islamic period of ignorance, used not to compass them round, and when Islam came, and the Holy Qur'an descended (with the negation of any sin in compassing them round, as those falsely thought): "Behold! 2965- It is narrated on the authority of Urwah Ibn Az-Zubair that he said: I asked A'ishah about Allah's statement: "if those who visit the House in the Season (of pilgrimage the greater "Hajj") or at other times (for Umrah) should compass them round, it is no sin in them": "by Allah, there is no harm upon anyone not to compass Safa and Marwah round." A'ishah said: "O, my nephew! What a bad interpretation it is! Had this interpretation of yours been correct, the statement of Allah should have been: there is no harm for him if he does not compass them round. But in fact, this divine inspiration was revealed concerning the Ansar. Before they embraced Islam, they used to assume Ihram for (an idol called) "Manat" which they used to worship at a place called Al-Mushallal, and whoever assumed Ihram (for the idol), would consider it sinful to compass Safa and Marwah round. When they embraced Islam, they asked Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" regarding it, thereupon Allah revealed: "Behold! Safa and Marwah are among Allah's symbols: So if those who visit the House in the Season or at other times, should compass them round, it is no sin in them." A'ishah added: "So, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" made it out of the right way to compass them round. Thus, none should be allowed to leave compassing them round."

2966- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir that he said: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", when he set out of the mosque, aiming at Safa, having said: "Let's start with the same with which Allah Almighty (ordered us to) start."

2967- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" set out (of the mosque), to Safa (mountain), and said: "Let's start with the same with which Allah Almighty (ordered us to) start." Then, he recited Allah's saying: "Behold! Safa and Marwah are among Allah's symbols: So if those who visit the House in the Season or at other times, should compass them round, it is no sin in them." (Al-Baqarah 158)

To Him be the Dominion, and to Him be the praise: and He has Power over everything." He used to do so thrice, and then invoke (Allah Almighty); and he used to do the same on the Marwah (mountain).

[171] Affirming Allah's Oneness On Safa (Mountain)

He raised his voice with it, in order to make the people hear him. Then, he turned away and came back to the corner (of the Black Stone) and touched it. He went and said: "Let's start with what Allah (ordered me to) start." He started with Safa. He ascended Safa till he saw the House, and said thrice: "There is no god but Allah, The One and Only, with Whom there is no partner. To Him be the Dominion, and to Him be the praise: It is He Who gives life, and it is He Who causes (such as He wills) to die; and He has Power over everything." He magnified and praised Allah, and invoked Him, with what he was doomed to invoke. He then descended and walked (at a normal pace towards Marwah). When his feet came down in the bottom of the valley, he walked fast. When his feet started to ascend he walked normally till he reached Marwah, where he ascended until the House seemed to him, thereupon he said: "There is no god but Allah, The One and Only, with Whom there is no partner. To Him be the Dominion, and to Him be the praise: and He has Power over everything." He said that thrice, then celebrated (the Praises of) Allah, glorified and praised Him, and invoked

2981- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" reached Marwah, where he ascended until the House seemed to him, thereupon he said: "There is no god but Allah, The One and Only, with Whom there is no partner. To Him be the Dominion, and to Him be the praise: and He has Power over everything." He said that thrice, then celebrated (the Praises of) Allah, glorified and praised Him, and invoked Him with what Allah willed him to invoke. He did so (in every round) until he finished from compassing.

[181] Magnifying Allah On It

2982- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ascended Safa (mountain) until the House seemed to him, and then he affirmed the Oneness of Allah Almighty (by saying: "There is no god but Allah"), and magnified Allah, and said: "There is no god but Allah, The One and Only, with Whom there is no partner. To Him be the Dominion, and to Him be the praise: and He has Power over everything." Then, he walked at a normal pace until when his feet slopped (to the bottom of the valley) he ran at a galloping pace, until his feet ascended, he walked once again with a normal pace until he

When we approached Mecca, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever has no sacrificial animal with him should put off Ihram, and whoever has sacrificial animal with him should keep on his state of Ihram." She said: Az-Zubair had sacrificial animal with him, so he kept on his state of Ihram; and Since I had no sacrificial animal with me, I put off Ihram. She (Asma) further said: I put on my clothes and then went out and sat beside Az-Zubair who said: "Go away from me!" I said: "Are you afraid that I would jump upon you?"

[187] The Sermon Before The Day Of Tarwiyah

2990- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir that when The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" returned from the Umrah of Ji'ranah, he sent Abu Bakr as the chief of Hajj. Jabir said: We set out with him until when he was at Arj, he led the Morning prayer, and when he stood right to magnify (Allah Almighty), he heard the voice of growling from behind his back, which stopped him from magnification, and he said: "This is the growling of the she-camel of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", i.e. Al-Jad'a'. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" seemed to have liked to perform Hajj; and perchance, he would be The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", so that we would offer prayer with him." Behold! It was Ali riding it! Abu Bakr said to him: "Have you been sent as a chief or as a messenger?" he said: "No, but as a messenger: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent me with the Surah of Bara'ah, in order to recite it to the gatherings of people in the standing places of Hajj." We reached Mecca, and when it was a day before that of Tarwiyah, Abu Bakr "Allah be pleased with him" stood, and addressed the people, and instructed them in their ceremonies; and when he finished, Ali "Allah be pleased with him" stood and recited to the people the Surah of Bara'ah until he concluded

[188] When Does Such As Intends To Continue Umrah On To Hajj Assume Ihram For Hajj?

2991- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir that he said: We reached Mecca with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when just four (nights) elapsed out of Dhul-Hijjah, thereupon The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Put off Ihram, and make it only Umrah." We were disturbed by that, and we felt it, and when the news of that reached The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" he said: "O people! Put off Ihram: had it not been for the sacrificial animals which I have, surely, I would have done the same as you are going to do." We put off Ihram (and did everything) to the extent that we had sexual relations with our wives, and did everything a non-Muhrim did, until when it was the day of Tarwiyah, and we turned our backs to Mecca, we assumed Ihram for Hajj.

[189] Pertaining To Mina

2992- It is narrated on the authority of Muhammad Ibn Imran Al-Ansari from his father that he said: Abdullah Ibn Umar inclined towards me, while I was halting under a huge tree on the way of Mecca, and asked me: "What has led you to descend under that huge tree?" I said: "In order to (protect myself against the heat of the sun with) its shade." He said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When you are between both mounts of Mina (and he beckoned with his hand towards the East) there is a valley called Surrab or Surar (umbilicus), in which there is a huge tree, underneath which the umbilical cord of seventy Prophets had been cut off (i.e. they had been born there)."

3067- It is narrated on the authority of Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Yazid that he said: It was said to Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud : "Some people throw the Jamrah from over Aqabah." Abdullah threw (the pebbles) from the bottom of the valley and then he said: "It is from here, by Him, other than Whom there is no god, that the one (the Messenger of Allah) upon whom the Surah of Al-Baqarah was revealed, threw (the Jamrah)."

3068- It is narrated on the authority of Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Yazid that he said: Abdullah threw the Jamrah with seven pebbles: he made the House on his left, and (the mount of) Arafah on his right and said: "Here is the place where the one upon whom the Surah of Al-Baqarah was revealed stood (to throw the Jamrah)."

3069- It is narrated on the authority of Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Yazid that he said: I saw Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud having thrown (the pebbles of) the Jamrah of Aqabah from the bottom of the valley and then he said: "Here is the place, by Him, other than Whom there is no god, where the one upon whom the Surah of Al-Baqarah was revealed, stood (and threw the Jamrah)."

3070- It is narrated on the authority of Al-A'mash that he said: I heard Al-Hajjaj Ibn Yusuf saying: "Do not say 'the Surah of Al-Baqarah', but you'd rather say: 'the Surah in which the Heifer is mentioned.'" I (the narrator) met Ibrahim and told him of what he (Al-Hajjaj Ibn Yusuf) had said. He said: "Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Yazid narrated to me that he was with Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud when he threw the Jamrah of Aqabah: he entered into the heart of the valley and faced it (the Jamrah, making Mecca on his left side, and Mina on his right side). Then, he stoned it from the heart of the valley, with seven pebbles, and he magnified Allah with every pebble. I (Abd Ar-Rahman) said to him: "They stone it (Jamrah) from the upper side (of the valley)." upon this he said: "By Him, other than Whom there is no god, this is the place

He then would go ahead and stand facing the Qiblah for a long time to invoke (Allah) while raising his hands. Then he would come to stone the middle Jamrah with seven small pebbles and magnify Allah after throwing every pebble. Then he would go to the left, towards the valley, and stand facing the Qiblah. He would remain standing there to invoke (Allah) while raising his hands. Then he would come to stone the great Jamrah of Aqabah with seven small pebbles even though he would not remain at it, and then he would leave. ## (25) THE BOOK OF JIHAD

[1] The Obligation Of Jihad

3082- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was driven out from Mecca Abu Bakr said: "Those (infidels) have driven out their Prophet: we all are to Allah, to Whom we refer. They will be destroyed." In connection with that, the following was revealed: " To those against whom war is made, permission is given (to fight), because they are wronged; and verily, Allah is Most Powerful for their aid." (Al-Hajj 39) I came to know that there would be fighting. Ibn Abbas added: This was the first to be revealed as regards fighting.

3083- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Awf and some of his companions came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in Mecca and said: "O Messenger of Allah! When we were pagans, we were living in power and honour, and when we embraced Islam, we have been put to humiliation (because we were given no permission to fight our enemies)." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I've been commanded (by Allah) to adhere to forgiveness. So, do not fight." When we were turned by Allah to Medina, He Almighty ordered us to fight (such as would fight us), thereupon they held back (their hands from fight). On that Allah Almighty revealed: "Has you not turned your vision to those who were told to hold back their hands (from fight) but establish regular prayers and spend in regular Charity? When (at length) the order for fighting was issued to them, behold! a section of them feared men as - or even more than - they should have feared Allah." (An-Nisa 77)

3084- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I've been given the (power to say the) shortest expressions which bear the widest meanings; and I've been helped emerge victorious by terror (cast in the hearts of my enemies); and while I was sleeping, I was given the keys of the treasures of the land, and they were placed in my hand." Abu Hurairah commented: Indeed, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went away (by death), and you now are harvesting them.

3085- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said the same.

3086- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: I heard The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” having said: "I've been given the (power to say the) shortest expressions which bear the widest meanings; and I've been helped emerge victorious by terror (cast in the hearts of my enemies); and while I was sleeping, I was given the keys of the treasures of the land, and they were placed in my hand." Abu Hurairah commented: Indeed, The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” went away (by death), and you now are harvesting them.

3087- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said: "I've been commanded (by Allah Almighty) to fight the people until they say that "there is no god (to be worshipped) but Allah": whoever says "There is no god (to be worshipped) but Allah" has protected his own property and soul from me except legally, and his reckoning is incumbent upon Allah."

3088- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: When The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” died and Abu Bakr became the caliph some Arabs renegaded (reverted to disbelief, and Abu Bakr decided to declare war against them), Umar said: "O Abu Bakr! How can you fight with these people although The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said: 'I have been ordered (by Allah) to fight the people till they say: “There is no god (to be worshipped) but Allah”, and whoever says it has indeed saved his life and property from me except on trespassing the law (rights and conditions for which he will be punished justly), and his account will be with Allah'?" Abu Bakr said: “By Allah! I will fight those who differentiate between prayer and obligatory charity. By Allah! If they refuse to pay me even a she-kid which they used to pay at the time of The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him”, I would fight with them for withholding it." Umar said: “By Allah, it was nothing but I saw that Allah opened Abu Bakr's chest towards the decision to fight that I came to know that his decision was right.”

3094- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who dies without taking part in Jihad, nor having the intention to take part in Jihad has died while being on a branch of hypocrisy."

[3] The Concession To Remain Behind A Military Expedition

3095- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "By Him in Whose Hand is my soul! Had it not been for the fact that many believing men would not be pleased to remain behind me, and I have no means of transportation to carry them, I would not have remained behind any military expedition fighting in the Cause of Allah Almighty. By Him, in Whose Hand is my soul! I like to be killed in the Cause of Allah Almighty and then be given life, then be killed and then be given life, then be killed and then be given life, and then be killed (because of the great reward and the high position a martyr in Allah's Cause will receive)."

[4] The Superiority Of Such As Take Part In Jihad To Such As Remain Behind

3096- It is narrated on the authority of Sahl Ibn Sa'd: Once I found Marwan sitting, I came and sat with him. He told us that Zaid Ibn Thabit reported that the following was Divinely revealed upon Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "Not equal are those Believers who sit (at home), and those who strive and fight in the Cause of Allah with their property and themselves." Zaid said: Ibn Umm Maktum came to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" while he was dictating to me that very Verse. On that Ibn Umm Maktum said: "O Allah's Apostle! Had I had power, surely I would have taken part in Jihad." So Allah sent down the following (upon His Apostle ) while his thigh was on mine and it became so heavy upon me that I feared my thigh would be displaced, and then that state of him was over: "...but not those having (disabling) hurt."

قَالَ: «أَمَرْتُ أَنْ أَقَاتِلَ النَّاسَ حَتَّى يَقُولُوا لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ فَمَنْ قَالَهَا فَقَدْ عَصَمَ مِنِّي نَفْسَهُ وَمَالَهُ إِلَّا بِحَقِّهِ وَحِسَابُهُ عَلَى اللَّهِ».

3097- It is narrated on the authority of Sahl Ibn Sa'd: Once I found Marwan sitting in the mosque. I came closer to him until I sat by his side. He told us that Zaid Ibn Thabit reported that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had dictated to him the Divine Verse: "Not equal are those Believers who sit (at home), and those who strive and fight in the Cause of Allah with their property and themselves." Zaid said: Ibn Umm Maktum came to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" while he was dictating to me that very Verse. On that Ibn Umm Maktum said: "O Allah's Apostle! Had I had power, surely I would have taken part in Jihad." He was a blind man. So Allah sent down revelation to His Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" while his thigh was on mine and it became so heavy upon me that I feared my thigh would be displaced. Then that state of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was over after Allah revealed: "...but not those having (disabling) hurt."

3098- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Bara' that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Bring me ink-pot and a shoulder-blade." He dictated: "Not equal are those Believers who sit (at home), and those who strive and fight in the Cause of Allah with their property and themselves." Amr Ibn Umm Maktum was standing behind him (and he was a blind man). He said: "Is there any concession for me (not to take part in Jihad since I'm blind)?" on that it was revealed: "...but not those having (disabling) hurt."

3099- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Bara' that he said: When the following was revealed: "Not equal are those Believers who sit (at home), and those who strive and fight in the Cause of Allah with their property and themselves" Abdullah Ibn Umm Maktum, and he was a blind man, came and said: "O Messenger of Allah! What about me since I'm a blind man?" He did not leave before it was revealed: "...but not those having (disabling) hurt."

3100- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Amr that he said: A man came to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to seek his permission to take part in Jihad. ### [19] The Reward Of Such As Embraces Islam, Migrates And Practices Jihad (In The Cause Of Allah Almighty)

3130- It is narrated on the authority of Fadalah Ibn Ubaid that he said: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "I guarantee a house in the surroundings of the Garden and another house in the middle portion of the Garden to such as has trust in me, embraces Islam, and migrates (in Allah's Cause); and I guarantee a house in the surroundings of the Garden, another house in the middle portion of the Garden, and a third house in the highest mansions of the Garden to such as has trust in me, embraces Islam, and practices Jihad in the Cause of Allah: whoever does so, never leaves a way to good (but that he will follow it), as well as he never leaves a way to flee from evil (but that he will follow it)."

He sat in wait for him on the way of migration, and said to him: "Should you forsake your homeland and sky? Indeed the example of an emigrant is like the example of a horse that is tied in a rope." But he disobeyed him and migrated (in Allah's Cause). He sat in wait for him on the way of Jihad and said: "Should you strive with your own soul and property, and fight, and then you would be killed, with the result that your wife would be married (by others than you), and your property would be distributed?" he disobeyed him, and practiced

That (gate) is better (for you, so come and enter through it)." So, whoever was amongst the people who used to offer their prayers, would be called from the gate of the prayer; whoever was amongst the people who used to participate in Jihad, would be called from the gate of Jihad; whoever was amongst those who used to give in charity, would be called from the gate of charity; and whoever was amongst those who used to observe fasts, would be called from the gate of Ar-Rayyan." Abu Bakr As-Siddiq said: "O Messenger of Allah! No distress or need will befall him who will be called from (anyone of) those gates. Will there be any one who will be called from all these gates?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" replied: "Yes, and I hope you will be one of them."

One fights that he may be remembered, another fights for the spoils of war; and a man fights that he may see his (high) position (achieved as a result of his valor in fighting). Which of these is fighting in the cause of Allah?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Such as fights in order that the word of Allah should be superior is a fighter in the way of Allah Almighty."

He repeated the same question thrice, and every time The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There will be no reward for him." The pagans caught them, and the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" turned and said: "Who should avert the people (from us)?" Talhah Ibn Ubaidullah said: "It is I O Messenger of Allah!" the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Be firm in your place where you are!" a man from amongst the Ansar said: "Then, it is I O Messenger of Allah!" he said: "It is you." He fought in the same way (of strength and fierceness) as the previous one until he was killed. He kept saying so and every time one from amongst the Ansar came out and fought in the same way (of strength and fierceness) as the one prior to him had done until (all of them were killed and) there remained only the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and Talhah Ibn Ubaidullah. the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Who should avert the people (from us)?" ### [29] When One Fights In The Cause Of Allah, And His Sword Returns To Him And Kills Him

3147- It is narrated on the authority of Salamah Ibn Al-Akwa' that he said: When it was the day of Khaibar my brother (Amir) fought so much fiercely and steadfastly beside the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and his sword returned to him and killed him. Some of the companions of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" argued about him with doubt (in his faith): "A man was killed with his weapon." Salamah said: Then, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" returned from Khaibar, and on the way, I said to him: "O Messenger of Allah! Would you give me permission to recite some poetic verses to you?" the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave him permission, and Umar Ibn Al-Khattab said: "Be careful of what you are going to say!" I said: "By Allah, had it not been for Allah, we neither would have been guided, nor would we have given in charity, nor would we have prayed." the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You have told the truth." (I resumed) "So (O Allah), please send calmness upon us, and make our feet firm if we meet the enemy, as the pagans rebelled against us." When I finished my poetic verses the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked me: "Who has composed that?" I said: "My brother." the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Might Allah bestow mercy upon him." I said: "O Messenger of Allah! Some men are afraid of offering funeral prayer on him, saying: "He was killed with his weapon (i.e. he has committed suicide)." On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He died as patiently persevering fighter (in the Cause of Allah)." Ibn Shihab said: I asked a son belonging to Salamah Ibn Al-Akwa', who related to me a narration like this, with variation of wording, according to which the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "They have told a lie. He died as constantly persistent fighter (in the Cause of Allah), and he will receive a double reward." He beckoned with both his fingers.

I like to fight in the Way of Allah and then be killed; and then (be brought to life to) fight (in the Way of Allah once again) and be killed; and then (be brought to life to) fight and be killed (on account of the superiority of the martyrdom in Allah's Cause)."

3149- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "By Him in Whose Hand is my soul! Had it not been for the fact that many believing men would not be pleased to remain behind me, and I have no means of transportation to carry them, I would not have remained behind any military expedition fighting in the Cause of Allah Almighty. By Him, in Whose Hand is my soul! I like to be killed in the Cause of Allah Almighty and then be given life, then be killed and then be given life, then be killed and then be given life, and then be killed (in the Cause of Allah)."

3150- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abu Amirah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There is no Muslim soul among the people, whose Lord takes (onto Him by death) and it likes to return to you even though it will have the world and all of what it contains, barring the martyr (in order to be killed once again in Allah's Cause)." Ibn Abu Amirah said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" further said: "To be killed in the Cause of Allah Almighty is much dearer to me than to have (as much in my possession) those of desert and cities."

He said: "Some of my followers (in a dream) were presented before me as fighters in Allah's Cause (on board a ship) amidst this sea. They seemed to be kings on the thrones (or they were like kings on the thrones)." (He is in doubt as to which expression was used). Umm Haram said: "O Allah's Apostle! 3189- It is narrated on the authority of Anas that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Strive to the utmost of your power with your hands, tongues and property."

3190- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that he ordered that the female-snakes be killed and said: "He, who fears their vengeance does not belong to us."

3191- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Abdullah Ibn Jabr from his father that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to pay a visit to Jabr to enquire about his health, and when he entered he heard the women weeping and crying: "We have thought you would die because of being killed (as a martyr) in the Cause of Allah Almighty." On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "What do you regard martyrdom in your sight? Do you think it is only to be killed in Allah's Cause? If this is true, then, your martyrs will be very few! No doubt, to be killed in the Cause of Allah Almighty is martyrdom; to die because of severe abdominal disease is (a kind of) martyrdom; to die because of burning is (a kind of) martyrdom; to die because of drowning is (a kind of) martyrdom; to die because of falling under ruins is (a kind of) martyrdom; to die because of madness is (a kind of) martyrdom; and a woman who dies with what is in her womb (i.e. the pregnant) is a martyr." A man said: "Are you weeping even though the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" is sitting?" the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Let them, and when it (death) becomes certain, let none weep!"

3192- It is narrated on the authority of Jabr that he entered upon a would-be dead in the company of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and the women were weeping. Jabr said: "Are you weeping even though the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" is sitting?" the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Let them weep as long as he is still (living) among them; and if it (death) becomes certain, then, let none weep at all."

(26) THE BOOK OF MARRIAGE

[1] The Prophet's Wives, And What Was Made Lawful For Him

3193- It is narrated on the authority of Ata' that he said: We attended with Ibn Abbas the funeral procession of Maimunah, the wife of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" at Sarif, thereupon Ibn Abbas said: "This is (the dead body of) Maimunah: when you raise her body, do not tremble nor shake it. Indeed, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had nine wives, and he used to visit eight of them by turns, (i.e. to fix a day-and-a-night turn to everyone of them), and he fixed no day-and-night turn to the remaining one.

3194- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" died while having nine wives, and he used to (go round them and) have sexual relations with them barring Sawdah (Bint Zam'ah), who granted her day (and night turn) to A'ishah.

3195- It is narrated on the authority of Anas that (so many times) the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went round his wives (and had sexual relations with them all) on one night; and at that time, he had nine wives.

3196- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: I used to criticize (and look down upon) those ladies who granted themselves to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and say: "Should a lady grant herself (to a man)?" But even, Allah Almighty revealed: " You may defer (the turn of) any of them that you please, and you may receive any that you please: and there is no blame on you if you invite one whose (turn) you had set aside." (Al-Ahzab 51) on that I said: "I do not think but that your Lord hastens on to fulfill your desires."

3197- It is narrated on the authority of Sahl Ibn Sa'd that he said: While I was sitting among the people a lady said: "I've granted myself to you O Messenger of Allah! Make your decision pertaining to me." A man stood and said: "Give her to me in marriage." He said to him: "Go and seek (a dower of) even an iron ring." He went and found nothing, not even an iron ring. On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked him: "Do you have (and keep by heart) any Surahs from the Holy Qur'an?" he answered in the affirmative, thereupon he gave her to him in marriage for such Surahs from the Holy Qur'an as he had (and kept by heart).

3197 - أَخْبَرَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ يَزِيدَ الْمُقْرِيءُ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا سُفْيَانُ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو حَازِمٍ عَنْ سَهْلِ بْنِ سَعْدٍ قَالَ: أَنَا فِي الْقَوْمِ إِذْ قَالَتْ أَمْرَأَةٌ: إِنِّي قَدْ وَهَبْتُ نَفْسِي لَكَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ فَرَأَيْتُ رَأْيَكَ فَقَامَ رَجُلٌ فَقَالَ: زَوَّجْنِيهَا فَقَالَ: «أَذْهَبَ فَاظْلُبْ وَلَوْ خَاتِمًا مِنْ حَدِيدٍ» فَذَهَبَ فَلَمْ يَجِدْ شَيْئًا وَلَا خَاتِمًا مِنْ حَدِيدٍ فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «أَمَعَكَ مِنْ سُورِ الْقُرْآنِ شَيْءٌ؟» قَالَ: نَعَمْ قَالَ: فَزَوَّجْهُ بِمَا مَعَهُ مِنْ سُورِ الْقُرْآنِ.

[2] What Was Made Lawful By Allah For His Messenger, Even Though Unlawful For His Creatures

3198- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah, the wife of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that she said: When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was ordered by Allah to give his wives the freedom of choice (either to remain with him or to depart from him), The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" started with me, saying: "I am going to tell you something to which you should give no hasty reply before consulting your parents", though he knows that my parents were not to order me to depart from him. A'ishah added: He (The Prophet) said: "Allah said: "O Prophet! Say to your Consorts: 'If it be that you desire the life of this world, and its glitter, then come I will provide for your enjoyment and set free in a handsome manner. But if you seek Allah and His Messenger, and the Home of the Hereafter, verily Allah has prepared for the well-doers amongst you a great reward.'"" (Al-Ahzab 28:29) I said: "What is that on which I should take my parents' opinion? Of course I want Allah, His Messenger, and the hereafter."

3199- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave his wives the freedom of choice (whether to remain with or depart from him); and this was not considered as divorce (since it was based upon the wife's choice to remain or leave).

3200- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave us (his wives) the freedom of choice (to remain with or depart from him); and of a surety, we chose (to remain with) him; and in this way, it was not a divorce.

3201- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not die before (marrying more) women was made lawful for him. (She refers here to Allah's statement: " O Prophet! We have made lawful to you your wives to whom you have paid their dowers" (Al-Ahzab 50) which abrogated His statement: " It is not lawful for you (to marry more) women after this, nor to change them for (other) wives, even though their beauty attract you, except any that your right hand should possess (as hand-maidens): and Allah does watch over all things." (52))

3202- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not die before Allah made lawful for him to marry such of women as he willed.

[3] The Exhortation To Marry

3203- It is narrated on the authority of Alqamah that he said: I was with Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud when he was in Uthman's house, thereupon Uthman said: Once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came out to some young men and said to them: "whoever among you has got the therewithal, let him marry, for marriage makes one more fitting to refrain his sight (from looking at such of women as unlawful for him) and safeguard his private parts (from committing what is shameful); and whoever has not got the therewithal, let him observe fasts, for fasting diminishes his sexual power."

3204- It is narrated on the authority of Alqamah that Uthman said to Ibn Mas'ud: "Shall we marry you to a virgin (who will get you remember your past days)?" (When Abdullah saw that there was no need for sitting with him alone) Abdullah invited Alqamah (to sit with them) and reported that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever can afford to marry, let him marry, because it helps him refrain his sight from looking (at such of women as unlawful for him), and guard his private parts from committing adultery, and whoever cannot afford to marry, let him observe fasts, because fasting diminishes his sexual power."

3205- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah that he said: the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to us: "Whoever among you can afford to marry, let him marry, because it helps him refrain his sight from looking (at such of women as unlawful for him), and guard his private parts from committing adultery, and whoever cannot afford to marry, let him observe fasts, because fasting diminishes his sexual power."

3206- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah that he said: the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to us: "O community of young men! Whoever among you can afford to marry, let him marry, because it helps him refrain his sight from looking (at such of women as unlawful for him), and guard his private parts from committing adultery, and whoever cannot afford to marry, let him fast, because fasting diminishes his sexual power."

3207- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah that he said: the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to us: "O community of young men! ### [8] A Freed Slave Could Marry An Arab Lady

(This means that the equivalence required for marriage is based upon the equality in religion, and not social status as some might like to do).

3219- It is narrated on the authority of Ubaidullah Ibn Abdullah Ibn Utbah that during the caliphate of Uthman, Abdullah Ibn Amr Ibn Uthman divorced irrevocably while he was still a young man the daughter of Sa'id Ibn Zaid, whose mother was the daughter of Qais. Her aunt, Fatimah Bint Qais sent to her with the command to leave the house of Abdullah Ibn Amr, and when Marwan heard of that, and ordered her to return to her house, and asked her what had led her to leave her house, before she spent the period of her Iddat in the house (and wait in the house) until her Iddat finished, she sent to him with the message that it was her maternal aunt who ordered her to do so. Fatimah Bint Qais pretended that she was the wife of Abu Amr Ibn Hafs. When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" appointed Ali Ibn Abu Talib as the governor of Yemen, this (Abu Amr) set out with him, and sent to her (Fatimah) with the remaining and final divorce, and he further ordered both Al-Harith Ibn Hisham and Ayyash Ibn Abu Rabie'ah to maintain spending for her. She sent to both Al-Harith and Ayyash, asking them to give her what her husband had ordered them to give her, thereupon they said: "By Allah, no spending for her is due upon us, unless she is pregnant, and she has no right to remain in our house unless it is with our permission." She pretended that she went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and made a mention of that to him, and he confirmed their statement. Fatimah said to him: "Then, where should I go O Messenger of Allah?" he said: "Go to (the house of) Ibn Umm Maktum, the blind, as Allah Almighty had named him in His Book." Fatimah added: so, I spent the period of my Iddat in his house, and he was a man who lost his sight, and thus I was able to put off my (outer) garment. (She remained so) until The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave her in marriage to Usamah Ibn Zaid. However, Marwan rejected that verdict which she gave (to her niece), and he said in that respect: "I did not hear that narration from anyone before you, and then I shall adopt, in this case, the way which we've found the people following."

3220 - أَخْبَرَنَا عِمْرَانُ بْنُ بَكَّارٍ بْنُ رَاشِدٍ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو الْيَمَانِ قَالَ: أَنْبَأَنَا شُعَيْبٌ عَنِ الزُّهْرِيِّ قَالَ: أَخْبَرَنِي عُروَةُ بْنُ الزُّبَيْرِ عَنْ عَائِشَةَ: أَنَّ أَبَا حُذَيْفَةَ بْنَ عُتْبَةَ بْنَ رَبِيعَةَ بْنَ عَبْدِ شَمْسٍ وَكَانَ مِمَّنْ شَهِدَ بَدْرًا مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ peace be upon him", adopted Salim, and gave him in marriage his niece Hind Bint Al-Walid Ibn Utbah Ibn Rabie'ah Ibn Abd Shams, and this (Salim) was a freed slave belonging to a woman from the Ansar. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" likewise adopted Zaid Ibn Harithah. It was the habit during the pre-Islamic period of ignorance that if somebody adopted anyone, the people would call the adopted one his son. This case remained until Allah Almighty revealed: " Call them by (the names of) their fathers: that is juster in the sight of Allah. But if you know not their father's (names, call them) your Brothers in Faith, or your Mawlas." (Al-Ahzab 5) in this way, if there was one whose father was known, he would be called a Mawla or a brother in faith.

3221- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah, the wife of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and Umm Salamah, the wife of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", that Abu Hudhaifah Ibn Utbah Ibn Rabie'ah Ibn Abd Shams, and he was one of those who attended (the holy battle of) Badr with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", adopted Salim, who was a freed slave belonging to a woman from the Ansar. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" likewise adopted Zaid Ibn Harithah. Abu Hudhaifah Ibn Utbah gave in marriage his niece Hind Bint Al-Walid Ibn Utbah Ibn Rabie'ah Ibn Abd Shams to Salim; and this Hind Bint Al-Walid Ibn Utbah Ibn Rabie'ah was from amongst the early female-Emigrants, and at that time, she was of the best ladies of Quraish. When Allah Almighty revealed the following in His Book in connection with Zaid Ibn Harithah: " Call them by (the names of) their fathers: that is juster in the sight of Allah; but if you know not their father's (names, call them) your Brothers in Faith, or your Mawlas" every adopted one was then re-ascribed to his real father, and in case one's father was unknown, he was re-ascribed to his protectors.

[9] The Social Status

3222- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Buraidah from his father that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It is wealth (and nothing else) that after which those of the good social status in this world seek."

[10] For Which Should A Woman Be Married?

3223- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir that he married a woman during the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

3222 - أَخْبَرَنَا يَعْقُوبُ بْنُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو نُعَيْمَةَ عَنْ حُسَيْنِ بْنِ

وَاقِدٍ عَنْ ابْنِ بُرَيْدَةَ عَنْ أَبِيهِ قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «إِنَّ أَحْسَابَ أَهْلِ الدُّنْيَا الَّذِي يَذْهَبُونَ إِلَيْهِ الْمَالُ».

(10) - عَلَى مَا تُنْكَحُ الْمَرْأَةُ

3223 - أَخْبَرَنَا إِسْمَاعِيلُ بْنُ مَسْعُودٍ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا خَالِدٌ عَنْ عَبْدِ الْمَلِكِ عَنْ

عَطَاءٍ عَنْ جَابِرٍ: أَنَّهُ تَزَوَّجَ امْرَأَةً عَلَى عَهْدِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ فَلَقِيَهُ النَّبِيُّ ﷺ فَقَالَ:

upon him” met him and said: "Have you got married O Jabir?" he said: I answered in the affirmative. He further asked: "A virgin or a matron (previously married woman)?" he said: I said: "A matron." He asked: "Why have you not got married to a virgin, so that she would play with you (as well as you with her)?" he said: I said: "O messenger of Allah! I have many sisters, and I was afraid she would interfere between them and me (and give rise to enmity and resentment between us)." The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said: "Then this (which you've done) is right. No doubt, a woman might be married for (one of the following): her religion, property, or beauty; but I advise you to give preference to such as of religion, might you be blessed (if you do so, or might your hand be covered with dust if you do not do so)!"

[11] It Is Undesirable To Marry An Infertile

3224- It is narrated on the authority of Ma'qil Ibn Yasar that he said: A man went to The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” and said: "I've found a woman of good social status and high position among her people, even though she is infertile: should I get married to her?" he forbade him to do so. He went to him (and raised the same question) for the second time and he forbade him to do so. He went to him (and raised to him the same question) for the third time, and he forbade him and said: "Marry the fertile, full of Loving-Kindness among women, for indeed, I'm going to vie in glory over your great number (with the other nations)."

[12] What About Marrying Adulteress?

3225- It is narrated on the authority of Amr Ibn Shu'aib from his father from his grandfather that Marthad Ibn Abu Marthad Al-Ghanawi, and he was a strong hardy man, who used to carry the captives from Mecca to Medina, said: I invited a man to carry, and in Mecca, there was a prostitute called Anaq, -and she was his friend-woman (with whom he had sexual relations before Islam)-. She came out and saw me in the shade of the wall, and asked: "Who is this? Is it Marthad? O Marthad! Welcome! Come and spend the night with us in our dwelling place." I said: "O Anaq! The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” forbade adultery." On that she cried: "O inhabitants of tents! This is the hedgehog! This is the man who carries your war prisoners from Mecca to Medina!" I followed the way of Khandamah, and eight persons went in pursuit of me. They came until when they stood over my head, they urinated, and their urine fell over me, and in this way, Allah Almighty took away their sights from me, and I went to my companion and carried him. When I reached Arak with him, I loosened the fetter from him. Then, I went to The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing

(11) - كَرَاهِيَةُ تَزْوِيجِ الْعَقِيمِ

3224 - أَخْبَرَنَا عَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنُ خَالِدٍ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا يَزِيدُ بْنُ هَارُونَ قَالَ: أَنْبَأَنَا الْمُسْتَلِمُ بْنُ سَعِيدٍ عَنْ مَنْصُورِ بْنِ زَادَانَ عَنْ مُعَاوِيَةَ بْنِ قُرَّةَ عَنْ مَعْقِلِ بْنِ يَسَارٍ قَالَ: جَاءَ رَجُلٌ إِلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ فَقَالَ: إِنِّي أَصَبْتُ امْرَأَةً ذَاتَ حَسَبٍ وَمَنْصَبٍ إِلَّا أَنَّهَا لَا تَلِدُ أَفَأَتَزَوَّجُهَا؟ فَنَهَاهُ ثُمَّ أَتَاهُ الثَّانِيَةَ فَنَهَاهُ ثُمَّ أَتَاهُ الثَّالِثَةَ فَنَهَاهُ فَقَالَ: «تَزَوَّجُوا الْوُلُودَ الْوُدُودَ فَإِنِّي مُكَاثِرٌ بِكُمْ».

Should I marry Anaq?" he kept silent from me, thereupon the following was revealed: " Let no man guilty of adultery or fornication marry any but a woman similarly guilty, or an Unbeliever: nor let any but such a man or an Unbeliever marry such a woman: to the Believers such a thing is forbidden." (An-Nur 3) he invited me, and recited it to me, and then said: "Do not marry her."

3226- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: A man went to The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” and said: "I've got a woman (my wife) who is the dearest of people to me, even though she never prevents the hand of such as likes to touch her (from touching her)." He said to him: "Divorce her." He said: "I could not keep patient on leaving her." On that he said to him: "Then (keep her with the intention to) take your pleasure from her."

[13] It Is Undesirable To Marry Adulterers

3227- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said: "A woman might be married for four things: her property, her high social status, her beauty, and her religion: but, seek to get such of women as of religion, might you be blessed (if you do so, or might your hand be covered with dust if you do not do so)."

[14] Which Of Women Is The Best?

3228- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: It was said to The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him”: "Which of women is the best?" he said: "It is such as pleases him (her husband) once he looks at her, obeys him once he gives her a command, and does not oppose him in herself and her property with what he dislikes."

رَسُولُ اللَّهِ أَنْكِحْ عَنَاقَ فَسَكْتَ عَنِّي فَنَزَلَتْ ﴿وَالزَّانِيَةُ لَا يَنْكِحُهَا إِلَّا زَانٍ أَوْ مُشْرِكٌ﴾ [النور: 3] فَدَعَانِي فَقَرَأَهَا عَلَيَّ وَقَالَ: «لَا تَنْكِحُهَا».

قَالَ أَبُو عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ: هَذَا الْحَدِيثُ لَيْسَ بِثَابِتٍ وَعَبْدُ الْكَرِيمِ لَيْسَ بِالْقَوِيِّ وَهَارُونَ بْنُ رِثَابٍ أَثْبَتَ مِنْهُ وَقَدْ أُرْسِلَ الْحَدِيثُ. وَهَارُونَ ثِقَّةٌ وَحَدِيثُهُ أَوْلَى بِالصَّوَابِ مِنْ حَدِيثِ عَبْدِ الْكَرِيمِ.

If You know that this job is harmful to me In my religion and subsistence and in the Hereafter (or If it is worse for my present and later needs) Then keep it away from me and let me be away from it. Ordain for me whatever is good for me, and make me satisfied with it.' Then, let one make a mention of that matter."

She once again stood up and said: "O Messenger of Allah! She (referring to herself) has granted herself to you! Make your decision pertaining to her." A man stood and said: "Give her to me in marriage O Messenger of Allah." He asked him: "Do you have anything (to give her as dower)?" he answered in the negative. He said to him: "Go and seek (a dower of) even an iron ring." He went and sought that, but he found nothing. He returned and said: "I've found nothing, and not even a ring of iron." He asked him: "Do you have (and keep by heart) any Surahs from the Holy Qur'an?" he said: "Yes, I have (and keep by heart) such and such Surahs." On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I've given her to you in marriage for such Surahs from the Holy Qur'an as you have (and keep by heart)."

[53] The Suckling Of A Young Man

3316- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: Sahlah, daughter of Suhail came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah! I observe on the face of Abu Hudhaifah (my husband) some (traces of) disgust because of Salim's entering upon me." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Give suck to him." She said: "O Messenger of Allah! (How should I give suck to him and he is a young man and) has got a beard?" the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Give suck to him so that (he would be unlawful for you to marry and thus) the (signs of) disgust on the face of Abu Hudhaifah would vanish." Then, she (gave suck to him, and) said: "By Allah! Afterwards, I've no longer seen on the face of Abu Hudhaifah (any traces of) disgust."

3317- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: Sahlah, daughter of Suhail came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah! The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Give suck to him." She said: "O Messenger of Allah! How should I give suck to him and he is a young man?" the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do I not know that he is a young man? (Give suck to him)." Then, she (gave suck to him, and) came (to the Messenger of Allah) and said: "By Him, Who has sent you as a Prophet! Afterwards, I've no longer seen on the face of Abu Hudhaifah (any traces of) what I dislike."

3318- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered the wife of Abu Hudhaifah to give suck to Salim, the freed slave of Abu Hudhaifah, so that the jealousy of Abu Hudhaifah would be over. She gave suck to him, even though he was a young man. Rabie'ah said: This (judgement) was a concession given to Salim (in particular).

3319- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: Sahlah, daughter of Suhail came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Salim enters upon us, even though he has (grown up and come to) understand and know such things (of women) as men do." He said: "Give suck to him, so that you would be unlawful for him (to marry since you would be his foster mother)." He (Ibn Abu Mulaikah) said: I did not relate this narration to anyone for a

3320- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that Salim, the freed slave of Abu Hudhaifah lived with them in the same house. Sahlah, daughter of Suhail came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "Salim has grown up and attained the age of puberty like men, and come to understand such things (of women) as they do; and he is accustomed to enter upon us, and I think Abu Hudhaifah has some (traces of) disgust because of that." the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Give suck to him, so that you would be unlawful for him (to marry since you would be his foster mother)." (She said): I gave suck to him, and thus the (signs of) disgust, which Abu Hudhaifah had disappeared. I returned to him (the Prophet) and said: " I gave suck to him, and thus the (signs of) disgust which Abu Hudhaifah had disappeared."

3321- It is narrated on the authority of Urwah that he said: All the wives of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" refused to admit anyone depending only upon (the judgement of) this kind of suckling, i.e. the suckling of the young man, and they said to A'ishah: "By Allah! We do not see but that the act which the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered Sahlah Bint Suhail to do was just a concession given by the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to suckle Salim in particular. By Allah! None will (be allowed to) enter upon us or see us depending upon this kind of suckling."

3322- It is narrated on the authority of Umm Salamah, that she said: All the wives of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" refused that anyone should be admitted to them depending only upon (the judgement of) this kind of suckling, (i.e. the suckling of the young man), and they said to A'ishah: "By Allah! (The public of religious scholars and learnt men, their former and latter, in the earlier and the later times, unanimously agree on the fact that this is a uniquely special commandment, particular only to this case in issue, for the suckling which forbids what is forbidden by the blood relation should be given to a babe of no more than two years; and if the child became over two years, suckling becomes of no effect in that respect. . Qur'an. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" himself adopted Zaid Ibn Harithah before his Prophetic Mission, and called him Zaid Ibn Muhammad. Salim also was adopted by Abu Hudhaifah. But when it was revealed: "nor has He made your adopted sons your sons. Such is (only) your (manner of) speech by your mouths. But Allah tells (you) the Truth, and He shows the (right) Way: Call them by (the names of) their fathers: that is juster in the sight of Allah. But if you know not their father's (names, call them) your Brothers in Faith, or your Mawlas. But there is no blame on you if you make a mistake therein: (what counts is) the intention of your hearts: and Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful" (Al-Ahzab 4:5) this habit was abrogated. Before abrogating the adoption, Salim lived in the same residence of Abu Hudhaifah, and thus he used to come in and out of the house whenever he liked. According to adoption, it was lawful for him to enter upon Sahlah, as a son enters upon his mother. But when this was abrogated, it became unlawful for him to see her except in the way a strange one would see her. Abu Hudhaifah was disturbed by that, and he was not to accept that a strange one should see his wife; and this was why the traces of disgust were visible on his face. And, since it was much more difficult upon Salim to get an independent residence, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" commanded her to give suck to him in order to become unlawful for him to marry, even though lawful for him to see, as it is lawful for a foster-son to see his mother. But, how could she give suck to him and he is a young man? How could she show her breast to him, and he became strange to her, and it was unlawful for him to see anything from her? The solution is very simple: let her get milk from her breast into a cup, and give it to him. But, as well as the adoption has been abrogated, this commandment should, by no means, be put to practice under any circumstances.)

[54] Having sexual relation with one's suckling wife

3323- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that Judamah Bint Wahb told her that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I was about to forbid having sexual relation with one's suckling wife until I was informed that both the Persians and the Romans do it, and it causes no harm to their children."

[55] The coitus interruptus

3324- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that he said: A mention of this (coitus interruptus) was made to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" thereupon he asked: "What is the significance of that?" We said: "It is that a man might have a wife, with whom he has sexual relation, even though he dislikes to get her pregnant;

On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "What is doomed to be in the womb would inevitably be."

[56] The Right And Sanctity Of Suckling

3326-It is narrated on the authority of Hajjaj Ibn Hajjaj from his father that he said: I said: "O Messenger of Allah! Which thing could cancel out the right of suckling due upon me?" he said: "A slave or a slave-girl (to give as a reward to your suckling woman, who served you when you were a babe)."

[57] The Witness Pertaining To Suckling

3327-It is narrated on the authority of Uqbah Ibn Al-Harith that he said: I married a woman and then a black lady came to us and said: "I suckled you both." So I came to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "I married so-and-so, the daughter of so-and-so, and then a black lady came to us and said to me: "I suckled both of you." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" turned his face away from me. But I moved to be in his face, and said: " But I think she is a liar." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "How (can you keep her) since that lady said that she had suckled both of you? So divorce her."

[58] Marrying Such As Fathers Married

3328-It is narrated on the authority of Al-Bara Ibn Azib that he said: I met My maternal uncle carrying the flag (of leadership). I asked him: "Where are you going?" he said: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" has sent me to a man, who married his father's wife after his death, and ordered me to chop off his head(or kill him)."

[59] Allah's Saying: " Also (Prohibited Are) Women Already Married, Barring Those Whom Your Right Hands Possess"

3330- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent a military expedition to Awtas, and they faced their enemies (from among the infidels) and fought them and emerged victorious over them, and got female captives from them. It seemed that some of the companions of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" felt it difficult upon themselves to have sexual relation with them on account of their husbands from the pagans. On that occasion Allah Almighty revealed: "Also (prohibited are) women already married, except those whom your right hands possess." (An-Nisa 24) this means they would be lawful for them once the term of their Iddat elapsed.

[62] Giving In Marriage In Return For Surahs From The Qur'an

3336- It is narrated on the authority of Sahl Ibn Sa'd that he said: A woman came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Allah's Apostle! I've come to grant myself to you." He raised his eyes and looked at her and then lowered his head. When the woman saw that he did not make any decision, she sat down. On that, a man from his companions got up and said: "O Allah's Apostle! If you are not in need of this woman, then marry her to me." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do you have anything to give to her (as a dower)?" He replied: "No, by Allah, O Allah's Apostle! I've got nothing." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "Go and search for anything even if it is a ring of iron." Went and returned, the man said: "No, by Allah, O Allah's Apostle! I found nothing, even not a ring of iron. But I have this waist sheet of mine." The man had no upper garment, so he wanted to give her half his waist sheet. So The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "What would she do with your waist sheet? If you wear it, she will have nothing of it over her body, and if she wears it, you will have nothing over your body." Thus, the man sat for a long while. When he got up, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saw him. So he ordered somebody to call him. When he came, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked him: "How much of the Qur'an do you know?" He replied: "I know such and such Surah, such and such Surah, and such and such Surah." He went on counting. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked him: "Do you keep them by heart?" he replied: "Yes." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Go, I've given her in marriage to you for what you know of the Qur'an (and keep) by heart."

He then embraced Islam (and married her) and this was her dower.

Her guardian, being attracted by her wealth and beauty, would intend to marry her without giving her a just dower, The same as any other person might give her (in case he married her). So such guardians were forbidden to do that unless they did justice to their female wards and gave them the highest dower their nobles might get. (Women 127) A'ishah added: "And what Allah Almighty mentioned as being rehearsed in the Book is the former Holy Verse, in which He says: "If you fear that you shall not be able to deal justly with the orphans, marry such of women as you please." A'ishah added: "Allah's Statement in the latter Holy Verse: "And yet whom you desire to marry" (Women 127) describes anyone of you who refrains from marrying an orphan girl (under his guardianship) when she is lacking in property and beauty." A'ishah added: "So they were forbidden to marry those orphan girls for whose wealth and beauty they had a desire unless with justice, and that was because they would refrain from marrying them (if they were lacking in property and beauty)."

3345- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was living among us, the dower (of the majority of people) was ten ounces (four hundred Dirhams).

A man might make heavy the dower he gives to his wife so much that it leads to an enmity he has towards her, saying: "I've been put to difficulty (so much that for your sake I carried such troublesome things as) the rope of the water-skin or the sweat caused by the water-skin." But the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent nothing to her. The dower he gave to each one of his wives was (no more than) four hundred Dirhams.

3348- It is narrated on the authority of Anas that Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Awf came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having the traces of yellowish scent, thereupon the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked him about that, and he told him that he had married a woman from amongst the Ansar. the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked him: "How much have you given her as dower?" he said: "A date-stone's weight of gold." On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Make a wedding banquet even with a single sheep."

3349- It is narrated on the authority of Anas that Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Awf said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saw me with the joy of bridal on my face, thereupon I told him: "I've married a woman from amongst the Ansar." He asked him: "How much have you given her as dower?" he said: "A date-stone's weight of gold."

3350- It is narrated on the authority of Amr Ibn Shu'aib from his father from his grandfather Abdullah Ibn Amr that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Any woman who is married in return for a dower, a gift or a promised present to be given to her before holding the tie of wedlock, such should be for her, and whatever is given after holding the tie of marriage should be to such as to whom it is given (i.e. her guardian); and it is most fitting for a man to be honoured for the sake of his daughter or sister."

[68] It Is Permissible To Marry With No Dower

3351- It is narrated on the authority of both Alqamah and Al-Aswad that they said: Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud was asked (to give his religious verdict concerning) one who married a woman and then died before consummating marriage with her, and no dower was fixed for her. Abdullah said: "Ask whether there is a certain narration pertaining to that matter." They said: "O Abu Abd Ar-Rahman! We find no narration pertaining to that." He said: "Then, I shall give a religious verdict depending upon my own knowledge and opinion, and if it is right, then, it is of (the grace of) Allah (upon me). She should take a dower like her fellow women (who consummated marriage) with neither reduction nor increase. She should be given her portion of inheritance, and she also should fulfill the term (of Iddat prescribed for a widow)." A man from (the tribe of) Ashja' got up and said: "No doubt, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" passed such a judgement in favour of a woman belonging to us called Baru', daughter of Washiq. She got married to a man who died before consummating marriage with her." the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" Passed the judgement that She should take a dower like her fellow women (who consummated marriage), that she should be given her portion of inheritance, and that she also should fulfill the term (of Iddat prescribed for a widow)." Upon this Abdullah raised both his hands and said: "Allah is Greater."

3352- It is narrated on the authority of Alqamah that the religious verdict of Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud was sought pertaining to a woman who got married to a man and then he died without fixing a dower for her and he did not consummate marriage with her. They kept meeting him for a month, during which he gave no verdict until he said at last: "She should have the dower in full with no reduction nor increase, (her portion of) the heritage should be given to her, and the term of Iddat is binding upon her." On that Ma'qil Ibn Sinan Al-Ashja'i bore witness that The same judgement was passed by the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in connection with Baru' Bint Washiq.

3353- It is narrated on the authority of Masruq that Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud said pertaining to a man who marries a woman and does not consummate marriage with her until he dies, without fixing a dower for her: "She should have the dower in full, the term of Iddat is binding upon her, and (her portion of) the heritage should be given to her." On that Ma'qil Ibn Sinan said: "The same judgement was passed by the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in connection with Baru' Bint Washiq."

3354- A Hadith like this is narrated on the authority of Alqamah from Abdullah, through the same chain of transmission.

3355- It is narrated on the authority of Alqamah from Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud that some people came to him and asked: "One among us married a woman and no dower was fixed for her and then he died before consummating marriage with her." Abdullah said: "I've never been asked a question more difficult upon me than this since I left the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". So, you'd rather go to anyone else." They kept meeting with him for a month, and then they said to him at last: "Whom else other than you should we ask, if we do not ask you, since you are from the glorious companions of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in this town? We find none else other than you (to seek his verdict)." He said: "Then, I shall give a religious verdict depending upon my own knowledge and opinion, and if it is right, then, it is of (the grace of) Allah the One and Only, other than Whom there is no partner, and if it is wrong, it is then from me and from Satan, from which Allah and His messenger are free. I think that she should take a dower like the dower of her fellow-women (who consummated marriage), with no reduction nor increase, that she should be given her portion of inheritance, and she also should fulfill the term (of Iddat prescribed for a widow) of four months and ten days." This judgement was at the hearing of some people from (the tribe of) Ashja', thereupon they stood and said: "We bear witness that you've passed a judgement similar to that given by the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in favour of a woman belonging to us called Baru', daughter of Washiq." Abdullah has never been seen as happy as he was on that day except when he embraced Islam.

him". He uncovered his thigh and I saw the whiteness of the thigh of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". When he entered the town, he said: "Allah is greater! Khaibar is ruined. Whenever we approach near a (hostile) nation (to fight) then evil will be the morning of those who have been warned." He repeated this thrice. The people came out for their jobs and some of them said: "Mohammad (has come)." (Some of our companions added, "With his army.") We conquered Khaibar, took the captives, and the booty was collected. Dihyah came and said: "O Allah's Prophet! Give me a slave-girl from the captives." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Go and take any slave-girl." He took Safiyyah Bint Huyai. A man came to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Allah's Apostle! You gave Safiyyah Bint Huyai to Dihyah; she is the chief mistress of the tribes of Quraizhah and An-Nadir, and she befits none but you." So The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Bring him along with her." Dihyah came with her. When The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saw her, he said to Dihyah: "Take any slave-girl from the captives other than her." Anas added: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then manumitted and married her. Anas was asked: "O Abu Hamzah! What was her dower?" he answered: "Her dower was that she was manumitted." Anas added: "While on the way, Umm Sulaim dressed her for marriage (ceremony) and at night she sent her as a bride to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Being a bridegroom, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever has anything (of food) should bring it." He spread out a leather sheet (for the food) and some brought dates and others cooking butter. So, they prepared a great deal of food. That was the marriage banquet of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

3378- It is narrated on the authority of Anas that he said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" spent three days when he consummated marriage with Safiyyah Bint Huyai on the road of Khaibar, and then she came to be of those (his wives) over whom veil was drawn (since she became one of the Mothers of the Believers).

He ordered me to put it down and said: "Go and invite so and so, so and so, and whomever you meet." He named many (to be invited). I invited such as he named, and such as I met (on the way). I (the sub-narrator) asked Anas: "How many were they at that time?" he said: "Nearly three hundred." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Let each ten after the other sit in a circle-shape, and let each one eat of what is near to him (in the dish)." He said to him: "Might Allah bless you in your property and wives. But you'd rather guide me to the market." He did not return (from the market) until he brought with him ghee and cottage cheese, which he profited (out of trade). He further said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saw the traces of yellowish scent on me, and he asked: "What is that?" ## (27) THE BOOK OF DIVORCE

[1] The Due Time Of Divorce On The Basis Of The Prescribed Period Fixed By Allah For Women Meant To Be Divorced

3386- It is narrated on the authority of Nafi' from Abdullah Ibn Umar that he had divorced his wife while she was menstruating. Umar Ibn Al-Khattab sought the verdict of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about that. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Order Abdullah to take her back and keep her till she is clean and then to wait till she gets her next period and becomes clean again. If he wishes to divorce her he can divorce her before approaching her; and if he wishes to keep her, he can do so: that is the prescribed period fixed by Allah Almighty for the women meant to be divorced."

3387- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he had divorced his wife while she was menstruating during the lifetime of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Umar Ibn Al-Khattab asked Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about that. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Order him (your son) to take her back and keep her till she is clean and then to wait till she gets her next period and becomes clean again. If he wishes to keep her, he can do so. If he wishes to divorce her he can divorce her before approaching her; and that is the prescribed period fixed by Allah for the women meant to be divorced."

3388- It is narrated on the authority of Az-Zuhri that he was asked about the prescribed period fixed for women meant to be divorced, thereupon he said: Salim Ibn Abdullah related to me from his father Ibn Umar that he said: I divorced my wife while she was menstruating during the lifetime of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Umar Ibn Al-Khattab made a mention of that to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", thereupon Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" grew angry and said: "Order him (your son) to take her back and keep her till she (is clean and then to wait till she) gets her next period and then becomes clean again. If it seems to him to divorce her he can divorce her while she is clean, before approaching her; and that is the prescribed period fixed by Allah Almighty for the women meant to be divorced." Abdullah Ibn Umar said: I brought her back, and counted for her the first divorce, which I had pronounced.

3389- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Az-Zubair that Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Ayman (the freed slave of Urwah) asked Ibn Umar, while Abu

Az-Zubair was listening: "What do you think of a man who divorced his wife while she was menstruating?" he said: Abdullah Ibn Umar had divorced his wife while she was menstruating during the lifetime of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Umar asked Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about that saying: "Abdullah Ibn Umar divorced his wife, while she was menstruating (what is your religious verdict as regards this matter)?" Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Let him (your son) take her back." He (the Prophet) caused him to take her back (and did not consider such divorce during menses of significance). He (the Prophet) said: "When she becomes clean, let him divorce (her if he so wishes), or keep (her if he so wishes)." Ibn Umar said: Then, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" recited: "O Prophet! When you do divorce women, divorce them at their prescribed periods, and count (accurately) their prescribed periods: and fear Allah your Lord."

3390- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said in comment on Allah's saying: "O Prophet! When you do divorce women, divorce them at their prescribed periods, and count (accurately) their prescribed periods: and fear Allah your Lord": "It refers to the first portion of such prescribed period.

[2] The Divorce According To The Right Way Of Sunnah

3391- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah that he said: The (Final irrevocable) divorce according to the right way of sunnah (for such as likes to do it, even though it is of the lawful things most loathsome in the Sight of Allah) is to pronounce divorce once when one's wife is clean before approaching her (after getting pure from menses), and then when she gets menses and becomes clean, he might divorce her once again, and when she gets menses and then becomes clean, he might divorce her for the third time, after which, she should fulfill the period of her Iddat by one menses. Al-A'mash said: I asked Ibrahim about that narration, and he told me the same.

3392- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah that he said: The (Final irrevocable) divorce according to the right way of sunnah (for such as likes to do it, even though it is of the lawful things most loathsome in the Sight of Allah) is to divorce one's wife when she is clean before approaching her (after getting pure from menses).

[3] What One Should Do If He Divorces His Wife Once While She Is Menstruating?

3393- It is narrated on the authority of Nafi' from Abdullah Ibn Umar that he had divorced his wife while she was menstruating. Umar Ibn Al-Khattab 3390 - أَخْبَرَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ بَشَّارٍ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ جَعْفَرٍ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا شُعْبَةُ عَنِ الْحَكَمِ قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ مُجَاهِدًا يُحَدِّثُهُ عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ: فِي قَوْلِهِ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ ﴿يَتَأْتِيَ النَّبِيَّ إِذَا طَلَّقْتُمُ النِّسَاءَ فَطَلِّقُوهُنَّ لِعِدَّتِهِنَّ﴾ [الطلاق، الآية: 1] قَالَ ابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ: قُبُلِ عِدَّتِهِنَّ.

(2) - بَابُ طَلَاقِ السُّنَّةِ

3391 - أَخْبَرَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ يَحْيَى بْنُ أَيُّوبَ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا حَفْصُ بْنُ غِيَاثٍ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا الْأَعْمَشُ عَنْ أَبِي إِسْحَاقَ عَنْ أَبِي الْأَحْوَصِ عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ أَنَّهُ قَالَ: طَلَاقُ السُّنَّةِ تَطْلِيقُ وَهِيَ طَاهِرٌ فِي غَيْرِ جَمَاعٍ فَإِذَا حَاضَتْ وَطَهَّرْتَ طَلَّقَهَا أُخْرَى فَإِذَا حَاضَتْ وَطَهَّرْتَ طَلَّقَهَا أُخْرَى ثُمَّ تَعَدَّدُ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ بِحَيْضَةٍ. قَالَ الْأَعْمَشُ: سَأَلْتُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ فَقَالَ مِثْلَ ذَلِكَ.

3392 - أَخْبَرَنَا عَمْرُو بْنُ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا يَحْيَى عَنْ سُفْيَانَ عَنْ أَبِي إِسْحَاقَ عَنْ أَبِي الْأَحْوَصِ عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ قَالَ: «طَلَاقُ السُّنَّةِ أَنْ يُطَلَّقَهَا طَاهِرًا فِي غَيْرِ جَمَاعٍ».

(3) - بَابُ مَا يَفْعَلُ إِذَا طَلَّقَ تَطْلِيقًا وَهِيَ حَائِضٌ؟

3393 - أَخْبَرَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عَبْدِ الْأَعْلَى قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا الْمُعْتَمِرُ قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ عُيَيْنَةَ بْنَ عُمَرَ عَنْ نَافِعٍ عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ: أَنَّهُ طَلَّقَ امْرَأَتَهُ وَهِيَ حَائِضٌ تَطْلِيقًا فَاذْطَلَّقَ

set out in order to seek the verdict of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about that. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Order Abdullah to take her back and keep her till she takes bath (and becomes clean from her menses), and then to let her till she gets her next period and when she takes bath (and becomes clean) from her other menses, let not him approach her before he divorces her (if he so likes); and if he wishes to keep her, he can do so: that is the prescribed period fixed by Allah Almighty for the women meant to be divorced."

3394- It is narrated on the authority of Salim that Ibn Umar divorced his wife while she was menstruating, and when Umar made a mention of that to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "Tell him to bring her back and then divorce her (if he so likes) once she gets clean or while she is pregnant."

[4] The Divorce Far From The Prescribed Period

3395- It is narrated on the authority of Sa'id Ibn Jubair that Ibn Umar divorced his wife while she was menstruating, thereupon the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" made him bring her back, (and he kept her) until he divorced her while she was clean (from menses, without having sexual relation with her).

[5] The Divorce Far From The Prescribed Period, And What Is Counted Out Of It Upon Such As Pronounces Divorce

3396- it is narrated on the authority of Yunus Ibn Jubair that he said: I asked Ibn Umar about a man who divorced his wife while she was menstruating, and he said: Do you know Abdullah Ibn Umar? Abdullah Ibn Umar divorced his wife once, while she was menstruating. Then, Umar went to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and asked for his verdict, thereupon he said: "Tell him to take her back (and keep her until she is clean) and then divorce her (if he so likes) at the beginning of her prescribed period (before approaching her)." I (Yunus) asked: "Was it counted (as valid one divorce)?" he (Ibn Umar) said: "What would it be then (if it was not counted)? What would you think if someone became helpless (to take her back) and foolish?"

3397- It is narrated on the authority of Yunus Ibn Jubair that he said: I asked Ibn Umar about a man who divorced his wife while she was menstruating, and he said: Do you know Abdullah Ibn Umar? He divorced his wife once, while she was menstruating. Then, Umar went to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and asked for 3394 - أَخْبَرَنَا مَحْمُودُ بْنُ غِيلَانَ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا وَكِيعٌ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا سُفْيَانُ عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ مَوْلَى طَلْحَةَ عَنْ سَالِمِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ: أَنَّهُ طَلَّقَ امْرَأَتَهُ وَهِيَ حَائِضٌ فَذَكَرَ ذَلِكَ لِلنَّبِيِّ ﷺ فَقَالَ: «مُرْهُ فَلْيُرَاجِعْهَا ثُمَّ لِيُطَلِّقْهَا وَهِيَ ظَاهِرٌ أَوْ حَامِلٌ».

(4) - بَابُ الطَّلَاقِ لَغَيْرِ الْعِدَّةِ

3395 - أَخْبَرَنِي زِيَادُ بْنُ أَيُّوبَ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا هُشَيْمٌ قَالَ: أَخْبَرَنَا أَبُو بَشِيرٍ عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ جُبَيْرٍ عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ: «أَنَّهُ طَلَّقَ امْرَأَتَهُ وَهِيَ حَائِضٌ فَردَّهَا عَلَيْهِ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ حَتَّى طَلَّقَهَا وَهِيَ ظَاهِرٌ».

(5) - الطَّلَاقُ لَغَيْرِ الْعِدَّةِ وَمَا يُحْتَسَبُ مِنْهُ عَلَى الْمُطَلَّقِ

3396 - أَخْبَرَنَا قُتَيْبَةُ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا حَمَّادٌ عَنْ أَيُّوبَ عَنْ مُحَمَّدٍ عَنْ يُونُسَ بْنِ جُبَيْرٍ قَالَ: سَأَلْتُ ابْنَ عُمَرَ عَنْ رَجُلٍ طَلَّقَ امْرَأَتَهُ وَهِيَ حَائِضٌ فَقَالَ: هَلْ تَعْرِفُ عَبْدَ اللَّهِ بْنَ عُمَرَ؟ فَإِنَّهُ طَلَّقَ امْرَأَتَهُ وَهِيَ حَائِضٌ فَسَأَلَ عُمَرُ النَّبِيَّ ﷺ فَأَمَرَهُ أَنْ يُرَاجِعَهَا ثُمَّ يَسْتَقْبِلَ عِدَّتَهَا فَقُلْتُ لَهُ: فَيَعْتَدُ بِتِلْكَ التَّطْلِيقَةِ؟ فَقَالَ: مَهْ أَرَأَيْتَ إِنْ عَجَزَ وَاسْتَحَمَقَ.

3397 - أَخْبَرَنَا يَعْقُوبُ بْنُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ عُليَّةَ عَنْ يُونُسَ عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ سِيرِينَ عَنْ يُونُسَ بْنِ جُبَيْرٍ قَالَ: قُلْتُ لِابْنِ عُمَرَ: رَجُلٌ طَلَّقَ امْرَأَتَهُ وَهِيَ حَائِضٌ فَقَالَ: أَتَعْرِفُ عَبْدَ اللَّهِ بْنَ عُمَرَ؟ فَإِنَّهُ طَلَّقَ امْرَأَتَهُ وَهِيَ حَائِضٌ فَأَتَى عُمَرُ

his verdict, thereupon he said: "Tell him to take her back (and keep her until she is clean) and then divorce her (if he so likes) at the beginning of her prescribed period (before approaching her)." I (Yunus) asked: "Tell me: if one divorced his wife while she was menstruating: would it be counted (as valid one divorce)?" he (Ibn Umar) said: "What would it be then (if it was not counted)? What would you think if someone became helpless (to take her back) and foolish?"

[6] The Three Combined Pronouncements Of Divorce, And The Severe Warning (Of Practicing That)

3398- It is narrated on the authority of Mahmud Ibn Labid that he said: the news reached the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that a man divorced his wife thrice simultaneously, thereupon he stood up angrily and said: "Would the Book of Allah (the Qur'an) be dealt with jestingly even though I'm living among you?" a man stood and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Should I not kill him?" (The Holy Verse meant here is Allah's saying: "A divorce is only permissible twice: after that, the parties should either hold together on equitable terms, or separate with kindness." (Al-Baqarah 229) this does not mean that the three permissible divorces could be pronounced simultaneously as that man whom the Prophet criticized did: on the contrary, each divorce should be pronounced solely, after which the couple might hold together; but after the third divorce is pronounced, they should irrevocably separate).

[7] The Concession Pertaining To That

3399- It is narrated on the authority of Sahl Ibn Sa'd As-Sa'idi that he said: Uwaimir Al-Ajlani came to Asim Ibn Adi and said: "What do you say, O Asim, about a man who has found another man with his wife? Should he kill him whereupon they would kill him (The husband), or what should he do? Please, O Asim, ask Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about this matter on my behalf." Asim asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about that. But Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" disliked the question and considered it as shameful to the extent that Asim felt it because of what The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had said to him. Then Asim returned home and Uwaimir came to him. Uwaimir asked Asim: "O Asim! What did The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" answer you?" Asim replied: "You brought to me no good. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" disliked such questions and considered them as shameful." Uwaimir then said: "By Allah, I will not Uwaimir came to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said to him while being in the gathering of people: "O Allah's Apostle! What do you think about a man who has found another man with his wife! Should he kill him whereupon you would kill him (the husband, in retaliation) or what should he do?" Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah has revealed regarding you and your wife's case in the Qur'an. Go and bring her." Sahl told: They performed the measures of Li'an (invoking Allah's curse upon the liar) according to what Allah had mentioned in His Book, while I was present among the people with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Uwaimir said: "O Allah's Apostle! If I kept her I would be a liar." So Uwaimir divorced her thrice before being ordered by Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

They said: "O Messenger of Allah! He sent to her three pronouncements of divorce." On that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Both maintenance and residence are due to a woman whose husband has the right to bring her back (i.e. before the third and final divorce)."

[15] A Man Sends To His Wife That He Has Divorced Her

3415- It is narrated on the authority of Fatimah Bint Qais that she said: My husband sent to me that he had divorced me, thereupon I straightened my dress upon me and went direct to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and (when I told him) he asked me: "How many times did he divorce you?" I said: "Three times." On that he said: "Then, no maintenance is due to you; and spend the period of your Iddat in the house of your paternal cousin Ibn Umm Maktum, for he is blind, in whose house you could be able to put off your garment at ease; and when your term of Iddat comes to an end, inform me."

3416- The same is narrated on the authority of Mujahid from Tamim, the freed slave of Fatimah, from Fatimah.

[16] Allah's Statement: "O Prophet! Why do you Hold To Be Forbidden That Which Allah Has Made Lawful To you?"

3417- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that a man came to him and said: "I've made my wife unlawful for me." On that he said to him: "You've told a lie! By no means should she be unlawful for you." Then, he recited Allah's Statement: "O Prophet! Why do you hold to be forbidden that which Allah has made lawful to you?" (At-Tahrim 1) the most grievous expiation is due upon you, i.e. to emancipate a slave.

[17] Another Interpretation Of This Holy Statement

3418- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to spend some time in the house of Zainab, the daughter of Jahsh, and drink honey there. So Hafsah and I agreed secretly that, if he should come to either of us, she will say to him: "It seems you have eaten Maghafir (a kind of bad-smelling resin), for I smell in you the smell of Maghafir." When he entered upon one of us, we said that to him. He replied: "No, but I was drinking honey in the house of Zainab, the daughter of Jahsh, and I shall never take it again." Then Allah revealed: "O Prophet! Why do you hold to be forbidden that which Allah has made lawful to you? You do seek to please your consorts. But Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful." (Prohibition "At-Tahrim" 1) he also said: "If you two turn in repentance to Him (meaning Hafsah and A'ishah), your hearts are indeed so inclined." (4) He also said: "When the Prophet

I said: "Should I divorce her; or else! What should I do?" He said: "No, only keep aloof from her and do not approach her." ### [19] The Slave's Divorce

3424- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hasan, the freed slave of Banu Nawfal that he said: I and my wife were slaves, and I divorced her twice, after which we were manumitted. I made a mention of that to Ibn Abbas, who said to me: "If you bring her back, (it will be lawful for) her to be with you, and only one divorce remains for you. This is the same judgement given by Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." (This is based upon the commandment that the divorce for a slave is only twice, not thrice, after which it becomes irrevocable; and when he becomes free, he acquires the rights and obligations of the free men, and thus, this slave had the right to bring his wife back, even after two pronouncements of divorce. But anyway, this was abrogated).

3425- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hasan, the freed slave of Banu Nawfal that he said: Ibn Abbas was asked about a slave who divorced his wife twice, and then he was emancipated: should he be able to remarry her? He said: "Yes." He asked: "From whom (do you relate that)?" he said: "This is the same religious verdict given by Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." Ibn Al-Mubarak said to Ma'mar: This Abu Al-Hasan has caused himself to carry a heavy rock (by relating this narration).

[28] When Two Emancipated Slaves Are Given The Freedom Of Choice (To Hold Together Or Separate)

3443- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Qasim Ibn Muhammad that A'ishah had a (couple of a) slave and a slave-girl. She said: I intended to emancipate them, and when I made a mention of that to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" he said to me: "Start with (emancipating) the slave first before the slave-girl." (The reason for that the woman should be given no authority to choose herself and leave him, for if she was emancipated first, she would be free, by the time he was still a slave, and in this way, she would have the right to depart from him if she so liked).

[29] When A Slave-Girl Is Given The Freedom Of Choice

3444- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Qasim Ibn Muhammad from A'ishah that she said: Three principles were established for Barirah: Barirah was manumitted. Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave her the choice (either to stay with her husband or leave him, and she chose her freedom and separation from him). (Barirah's masters wanted to sell her on the condition that the allegiance i.e. the right of inheriting her property should be for them. I mentioned that to the Prophet, thereupon) The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The allegiance (i.e. the right of inheriting the property of a freed slave) is for the manumitter." (The people used to give her in charity, and she used to present to us gifts from those objects of charity given to her). One day, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to visit me, and the cooking vessel was boiling with meat. Some bread and condiment were brought near to him, thereupon The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Have I not seen a cooking vessel boiling with meat?" they said: "Yes, O Messenger of Allah! This meat was given to Barirah in charity." On that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It is (an object of) charity for her, and (an item of) gift for us."

[30] When A Freed Slave-Girl Is Given The Freedom Of Choice, Even Though Her Husband Is A Free Person

3446- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: I bought Barirah, and her masters stipulated the condition that the right of inheriting her property should be for them. I mentioned that to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who said: "(Buy and then) manumit her, for the right of inheriting the property of a slave is for the (manumitter, i.e. the) one who gives the price of emancipation." I then (bought and) manumitted her. Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" invited her and gave her the choice (either to stay with her husband or leave him), and she said: "Even if he gives me such and such (wealth), I would not remain with him." In this way, she chose her (freedom and separation from him), and her husband was a free person.

3447- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she wanted to buy Barirah in order to emancipate her, but they (her owners) stipulated that the right of inheriting her property should be for them. A'ishah mentioned that to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who said: "Buy and then emancipate her, for the right of inheriting the property of a freed slave is for the manumitter." Once, some meat was brought, and it was said that it was given To Barirah in charity. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to her: "Buy (and emancipate) her and stipulate that the right of inheriting her property would be for you, since such a right is for him who manumitted." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stood up (to address the people). He praised Allah and lauded Him as He deserves. Then, he said: "To go further: What about people who impose conditions which are not in Allah's Book? What is the matter with those people who say: "Emancipate so-and-so, and the right of inheriting his property should be for us"? Allah's decisions are the right ones and His conditions are the strong firmer ones, and Any condition that is not in Allah's Book is invalid even if there were one hundred conditions." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave her the freedom of choice (to remain with her husband or leave him) and her husband was a slave, and she chose herself (i.e. to be separated from him after she had been emancipated). Urwah said: Had he (her husband) been a free, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" would not have given her such a freedom of choice.

3449- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: Barirah's husband was a slave.

[33] What About Zihar?

(It is to make one's wife unlawful for him as far as sexual relation is concerned, the same as is the back of his mother for him.)

3454- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that a man made his wife unlawful for him by way of Zihar; and then he had sexual intercourse with her before making expiation. He came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and made a mention of that to him, thereupon he said: "What led you to do so?" he said: "I saw her bangle in the moonlight (which stimulated in me the desire for her)." On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered him not to approach her until he would make expiation.

3455- It is narrated on the authority of Ikrimah that a man made his wife unlawful for him by way of Zihar; and then he had sexual intercourse with her before making expiation. He came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and made a mention of that to him, thereupon he said: "What led you to do so?" he said: "Allah's Mercy be upon you O Messenger of Allah! I saw her bangle in the moonlight (which stimulated in me the desire for her)." On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "Keep aloof from her until you do what Allah Almighty has ordered you to do (i.e. to make expiation for that)."

3456- It is narrated on the authority of Ikrimah that a man came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah! So and so (referring to himself) has made his wife unlawful for him by way of Zihar; and then he had sexual intercourse with her before fulfilling what was due upon him (i.e. the expiation relating to that)." the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "What led you to do so?" he said: "Allah's Mercy be upon you O Messenger of Allah! I saw the whiteness of her legs in the moonlight (which stimulated in me the desire for her)." On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "Keep aloof from her until you fulfill what is due upon you (i.e. make expiation for that)."

3457- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: "Praise be to Allah Almighty, Whose Hearing encompasses all things. Khawlah came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" complaining her husband, and some of her speech was hidden from me, 3456 - أَخْبَرَنَا إِسْحَاقُ بْنُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ قَالَ: أَنْبَأَنَا الْمُعْتَمِرُ ح. وَأَنْبَأَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عَبْدِ الْأَعْلَى قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا الْمُعْتَمِرُ قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ الْحَكَمَ بْنَ أَبَانَ قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ عِكْرِمَةَ قَالَ: أَتَى رَجُلٌ نَبِيَّ اللَّهِ ﷺ فَقَالَ: يَا نَبِيَّ اللَّهِ إِنَّهُ ظَاهَرَ مِنْ أَمْرَاتِهِ، ثُمَّ عَشِيَهَا قَبْلَ أَنْ يَفْعَلَ مَا عَلَيْهِ قَالَ: «مَا حَمَلَكَ عَلَى ذَلِكَ؟» قَالَ: يَا نَبِيَّ اللَّهِ رَأَيْتُ بَيَاضَ سَاقِيهَا فِي الْقَمَرِ، قَالَ نَبِيُّ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «فَاعْتَزِلْ حَتَّى تَقْضِيَ مَا عَلَيْكَ». وَقَالَ إِسْحَاقُ فِي حَدِيثِهِ: «فَاعْتَزِلْهَا حَتَّى تَقْضِيَ مَا عَلَيْكَ» وَاللَّفْظُ لِمُحَمَّدٍ.

thereupon Allah Almighty revealed: "Allah has indeed heard (and accepted) the statement of the woman who pleads with you concerning her husband." (Al-Mujadilah 1)

[34] The Divorce At The Wife's Request

3458- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that he said: "Such of women as seek to leave their husbands by way of divorce at their request (with no legal excuse) are the hypocrites."

3459- It is narrated on the authority of Amrah Bint Abd Ar-Rahman that Habibah Bint Sahl was the wife of Thabit Ibn Qais Ibn Shamas. One day, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came out to offer the Morning prayer, and he found Habibah Bint Sahl standing in the darkness near his gate. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked: "Who is she?" she said: "I'm Habibah Bint Sahl." He asked: "What is the matter with you?" she said: "Neither I nor Thabit Ibn Qais (her husband are fitting as spouses for each other)." When Thabit Ibn Qais came the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "This is Habibah Bint Sahl." She mentioned what Allah willed her to mention, and said: "O Messenger of Allah! All that he has given to me is with me (and I'm ready to give everything back to him)." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to Thabit Ibn Qais: "Take from her." (He parted them and) she joined the house of her family.

3460- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: The wife of Thabit Ibn Qais Ibn Shamas came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Allah's Apostle! I do not find fault with Thabit for defects in his character or his religion, but I, being a Muslim, dislike to behave in non-Islamic manner (if I remain with him)." On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (to her): "Will you give back the garden which he has given to you (as dower)?" She said: "Yes." She gave it back. Then the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" told Thabit to divorce her once.

3461- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: A man went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "My wife never prevents the hand of such as likes to touch her (from reaching her)." He said to him: "Divorce her." He said: "I am afraid that my heart will keep attached to her." On that he said to him: "Then (keep her with the intention to) take your pleasure from her."

اللَّهُ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ: ﴿قَدْ سَمِعَ اللَّهُ قَوْلَ الَّتِي تُجَادِلُكَ فِي زَوْجِهَا وَتَشْتَكِي إِلَى اللَّهِ وَاللَّهُ يَسْمَعُ تَحَاوُرَكُمَا﴾ [المجادلة: 1]. الآية.

He said to him: "Divorce her." He said: "I could not keep patient on leaving her." On that he said to him: "Then keep her (with the intention to take your pleasure from her)."

[35] What About Li'an

(It is to invoke Allah's Curse upon the liar of the couple, when the husband launches a charge against his wife that she has committed adultery, and he has no four witnesses to affirm his claim).

3463- It is narrated on the authority of Sahl Ibn Sa'd As-Sa'idi that Asim Ibn Adi said: Uwaimir Al-Ajlani came to me and said: "What do you say, O Asim, about a man who has found another man with his wife? Should he kill him whereupon you would kill him (The husband), or what should he do? Please, O Asim, ask Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about this matter on my behalf." I asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about that. But Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" disliked the question and considered it as shameful. Then Uwaimir came to him and asked: "O Asim! What did you do?" Asim replied: "What I did was that you brought to me no good. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" disliked such questions and considered them as shameful." Uwaimir then said: "By Allah, I will ask Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about it." Uwaimir came to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and asked about that, thereupon Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah has revealed regarding you and your wife's case in the Qur'an. Go and bring her." Sahl told: while I was present among the people with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" he brought her. They performed the measures of Li'an (invoking Allah's curse upon the liar). Uwaimir said: "O Allah's Apostle! If I kept her I would be a liar." So Uwaimir divorced her before being ordered by Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". In this way, divorce became a tradition after them for those who happened to be involved in a case of invoking Allah's curse upon the liar of the couple (husband and wife when she is accused of committing adultery).

3462 - أَخْبَرَنَا إِسْحَاقُ بْنُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا النَّضْرُ بْنُ شَمِيلٍ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا حَمَّادُ بْنُ سَلَمَةَ قَالَ: أَنْبَأَنَا هَارُونُ بْنُ رِثَابٍ عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُبَيْدٍ بْنِ عُمَيْرٍ عَنْ أَبِي عَبَّاسٍ: أَنَّ رَجُلًا قَالَ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ إِنَّ تَحْتِي امْرَأَةً لَا تَرُدُّ يَدَ لَامِسٍ قَالَ: «طَلِّقْهَا» قَالَ: إِنِّي لَا أَصْبِرُ عَنْهَا قَالَ: «فَأَمْسِكْهَا».

قَالَ أَبُو عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ: هَذَا خَطَأٌ وَالصَّوَابُ مُرْسَلٌ.

[36] Practicing Li'an On The Basis Of Pregnancy

3464- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered that the measures of Li'an (invoking Allah's Curse upon the liar of the couple when the wife is accused of committing adultery) be carried out between Al-Ajlani and his wife, and she was pregnant.

[37] Practicing Li'an When One Accuses His Wife Of Committing Adultery With A Certain Man

3465- It is narrated on the authority of Hisham about the man who accuses his wife of committing adultery, and he transmitted from Muhammad that he said: I asked Anas Ibn Malik, thinking that he had knowledge (of the matter of invoking curse). He said: Hilal Ibn Umayyah accused his wife of committing adultery with Sharik Ibn Sahma. He was the half-brother of Al-Bara Ibn Malik, from the side of his mother. He was the first man to carry out (the measures of) invoking curses (upon the liar of the couple) in Islam. Both of them implemented (the measures of) invoking curses. Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Watch her: If she delivered a white-complexioned, lank-haired and red-eyed child, then, he (such a child) should be (the son of) Hilal Ibn Umayyah (who would be, in turn, regarded to have accused her falsely); and if she delivered a blacked-eyed, curly-haired child of thin shins, then he (such a child) should be (the son) of Sharik Ibn Sahma (and in this case she should have committed fornication)." I (the narrator) was told then that she delivered a blacked-eyed, curly-haired child, with thin shins.

[38] The Measures Of Li'an

3466- It is narrated on the authority of Anas that he said: The first Li'an in Islam to be carried out was that Hilal Ibn Umayyah accused his wife of committing adultery with Sharik Ibn Sahma. He went and filed the case before The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (to Hilal): "Either you bring forth (a proof of four witnesses) or you will receive the legal punishment (lashes) on your back." He said the same to him repeatedly, thereupon Hilal said: "By Allah, O Allah's Apostle! Allah Almighty knows for certain that I've told the truth, and He Almighty will reveal to you what will save my back from legal punishment." Such being the case, the Holy Verse of Li'an was revealed to him: "And for those who launch a charge against their spouses, and have (in support) no evidence but their own, their solitary evidence (can be received) if they bear witness four times (with an oath) by Allah that they are solemnly telling the truth; And the fifth (oath) (should be) that they solemnly invoke the curse of Allah on themselves if they tell a lie. But it would avert the punishment from the wife, if she bears witness four times (with an oath) by Allah, that (her husband) is telling a lie; And the fifth (oath) should be that she solemnly invokes the wrath of Allah on herself if (her accuser) is telling the truth." (An-Nur 6:8) Then The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" invited Hilal who bore witness by Allah four times that he had told the truth, and the fifth was that Allah's Curse be upon him if he had told a lie. The woman was invited and bore witness by Allah four times that he (her husband) had told a lie, and when she was going to take the fourth or the fifth one (that the wrath of Allah be on herself if her accuser had told the truth), the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (to the people): "Stop her for it (the fifth oath) will definitely bring Allah's curse on you (if you are guilty)." So she hesitated and shrank back (from taking the oath) so much that we thought that she would confess of her guilt. But then she said: "I will not dishonour my family all through these days," and carried on the process of taking oaths. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then said: "Watch her: If she delivered a white-complexioned, lank-haired and red-eyed child, then, he (such a child) should be (the son of) Hilal Ibn Umayyah (who would be, in turn, regarded to have accused her falsely); and if she delivered a blacked-eyed, curly-haired child of thin shins, then he (such a child) should be (the son) of Sharik Ibn Sahma (and in this case she should have committed fornication)." She delivered a blacked-eyed, curly-haired child, with thin shins. So The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Had the case not been settled by Allah's Law, I would have punished her severely."

[39] When The Imam Says: "O Allah! Disclose The Truth!"

3467- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Qasim Ibn Muhammad: Ibn Abbas said: Once Li'an (invoking Allah's curse upon the liar of the couple when the wife is accused of committing adultery) was mentioned before The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" whereupon Asim Ibn Adi said something and went away. Then a man from his tribe came to him, complaining that he had found a man with his wife. Asim said: "I have not been put to trial except for my statement (about invoking Allah's curse upon the liar)." Asim took the man to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and the man told him of the state in which he had found his wife. The man was pale, thin, and of lank hair, while the other man, whom he claimed he had seen with his wife, was brown, fat and had much flesh on his calves. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" invoked,

[40] Putting The Hand Over The Mouth Of Such As Involved In Carrying Out The Measures Of Li'an At The Fifth Witness

3469- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that when the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered a couple to carry out the measures of invoking Allah's Curse upon the liar of them, since the wife was accused of committing adultery, he ordered a man to put his hand over his mouth at the fifth witness and said: "No doubt, this (final witness) will assure (the punish for him in case he has told a lie)."
